E. and Navy League and with lantern slides will give a free address on the part Britain has played in the great war, on the afternoon of that date to the school children at the Town Hall. In the evening a public meeting will be held in the Town Hall when Miss Boulton will again address the meeting and give her lantern views. Admission 25c.

The gradual disappearance of blacksmith shops from small villages is creating a rather serious problem for Ontario farmers. Charges for repairs and horse shoeing have largely as a result lessened competition and increased cost, gone to unprecedented heights 30 cents for a "remove" and 50 cents for a new shoe. In many cases difficulty is experienced in getting the work done at all. The situation created is being met in part in some sections, by the erection of forges on farms. "Within two miles, along a line running northeasterly from my home I can," said Mr. Elmer Lick, of Whitby tp., "count six or seven of such forges." These, however, are used for the most part for minor repairs, but if present conditions continue, many farmers will be obliged to do their own horse shoeing as well.

KILLED BY ROLLING LOG.—Chas. Montag, a farmer living about two miles from Neustadt, died Saturday morning as a result of injuries received when a log rolled over him at Blinkley's saw-mill about noon Friday. Montag had gone to the mill with a load of logs, and with others was assisting in unloading them. One rolled off the sleigh and over him. He lived about twelve hours. He was about 52 years old, and is survived by three sons and two daughters.

Four times have Durham and Hanover hockey teams played this season, each team has won twice, and rather a coincidence, only by the narrowest possible margin.—one goal, has each game been won. Three of the games went overtime for a decision and Hanover took two of them. One of these was an exhibition arranged in Hanover last Friday which at full time was a tie 5-5, and the home team scored the deciding goal in 5 minutes. The return exhibition game was played here Wednesday night, and on soft ice Durham won 6 to 5 without the overtime. With good, firm ice and something at stake, the locals would doubtless have assumed a commanding lead.

4th C. M. R's. Have Sailed

The 4th C. M. R. battalion of the 3rd division, in which are many Durham and Grey Co. boys, sailed from Liverpool last Saturday on the Cunard liner "Carnarvon." They will reach Halifax about Monday next it is expected, and a special train will likely be run from Toronto to Owen Sound carrying the Grey boys about the middle of next week. Let us give them an enthusiastic welcome.

Planning For Bigger Fall Fair

The Board of Directors of South Grey Agricultural Society met in the Public Library on Saturday last. For nearly all afternoon the Report of the Prize List was under consideration. This Report proposed a very considerable increase in the prizes offered especially in the Stock Classes, with the expectation that large numbers of stock will be brought out as a result.

The Board adopted the Report and in some cases, went even further than did the Committee.

The competition in getting new members is proceeding favorably. Over one hundred new members have been already secured, and it is expected that many more will be obtained in the near future.

A very strong effort is under way to procure special attractions to interest all visitors to the Fall Fair. The Directors are determined to make the Fair this year better than any that has gone before, and would like to enlist the assistance of all towards that end.

Dornoch Honors its Returned Soldier Boys

All roads led to Dornoch on Friday evening last when a massed meeting was held in the Presbyterian Church to bid welcome to the soldier boys who had returned from fighting the Empire's battles.

The night was an ideal one, the sleighing being perfect and the air having a tang that was exhilarating. The surrounding community was well represented, a large number came from our sister village Williamsford, and a number from Chatsworth. By eight o'clock the church was filled with an enthusiastic crowd and occupying the front seat were the four returned heroes. Allan McGillivray, George Ledingham, Stewart McGillivray and John Mortley.

The former enlisted in the West and went overseas. He was many months in the trenches and was honorably discharged last Spring, suffering from gas and shell shock. His brother Stewart and Geo. Ledingham enlisted and went overseas with the 147th Greys, saw active service, were both wounded and returned to Canada in January. John Mortley was a blue jacket for some eighteen months and did patrol duty on the North Sea, as well as latterly on the Atlantic coast.

The pastor, Rev. Mr. Sillars was in the chair and the singing of the Doxology and the National Anthem opened the night's proceedings. The Dornoch choir, an amateur organization called into being for the occasion, sang "What shall we do when the Boys come home." Joseph Davidson added to his laurels as an eloquist by his rendering of a stirring poem directly in keeping with the thought of the evening. Jessie Ledingham and Gordon Riddell also recited during the course of the evening, both of whom had a sympathetic hearing well deserved.

Mr. Sillars in a brief address, showed how all good things in the way of moral and social reform had come through the sacrifice of noble men and women and that one of the causes of victory was the dependence of the Allies upon the Divine and that the Doxology should be sung with more heart and meaning. He paid a sincere tribute, as did all the speakers, to the memory of those who made the supreme sacrifice and whose memory will be ever kept green in our midst.

Editor McCullough of the Chatsworth News was in good form and in a spirited address told of the glorious deeds of our boys at the front, their sacrifices, their sufferings and how that in honoring them, they were honoring themselves; their reward for sacrifices must receive the co-operation of the community and whole Canadian nation.

During the evening musical numbers were interspersed and added to the enjoyment. The Williamsford choir sang very acceptably and received well merited applause. Mrs. Alex McIntosh rendered a sweet solo "The boys in Khaki Here," and Miss Barber, the popular teacher at "The Brick" gave a very fine rendering of "The British Navy."

Mr. Wm. Breeze of Chatsworth was the second speaker and in a lengthy address held the close attention of the audience while he discussed rapidly some typical war scenes viewed by himself in Toronto and which had a profound bearing on the war. He eulogized the work of the Canadian boys and the added glory and lustre their record had brought to our national life.

