SOUTH BEND

Intended for last week

Miss Reta Sharpe returned to her home recently after spending several months at Technical School, Toronto.

Mrs George Hawn celebrated her eighty ninth birthday on Easter Sunday. She received many congratulations and presents from old friends.

In the early days of Egremont she nobly did her part.

And bore the grief that comes to all with a woman's trusting heart.

Mrs Horsborough, we regret to hear is ill.

Mr J. Hunt and Miss Laura of Holstein, Mr Nelson of Owen Sound and Mr and Mrs Albert Hunt of Wingham, motored to Mr John Hunt's and spent an evening recently.

On Thursday evening over seventy friends and neighbors met at the home of Mrs Ira Hawn to welcome home-son Fred, who arrived on Monday. A most enjoyable time was spent.

Mr George Hunt was elected chairman and opened the meeting by asking all to sing the Doxology. He had a lengthy program of music, singing, speeches, games, etc. The main thing was the presentation of a beautiful gold watch, fob and set of cuff links to Fred. Mr Harry McDougall read the address and Miss Marguerite Kelly presented it. He replied very suitably but briefly, as he was entirely taken by surprise. The following is the address:

To Pte. Frederick W. Hawn:

Dear Fred—

It is with mingled feelings that we, your friends, have assembled here tonight. We are proud to welcome to our midst again one who has gone forth at the call of his Country. We are pleased to rejoice with the members of your family that Providence restored you to them. We sympathize with you in your suffering you have undergone apart from your wounds, which not only speak of pain endured, but of danger bravely faced. Dwelling as we do in a country untouched in a sense by war, understand, though scarce can realize, the loneliness and privations endured by our brave boys at all times, and amid it all they kept a brave, even cheerful front. To you as one of them, we wish to convey our appreciation of your loyalty, and as a slight acknowledgment of the debt we feel you have laid upon us. We ask you to accept this watch, fob and cuff links, not for their actual value, but for the emotions which prompted the giving of it.

You may feel assured that the best wishes of this people will follow you in whatever sphere your energies may be directed.

Signed on behalf of your friends,

Marguerite Kelly, Orme Hunt, Will Coburn, Harry McDougall.
