PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE AND LIMITS

The fine January weather still continues, good sleighing and generally mild. A good old natured bachelor was continually tormented by his younger sex by asking him when he was going to be married. He made his removal is realized in a manner that is hard to be placed and the appreciation of his past career in Priceville is felt more since his removal from us.

The congregation of Priceville Presbyterian church greatly misses their former pastor, Rev. Mr. Matheson. The loss that is sustained by his removal is realized in a manner that is hard to be placed and the appreciation of his past career in Priceville is felt more since his removal from us.

Last Sunday a boy of some 20 years preached and did well for one of his age. So we hope that disappointments in getting a supply of older men in the future will not exist if possible. Rev. Mr. McLean of Hanover is expected probably next Sunday, Feb. 2nd.

In this life there are troubles and trials of different natures. There are disappointments in worldly matters, our expectations often prove to be failures. We sometimes see matters only as through a glass, our imaginary views quickly vanish out of sight and the realization is only as bubbles on the deep ocean. How many a poor father and mother take great pride in their fine boy and think the world and all of that noble specimen of young manhood. That young boy proved himself to be a favorite to all who formed his acquaintance. In manner probably that boy was a real gentleman, he knew how to act when duty called on him to mingle with his fellow comrades. His manner of speech was always appreciated by his fellow companions.

But oh, the sad tale must be told. Influenza, that dreadful disease, affected that noble boy's mind and in a fit of despondency and insanity got up in the early morning and entered the nearby woods, ending his life in a fearful manner. We think of that poor father hurriedly tracing his boys steps through the snow and oh what horrors met his eyes when he found his boy lying cold in death who only an hour or so left his room to the place he laid out for the awful deed. What a trial it was to the dutiful mother who with her daughter are both bedfast with the disease also, when the news came to them of the son and brother ending his life. That son who committed this awful deed when able to be about, attended to his mother and sister a few days ago.

The reference here is to the late lamented Neil McDonald, son of Mr and Mrs Alex McDonald, N. W. Proton. The funeral on Sunday, 26th January, was one of the largest ever seen in this part to McNeal's cemetery. Rev. Mr. McCarty preached the funeral sermon, making reference to the sad occasion that brought so many together to pay their respect to the family and departed one. To the bereaved family we vouch the sentiments of all near and far away in sending condolence to them in their sad and double sorrow. The pall bearers were six young men of the neighborhood. Personally we knew that boy from childhood and always marked him for the making of a real gentleman.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pierson, 23rd January, a daughter. Both doing well. Miss Charlotte McDonald, nurse, is home after attending to Councilor Turnbull for a month. Mr Alex McDonald of Sask. writes home to his mother, Mrs. Chas McDonald that he is getting along fairly well. A kind neighbor lady is taking care of his motherless babes. His mother expects to go to his assistance in the near future. Alex says that two other young men lost their young wives with the flu the same time as he did, leaving small ones also. Miss Mildred Scott paid a visit to her grandparents, Mr and Mrs Hugh McLeist at Glenelg, are required to send to the undersigned solicitor for the Executors, their names and addresses, with particulars of their claims and the nature of the securities, if any, held by them. After the 8th day of February next, the executor will distribute the assets of the said estate, having regard only to the claims of which he has had notice; and he will not be liable to any person of whose claims he then had no notice.

SWINTON PARK

On Friday morning this community was shocked and saddened when the news rang through the neighborhood that Neil Edward McDonald, second son of Mr and Mrs Alex B. McDonald had committed suicide. Neil was a particularly bright young man and cheerful, and a favorite with old and young. As a neighbor, he was all anyone could be.

He was just recovering from an attack of the 'flu' when his mother and sister Janet became ill and instead of resting himself he, in his unselfishness forgot himself in anxiety for mother and sister and so over-taxed nerves and strength gave away and in a moment of weakness, the rash act was committed.

The funeral was on Sunday to McNeal's cemetery. Rev. Mr. McCarty conducting the service and preached a very comforting sermon to the saddened relatives. The pall bearers were Jn. F. Ferguson, Arch Ferguson, Jno. F. McDonald, Gordon McDonald, Dan McKinson, John Pierson.

