Yes, Madam, your favorite sugar, as much as you want.
One of the most satisfactory material pleasures of Peace is that we may again have plenty of Lantic Sugar

UNDER war conditions we were unable to supply anywhere near the demand for Canada's favorite sugar. Few ships were available for bringing raw sugar from the tropics and a large part of the product of our refinery was needed for our soldiers overseas.

Ask your grocer for Lantic Sugar, the sugar with the Red Ball on every Carton or Bag.

Rev. Mr. Thornleigh gave an address as also did our former pastor, Rev. J. A. Matheson. Mr. John Aldcorn in a few remarks reviewed the history of Swinton Park Church, of the building of the old church and also of the present church. He remembered that his Ramage helped at the opening of both churches. So for 37 years Mr Ramage has lent his abilities to make Swinton Park gatherings a success.

St. Andrew's congregation were in a particularly happy spirit for they had wiped out the debt and had a balance on hand. The notes were all brought in by Mr D J McCormick who has been treasurer for the Building Fund and there in the presence of all the destroyed those reminders of their indebtedness.
Another feature of the evening was the formal farewell to Mr. Matheson by Mr. Robt Knox, reading the following address and Mr Hugh McMillan presenting Mr Matheson with an envelope containing $40. The address:
Dear Mr Matheson:
Your severing your connection with our church here has created a heartfelt feeling of regret with both old and young. The twenty years of your ministry here has been one of progress from year to year. Under your guidance our church has been the centre where our people received the spiritual uplift necessary to faithfully perform their daily duties. Our church too has advanced materially as well as spiritually for evidence of which we have this building to worship in.

You have watched over many of the present congregation from infancy and when they came to make their stand for the Master you must have felt keen pleasure. Many that have left here in the beginning of your ministry have been called to worship on high. Your relationship with the session, board of managers, Sabbath school officials, and all the members of our congregation as well as our neighboring congregations, have always been of the happiest nature.
Not only have you been our pastor but our friend and your noble standards of life were ever an uplift to the community and we know your influence will always help to raise the tone of any community it is your lot to be cast in.

We ask you to accept this gift as a remembrance of the good will of your friends at Swinton Park. You carry with you our best wishes for success and prosperity in your new venture. We hope your labors may be rewarded with a rich harvest for our Masters Vineyard.
Your friends of Swinton Park congregation and vicinity.
An address to Mrs. Matheson who we regret was not with us, was read by Mrs D. J. McCormick while Mrs. McMillan presented a purse containing a sum of money to Mr Matheson for Mrs. Matheson. The address:
Dear Mrs Matheson:
We regret that you are not with us when we make this formal farewell which has been held over on account of the influenza epidemic.

For during 20 years of sojourn among us you have endeared yourself to us all with your cheery personality and your high ideals. You have been in and out among us, rejoicing in our joys and sympathizing with and comforting many during afflictions and sorrows.
In our church organization you lent your aid and here in Swinton Park you were especially helpful in the Missionary Society.

Now duty has called you to a new field of labor where new associations will be formed, new opportunities present themselves and while you are busily engaged in these your memory will be cherished here by old and young.

We wish you every success and happiness and earnestly pray that you and your family may be abundantly blessed where'er you go and as a remembrance from the ladies of Swinton Park, we ask you to accept this gift and hope its contents may be used to procure something that will give pleasure and comfort and remind of your friends.

LANE-BURNETT
A quiet but pretty wedding took place Wednesday, Feb. 13th at high noon, at the home of Mr and Mrs Burnett, Priceville, Ont., when their third daughter, Mabel was united in holy bonds of matrimony to Mr Ernest L. Lane of Calgary, Alta. The Rev. S. M. Whaley officiating.

The bride looked pretty in a navy blue with hat to match. After the ceremony the guests partook of a dainty luncheon. The bride and groom left on the afternoon train to their home in Calgary, the bride wearing the groom's gift, a beautiful muskrat coat with Hudson seal trimmings and muff to match.

Welcoming Returned Soldiers son for the ladies after which adjournment was made to the Town Hall.

