PRICEVILLE VILLAGE

Mr Woods of Sandak occupied the pulpit here on Sunday and preached a splendid sermon at the morning and evening services.

Mr Arthur Hutton, who is teaching at Irish Lake, visited his aunt, the Misses Wright over the week end.

Mr and Mrs Wm. Ramage of Dromore attended church here Sunday evening.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs Arrowsmith and family of Glenelg Centre in the loss of their husband, and father.

Pleased to see Miss Harrow, teacher, able to take up duties again after being laid up with the "flu" for the past couple of weeks.

Mr and Mrs Dougall McDougall attended the funeral of the latter's brother in Osprey last week.

Sorry the two boys from the Glen who were in Priceville Friday evening were disappointed but come again Danie.

Dr Brad Jamieson of Durham was in Priceville Sunday.

Mr Brawley visited friends at Toronto, Fraxa, Hanover and other points last week.

In last week's budget we overlooked congratulating Mr Thos. Nichol, Glenelg, who was elected reeve but extend hearty congratulations now.

A memorial service will be held in the Methodist church on Sunday morning for the late Mrs G. A. Watson, as the family were laid up with the "flu" at the time of her death and were unable to hear the service preached.

Mr Brawley and family left this Monday morning for their new home at Gorrie, and although they have only been here for the past nine months they have made many friends in and around Priceville.

Mr Brawley will be sorely missed as he took an active part in church work and all that was of interest to the village and his services were greatly valued in many ways during his short time here. His duty as station agent could not be beaten, being one of the most capable obliging men on the road and if his health had permitted him, Mr Brawley would no doubt have been Superintendent before coming to take charge of Priceville.

Mr Brawley spent twenty three years at Fraxa and any time he feels like returning his place is there open for him and later to had charge of T. Kingham where probably he would have remained had not his health interfered but his duties there were very trying at times, so he came to Priceville where he has gained up wonderful in health and strength and although his many friends were sorry to see him depart, still we hope our loss will be his gain and to him and family we hope good luck and good fortune will attend.

A number of friends gathered at their home Saturday evening to present a few hours with them and to present them with a small remembrance from Priceville. Following is the address: Mr and Mrs Brawley and family: Dear Friends,—

The citizens of Priceville regret very much to learn of your leaving the village during the short time you have been here. You have won a very warm place in the friendship of the people of Priceville as a slight token of appreciation and kindly feeling of all toward you, we ask you to accept this memento for its value alone but as a slight remembrance. We hope that in your new home you may have G. d's richest blessings and that you may be spared to come back and see us all gain in Priceville.

Signed on behalf of your friends,
Rev. J. R. McCarten,
H. B. McLean,
Don. McLachlan.

Mr Brawley made a suitable reply for himself and Mrs Brawley. The evening was spent in singing, music, etc., after which a splendid lunch was served and everyone bid Mr Brawley and family farewell and returned to their homes pleased with the evening's amusement.

THE GLEN

We extend sympathy to the bereaved family and friends of Mrs. Mary McArthur, who passed peacefully away at her home at D. J. McArthur's, at the venerable age of 90 years, Friday, Jan. 17, 1919. By her beautiful christian life, she leaves with us an exemplary memory which will ever remain green to all who had the privilege of making her acquaintance. We learn that fuller particulars will be given by another writer. Deceased has three daughters living: Mrs. Duffield, Guelph; Mrs. Joseph Firth, Durham; Mrs. Geo. Houghtly, London. Two sons: Donald at home John in the west, but who is home for the funeral. She is the last of four sisters and three of her brothers are well-known Chas. John, and Don. McArthur of the Glen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brown visited the former's father. Mr. Jas. Brown, who we are sorry to report has been in very poor health for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wilson, also Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Beaton, visited at Mr. Angus McArthur's recently.

Glad the flu patients of the vicinity are recuperating nicely.

The manyfriends of Serg't. Jno. McKee will be glad to note that he is among those who have reached Halifax and is expected home very shortly after doing his "bit" for King and Country.

PRICEVILLE AND LIMITS

Monday night, 20th Jan., 1919, looks more like a night the beginning of April. However the tide may take a turn before morning and reverse the subject. Sleighting is very good and in general good use is made of it by some drawing logs, wood, hay (but no stubble)

The "flu" is going backward but those that had it feel the effects of it yet as it weakens the system. Priceville feels the want of a doctor badly. We remember when we had two doctors in this small town and both made a good living. However we are getting along although put about sometimes to get one of Durham's M. D's or some other part.

Mrs McDonald, O. D. R., is suffering for some time with some ailment but we hope to hear of the good lady getting better soon.