He leaves to mourn his untimely departure his father, mother and sister Jane and one brother John L. who is overseas. To these we extend deepest sympathy as well as to all the other sorrowing relatives.

Many tokens of love and sympathy were sent consisting of wreaths: the broken wheel from the family; a spray from Dundalk friends; a wreath from the Misses Sackett, for-who returned from overseas that evening. Revs R. E. Hoskridge and Deputy Reeve A. Richardson are attending County Council at Owen Sound this week. Miss Fanny Christie has taken a position in the city. Miss Mae McEathnie returned from Mt. Forest Friday eve. A number of our youth and beauty attended the rally in Dromore Friday night.

GLENELG CENTRE

The weather continues fine. The sleighing is splendid but very little business is being done in the line of teaming.

The influenza patients are all better again.

The funeral of the late W. H. Arrowsmith took place on Monday afternoon, the 20th, to the English cemetery near Durham and was largely attended. The deceased gentleman was a member of the English church and his funeral service was conducted by the English church pastor, the Rev. Mr. Hardy of Durham. The bereaved widow, family and friends have the full sympathy of the neighborhood.

Mr Jno. O'Neill is busy preparing for the erection of an impement shed this coming summer.

Mrs John Fallaise returned to her home after two month's stay with her daughter, Mrs Noble of Toronto.

Glenelg Centre Baptist church is being closed for the balance of the winter.

Miss Marial Beaton spent from Thursday till Saturday in Toronto. Miss Millar returned to her home in the city.

It is with deep sorrow we learn of the sad tragedy that befell Neil McDonald, south of Priceville, and wish to express sympathy to the sorrowing parents and family in their sad bereavement.

In Mr Arrowsmith's obituary last week there appeared the initial 'J' which should have been 'H.'

P. C. Jack McKeown, son of Mr Thos. McKeown and of the 147th Canadian Greys, arrived home last week. We hear he looks fine and the train was met by a host of rejoicing friends and neighbors.

Mr Arch. Beaton Sr. is visiting his daughter, Mrs Jno. O. Greenwood, Eboradale farm.

HOPEVILLE

Our second January thaw has caught a cold but still leaves us good sleighing.

Messrs Andrew and Creighton Riddell were in Fergus the early part of last week to see their mother who underwent a serious operation in Fergus hospital.

Miss M. Knox, teacher at S. S. No. 13, was home Wednesday to Swinton Park to meet her brother

