Rev. Mr. Thornloe gave an address also did our former pastor, Rev. J. A.
Matheson. Mr. John Aldcorn in a few remarks reviewed the history of Swinton Park Church, of the building of the old church and also of the present church.
He remembered to that Mr Ramage helped at the opening of both churches. So for 37 years Mr Ramage has lent his abilities to make Swinton Park gather-

St. Andrew's congregation were in a particularly happy spirit for they had wiped out the debt and had a balance on hand. The notes were all brought in by and also made tactful and tasteful reference to the heroes who will not return.

He gave the audience an idea of German ideals from some recent reading of German authors and said our boys had not been fighting alone men of blood and bone, but horrible ideals such as presented by Nietzsche and other authors. He closed a fine speech by a fine comparison between the ideals of Germany and those of the British Empire.

There was a call to all of us to give thought to the best way of assisting the returned soldier to resume his place in civil life.

The soldiers present were then asked to places on the platform and the address below was read to them by Mr C. Ramage, after which each was presented with a club bag and keepsake copy of the address as a memento of Durham feeling. As each happiness in what were many times trying circumstances. The Canadians had made a name for themselves and as was well-known were often picked for difficult positions. They would value this evening's gifts in themselves and as reminders of the kindness of Durham friends.

The evening was made more enjoyable by musical patriotic numbers by Mr Mis-tele Miss Irwin, accompanist, and by the massed choir, and was closed heartily by "God Save the King"