Mr Dougald McCormick is still on the sick list and is holding his own fairly well. He is attended by his ever faithful wife and niece, Mrs D. Graham.

Rev Mr Kendall of Sandak preached the Presbyterian Ch. here vesant, a week ago Sunday. Mr. Woods, a local preacher from Corbiton, gave a good sermon last Sunday and Rev

SWINTON PARK

A happy event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wright, when their daughter Annie, was united in holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. McLean of Honeywood. Rev Mr McCartney tied the nuptial knot in the presence of about sixty guests.

The bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march played by the groom's sister, Mrs Newell.

After wishing the young couple good luck the guests sat down to a dainty repast.

The bride was unattended and looked charming in a dress of silk grappe de chene with pink taffeta trimmings and carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations and wore the groom's gift a saubert set with pearls.

Mr and Mrs McLean left on a short honeymoon to Owen Sound. The bride's travelling suit was a brown serge with hat to match.

L. O. L. 1186 held their annual At Home on Friday night, 17th inst. and it was a decided success. A short program of songs and recitations and music by the orchestra was given. Also a few colored gentlemen gave a couple of dialogues. Lunch was served and the youth and beauty took possession of the floor in dancing.

It doesn't take an early rising to see a young gentleman of the 19th coming home in the morning. Taking the bells off seems to make no difference.

HOPEVILLE

The weather man is giving us ideal weather, only two stormy days so far and very mild.

Mr Will Dezall went to Toronto Saturday on his return to Handel, Sask.

Rev. F. A. and Mrs Cate and two children are expected home Thursday from Philadelphia.

Services will be held at 3 and 7:30 p. m. in Bethany chapel.

Mrs Geo. Scott returned to her home Thursday, having spent some two months with her sister, Mrs M Campbell, Fairbairn.

Mr Mitchell Barnet was home from Sandak over the week end.

A quantity of galvanized iron and a large number of tin boxes for sale. Apply at Registry Office

GLENELG CENTRE

Everybody enjoyed the mild weather of the past week.

Saturday morning, Jan. 18 there passed away a well-known and highly respected citizen of Glenelg Mr W. J. Arrowsmith in his 65th year. Deceased was for the last year or more in failing health caused from inward trouble. Although all was done for him that could be done, he steadily went downward till death relieved him of his suffering. He leaves as chief mourners his wife and two sons, Sam and Pte. W. J. His surviving brothers are all well known, George here, Albert of Niagara and one sister Mrs George McKee. The funeral takes place this Monday afternoon to the English cemetery near Durham.

We regret to hear that Miss Phillis Ireland, teacher of the Public school, No. 5, is sick at her home near Sheldburne and has not been able to resume her duties since Christmas holidays.

Mr Alf. O'Neill, chauffeur for the Hon. Dr. Jamieson, left for Toronto the beginning of this week.

Our sympathy is extended to Mrs J. A. Beaton in the death of her father, Mr John McLachlan near Priceville. Ae was in his 88th year and he had only a few days from a paralytic stroke. Interment took place Tuesday, the 14th, in McNeil's cemetery, Priceville.

Mr Finlay McRae and sister Agnes of Toronto came home to attend their uncle, W. J. Arrowsmith's funeral.

Miss Muriel Beaton, a week ago gave a birthday party in honor of her friend, Miss Miller of Toronto, who is visiting here. About 30 invited guests were present, and the night was very sociably spent.

In our last budget we referred to the presentation held at the home of Mr Geo. McKee in honor of Pte. W. J. Arrowsmith and following is the address to Pte. W. J. Arrowsmith: Dear Friend,—

We, your friends and neighbors, have assembled here this evening with a pleasant object in view, namely, that of welcoming you, a soldier boy, back to Canada, our Home. Such a privilege has not been ours before and we wish you to accept hereby good wishes of welcome on this, your return to home and loved ones.

When the time came for you to shoulder your gun and go to fight for God and Right, you did so with a willingness and determination becoming to a member of the great loved army whose common purpose was the destruction of military autocracy and the enthroning of Freedom upon the earth. The spearhead of the Allied advance in the most difficult and dangerous places was the gallant sons of Canada and you can claim your share of the glory by saying 'I did my duty for the great cause.'

As a result of this spirit of duty we at home enjoy the justice and civil liberty for which our Union Jack stands and has stood for centuries before the world. By reason of the toil and bloody sweat of our brave soldier boys, we are able to hand down, still unimpaired, our principles of liberty and justice.

As a means of showing you our appreciation of your parts in the great struggle and tendering to you our sincere welcome, we ask you to accept this gift, hoping that you will only remember in future years the pleasure of your friends at seeing you home again.

Signed,
F. Mc Vicar,
T. McCormick,
C. Dunbar.