Making Over the World

How The Toronto Daily Star Gets You the News of the Greatest Event in History

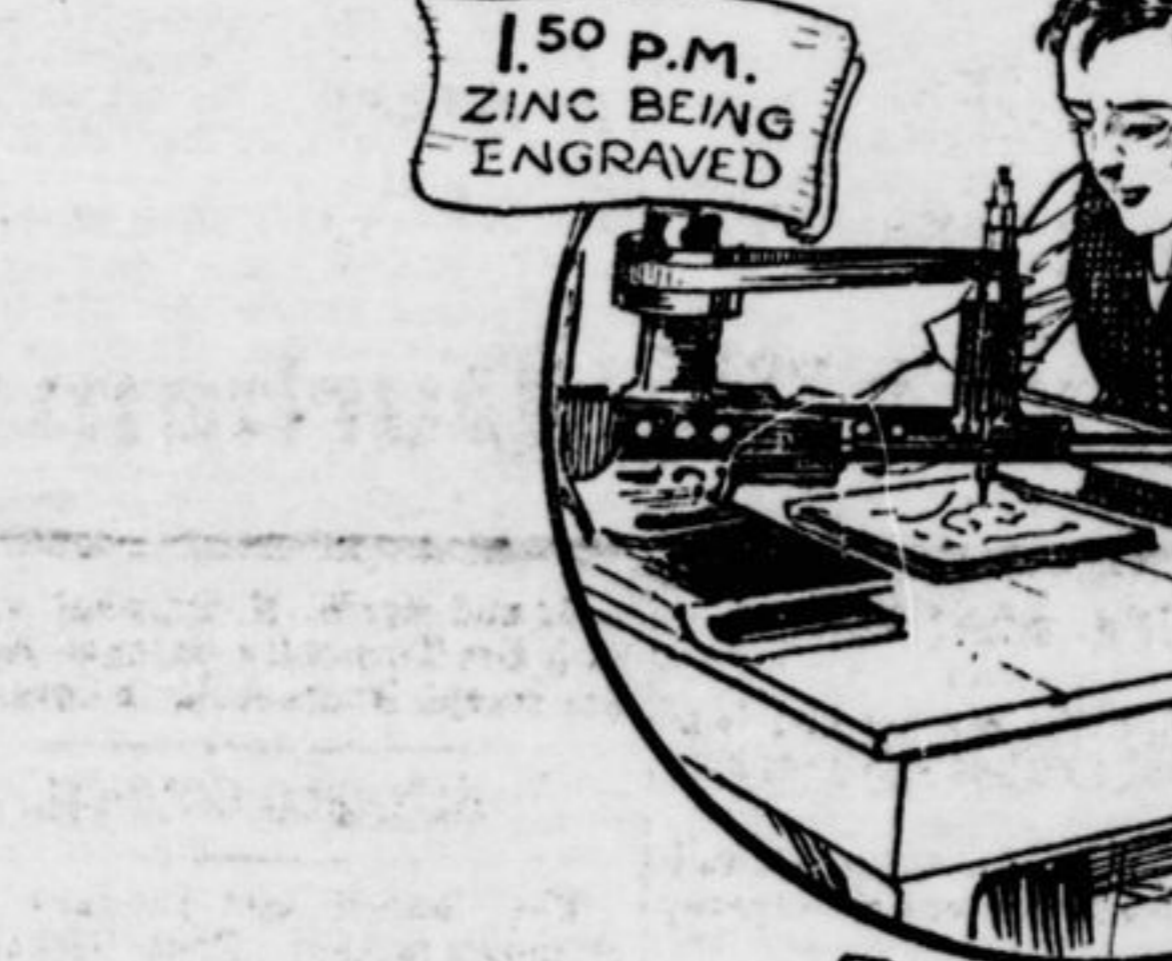

Not since the Christian Era has any event so changed the course of the world's history as will the Decisions of the Peace Conference. The keenest journalists in the world have gathered at Versailles. All their ingenuity and resources will be exercised to get vital news first.

But among them all there will be not finer group than the twenty-four men representing The Toronto Daily Star. Some of these men also represent the Chicago Daily News. So you may judge of their calibre.

How The Toronto Daily Star Illustrates Peace Conference News

Hourly while the Conference is sitting our men will cable us. As these cables reflect each possible change in the map of Europe, so will they be recorded by despatch and illustration in The Daily Star. Six o'clock at night, Versailles time, is 12 noon Toronto time. In our office at 12.30, a map showing changes will be drawn. At 1.50 it will be engraved. At 2.25 it will be on the press. At 3.30 the paper will be on the way to subscribers. By six o' seven in the evening most Toronto Daily Star subscribers will know what happened at Versailles up to and including 6 o'clock the same evening.

The Toronto Daily Star Has the Fastest News Service in the World

17 Wires Run Into Our Office

In addition, The Toronto Daily Star is alive to the entire news of the world; and it presents this news to its readers in so graphic a form that the mere reading of the paper each day keeps them well informed upon all those things that every man or woman of the world should be conversant with.

You cannot read The Toronto Daily Star for a short while without feeling that it is "the paper you need." The truth of this is shown by the thousands of people, who, sending in a trial subscription for three months, renew their subscriptions for a year before even the three months expire.

Send your subscription in now. We will mail The Toronto Daily Star to you each day at the following rates: For 1 month, 25c. For 3 months, 75c. For 6 months, $1.50. For 12 months, $3.00.