The soldiers able to be present to receive this honor were: Sergt J. Stedman, Gar Brook Grant, Cadet Eric Kelly, Ptes Goleby, W. Morton, N. Zimanyi, A. McGowan, R. Giles, F. Mellraith, Johnston Allan, Ernest McDonald.
IN TOWN HALL
Here Mr Wm. Calder, Pres. Patriotic Association was in the chair and too much credit cannot be given to him and Secy. Thos. Allan, for their organizing efforts to make the meeting the success that it was. The Hall was filled, a massed choir from the churches occupied the platform. Union Jacks and Old Glories were on the walls and warm feelings in the hearts of all, as the Chair announced "O God our help in Ages past" as the opening hymn. Rev. Mr Cole then opened with a comprehensive prayer and the choir gave "O Canada."

J. LEVINE, - Durham

war spot in the heart of all the world for the returned soldier. There was a duty also to recognize those who have to suppress in silence the deep burning sorrow of the heart. He welcomed the boys heartily, rejoiced they had come back pure and sweet and was sure they would worthily face all life's duties, as they had faced the foe.
Rev. Mr Whaley, by arrangement, gave the chief speech of the evening. He referred to the enthusiasm displayed at the station as the boys entrained, there had been enthusiastic gatherings since, but always a cloud to cast a shadow. Now we can rejoice to the full with the returning boys, and he was confident that somewhere in God's universe those who have fallen are employed in work for His glory. It was our part to gather from such meetings inspiration for higher effort. He held his hand out to men in khaki whether he knew them or not. We were not "coddling" them (applause) but honoring their manhood, and the best we can do for them is to make them leaders in the effort to raise the community to higher levels.
The moral element, he said, enters into every struggle, individual or national, and he contrasted the moral ideals of the Allies as compared with Germany. He caused a thrill as he asked "Who to-night would like to be a Turk, a Bolshewist, a Russian or a German?" He hoped the community would feel the influence of the new blood tainted with sacrifice as it had been. He closed an eloquent speech by again welcoming the returned soldiers.

While our thoughts go out to you warmly, while we grasp you by the hand, while we rejoice in your return, we know that you, with us, treasure the memory of these partners of yours who will not return, those who fell in the struggle, but whose name and fame will be enrolled among the heroes who never die, but who live as an inspiration to those they fought for; they have fallen in the sweet years of youth but then, they will never grow old.
This large concourse of friends speaks a welcome no words can convey; you need no assurance of its genuineness. We wish for you a future of happiness and prosperity, in the coming years over which your prowess has helped to win a mantle of Peace. As you have won a victory over the enemy, so may you win victories over the trials and difficulties of life that may come your way; always remembering also the words of the Wise Man that "He that ruleth well his own spirit is better than he that taketh a city."

During Convalescence the aftermath of acute disease, when physical strength is at low ebb, the body needs particular, effective nourishment to hasten restoration of strength and vim. There is no better time to utilize the peculiar nutrient qualities of

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Being a rich food and tonic, it quickly aids in the restoration of the depleted vitality and improves the blood-quality. Scott's builds up the body by Nature's best medium-nourishment.
Scott & Bowne, Toronto, Ont. 15-7

As a memento of this occasion, and a small but visible token of our esteem for you and the part you have played, we ask your acceptance of this gift and close by hoping you will long remain a joy and a blessing to your homes and be worthy citizens of our beloved Canada, the land you fought for, the land your brothers died for.
Signed on behalf of the citizens of Durham and the Durham Patriotic Association.
Thos. Allan, W. Calder, Secretary, Chairman,
Durham, February 14th, 1919.

Serg. J. L. Stedman replied on behalf of the soldiers in an admirable address. He thanked the ladies and all concerned for the warmth of the welcome, thanked them also for the many kindnesses shown to them while overseas and assured them their timely gifts had given them much happiness in what were many times trying circumstances. The Canadians had made a name for themselves and as well-known were often picked for difficult positions. They would value this evening's gifts in themselves and as reminders of the kindness of Durham friends.

The evening was made more enjoyable by musical patriotic numbers by Mr. Mistele Miss Irwin, accompanist, and by a massed choir, and was closed heartily by "God Save the King"