Dr. Smith whose only son enlisted from here in the Aviation Corps, indulged in many a hearty handshake with old friends and in the course of a short party address showed how by unity of action and adherence to a common worthy cause the forces of righteousness had deposed the most dastardly autocrat that ever menaced the peace and liberty of mankind.

One of the chief features of the evening was the presentation to each of the boys of a club bag and the accompanying address, read by Mr. Wm. Smith, spoke in high terms of the splendid part they had played in the world's greatest struggle and expressed the wish that the same manly application to duty and the sturdy valor that had won for them victories abroad, would enable them to overcome in the trials and vicissitudes of life.

Mr. John Mortley replied on behalf of the boys, his remarks being terse and pointed. Hearty and prolonged applause terminated this part of the night's enjoyment.

The crowd now repaired to the hall of the church where the ladies of the congregation had prepared their usual supply of tempting eatables. A previous look at the baskets and boxes piled high would lead you to think that there was provision enough to stand a siege, but ere the last of the crowd had partaken—well, we think the proverbial church mouse will still remain poor.

Nine of our boys are still overseas some of whom are expected home shortly and at some future date not far distant, a like reception will be given them in honor of their devotion to King and Country.

A St. Patrick's supper and concert will be given under the auspices of the Epworth League of the Methodist church Durham, Monday evening, March 17th (D. V.) when a splendid supper will be served from 6.30 to 8 p. m. after which a good program will be furnished. Parson Poor's Donation Party. An old Maid's Quartette and the Maie Qu a tette are some of the good things in store. Admission adults 50c, children 35c.

Chas. Bowman, M. P. P. is in the limelight at the Legis store this week, as he pledges and tries to convince the government, that their boasted surplus of over a million is really a deficit of about a like amount. Figures won't lie it is said, but it is wonderful how they will stretch. Wm. McDonald, M. P. of Bruce, is also showing vigor and denouncing sneering remarks levelled at the new farmer members. He predicts that the next house will have more of them and that labor and women as well will have a greater strength.

MORE BOYS ARE BACK—Last Thursday noon saw the arrival of two more boys from this locality who enlisted in the 147th batt. Pte Michael Bailey reached his home in Allan Park, and Pte Lorne Mountain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos Mountain, Bentinck, came off the C. P. R. here. A reception is being tendered him to-night at his home. Pte Jas. H. Renwick of Dromore reached home Friday last and Spr. Murray Findlay, a former Dromore boy, reached his home in Toronto last Wednesday. The latter two are first home of the three brothers who enlisted in each family. All four boys came across on the "Belgie" to Canada.

War Saving Stamps For Short "W. S. S."

A Mr. Ault, an agent of the Ottawa government was in town last week urging the formation of an organization to promote the sale of "Thrifty Stamps." It is another kind of Victory Loan, brought within reach of the humblest for the cost to begin is only 25c.

The procedure is this; You buy stamps at 25c each till you have 16 of them, cost $4. Then exchange them for a War Saving certificate and on 1st Jan. 1924, the government will give you $5 for it. This works out a little better than 41 per cent, while banks give only 3 per cent. If you buy $40 worth the government pays you $50 on Jan. 1, 1924 and so proportionately.

Mr. Ault impressed very strongly the need of personal and family thrift as much needed now as during the war. The Millions are needed by the government, they must be got, if not from the people of Canada at this good interest, then from the millionaires of the States, in which case payments for interest all leave the country.

It is known that deposits in savings banks to-day are larger than before during the war. Why not loan to the government and instead of getting 33 interest get 84.50. The Post Office Office Banks will sell you stamps. Your money is not tied up for should you want it any time the stamps or certificates can be easily cashed in.

Canada's financial problems are great, and thrift that leads to saving and saving that leads to buying War Savings Stamps is helping to solve these problems. Every teacher should get the "Thrifty Magazine" supplied free to any one wanting it by writing to "Thrifty Magazine" 371 Bloor St. W., Toronto.

The Monthly Soldier's Welcome

FRIDAY, 14th MARCH. A banquet in the Library basement, presentations in the Town Hall from 8 p. m. onwards, are staged in readiness for to-morrow night to returned soldiers who have recently come home.

Rev. Mr. Cole has been appointed Chairman for the occasion owing to the unfortunate illness of President Calder. The program for the banquet is in the hands of the Women's Institute, that for the hall is in the hands of Mr. Ed McClocklin and in both cases efficiency is the watchword. We cheered the boys going; let the welcome home be equally warm at least.

Rev. John Morris Appointed Rector

Rev. John Morris of Shelburne, Ont., a curate in the Cronyn Memorial Church at the time Rev. Dyon Hague was rector, has been appointed by the Bishop of Huron, rector of the Church of the Redeemer, this city. Rev. Mr. Morris, who succeeds Rev. H. B. Ashby in the rectorate, graduated a number of years ago from Huron College. He is an Irishman by birth.—London Advertiser.

The fine residence of J. H. Adams, Hanover, narrowly escaped being burned to the ground on Tuesday morning. A defective chimney may have been the cause. It will cost $1000 to put the home in first class shape.

CHESELY WASN'T IN IT.—After gaining authority of the N. H. L. to meet Stratford in the finals, Chesley hockeyists went to Stratford last week and were outclassed 13 to 3, then on Monday Stratford came to Chesley and kalsomined them 8-0 in their own back yard. As Stratford has now won the Junior championship three successive years, the Free Press cup is their property. Durham would at least have given the champions an argument and probably won the home game: at any rate it's dollars to doughnuts they wouldn't have made such a sorry 21 to 3 showing in the finals.
