At a combined meeting of town council, Soldiers' Aid Commission and Veterans' Ass'n in Owen Sound Monday, it was proposed to erect a club house in O. Sound, as a memorial to those who have fallen. The building is to provide recreation rooms, baths, etc. for the returned men. Also a museum of war relics, and incidentally a hall that would be available for public meetings and concerts. The possible cost was placed at $100,000 Directors and the County would be asked to join and pay half, the town paying the other half and the maintenance.
