DOWN TOPICS

Nurse Murdock graduate, will attend on women. Make engagements early. Box 65, Durham.

72c to 75c per bus. for good Milling Oats at Rob Roy Mills Elevator.

A memorial drive of English oaks, with bronze name plates on the trees, will honor Woodstock's 150 dead heroes.

Pte. Alex Hay has been promoted in England to the rank of Corporal. Congratulations. He is not expected home until summer.

FOUND.—In Durham, on Saturday last a sum of money. Owner may have it on proving property, less 25c for this notice, and 25c to honest finder.

SOME BEAUTIES.—On May 1st, the opening day of the fishing season, Shirley McIntyre landed a nice mess of the speckled beauties, from the Sauguen. He had six of the trout which weighed over 8 lbs. on display in his store window for a few days. The largest was 18 1/2 ins. in length and weighed 1 1/2 lbs.

The preliminary group of teams in districts of the Ontario Amateur Lacrosse Assn. places Durham in Intermediate Group No. 1, along with Owen Sound, Orangeville, Hanover, Shelburne, Dundalk, Markdale and Mt. Forest. It is very unlikely that all these towns will be represented, how many of them will be seen after the final grouping is made on Monday, May 12. Durham has not yet decided to enter a team. A number of the older players are available, but very few of the younger lads here have any lacrosse experience.

A LUCKY ESCAPE.—While returning from Elmwood Monday evening, Mr Alex Hobkirk and sister Miss Hobkirk turned in to visit a sick friend. One of the horses was inclined to go straight home and refusing to turn, caught its head under that of its mate, lifting and breaking the tongue, and overturning the democrat. Both jumped out, and fortunately Miss Hobkirk escaped injury, while her brother suffered severe bruises only as far as we have learned. He will be confined to bed for a few days. They were driven home from the scene of their accident in a car.

GENEROUS NEIGHBORS.—Two weeks ago we recorded the disastrous fire at Mr Hugh Firth's, 6th Con., Glenelg, by which he and others were heavy losers. The community, filled with the milk of human kindness, got to work to bear part of the burden and in brief time collected $750.00 in cash and about $100 worth of hay, seed grain, &c., to help Mr Firth in the emergency, an action reflecting credit on the neighbors and no doubt appreciated to the full by Mr Firth. Three of the parties who lost horses in the fire were insured in the Grey and Bruce and will get their insurance a clause in the policy, inserted, we believe by the late H. H. Miller providing that the insurance follows the horse, if owner or servant is with it.

DATES FOR THE EXAMS.—The Department of Education has announced the dates of examinations as follows: Junior high school entrance, July 2; junior public school graduation, June 30; lower school, July 2; middle school, July 11; pass matriculation, July 12; upper school and honor matriculation, June 30. These dates are two weeks late, owing to the delay due to the influenza epidemic.

Work has commenced on the construction of the provincial county highway between Owen Sound and Meaford. A tractor with a grader started work just outside the limits on the St. Vincent road and is making fair progress. It is expected that the road will be completed as far as Woodford by the fall. Wonder when operations will commence on the provincial county highway in Durham neighborhood?

MEMORIAL TABLET FOR GLENELG.—Mr. A. J. Corbett, Mt Forest, has received an order from the Glenelg Township Council for a memorial tablet to be placed in a new porch of the Township Hall. The tablet is to be of granite. The names of 16 fallen heroes are to be placed in the centre of the tablet and the names of about 60 others who went overseas are grouped around these. The cost of the tablet is to be $1,200.—Confed.-Rep.

Though Durham's population is practically stationary, the public school attendance is on the up grade with about 280 on the roll. The primary classes, since Easter especially are over crowded, as 22 young hopefuls have just begun their educational career. This makes an enrolment of 73 in Miss Rebecca McMillan's room, and as the higher ones are not ready for next classes which are filled up anyway, she has to take half her classes in mornings and others in the afternoons to accommodate all the youngsters.

A well attended and interesting meeting of the Women's Institute was held last Thursday at Mrs. Jno. Burgess'. As this was the annual meeting the President Mrs. McIlraith gave a fine report of the year's work, the Institute holding ten meetings (owing to the flu) at which 20 papers were read and addresses given. A great deal of knitting was given out for Red Cross work. Mrs. Irwin gave the financial report, showing the Institute to be in good standing with over $52 on hand. Mrs. Knechtel and Mrs. Cole sang a fine duet and then the election of officers for the coming year was held: Pres.—Mrs. S. Patterson; Vice Pres.—Mrs. Ramage; 2nd Vice.—Mrs. Metcalfe; Secy.—Mrs. Irwin; Directors—Mrs. Nichol, Mrs. McGowan, Mrs. T. McComb; Auditors—Allie McGowan and A. McGirr. A dainty lunch was served and after God Save the King was sung.

Considering Memorial.

More interest was shown last night than at previous meeting in the matter of Memorial to fallen soldiers, yet there is great room for improvement. Mayor McKeehin again presided and invited freest discussion.

The community is divided in opinion on these three objects:
1 A memorial monument.
2 A memorial Hospital
3 A Memorial Hall

While having their choice all expressed their willingness to assist in the scheme favored by the majority, though an unpleasant impression was created by the stand of the local branch of the Veterans' Association. As represented by Mr. Stedman, their delegate, they will consider nothing but a memorial hall, an unfortunate attitude, to say the least, at this juncture. However, we believe their heart is in the right place and that they will yet share in community of feeling.

A proposition by Dr. Jamieson, Sr., to combine the hospital and monument idea met with favor, but a vote showed the meeting divided equally on the idea. The vote taken on the three straight proposals showed a minority for the monument, though Mr. Calder stated his belief that 28 at least out of 30 families of Durham and neighborhood who had lost sons in the war were in favor of this form of memorial.

If Mr. Calder is correct in this it should be a very strong argument in favor of the monument. A monument would receive support from the rural districts near the town, that could not be looked for in a hall, though it might for a hospital.

We have space for no more until next week, meanwhile let everybody think it over and come out to the mass meeting on Monday, 18th May, when final shape we hope will be given to the movement.

The Nominations

Wm. Calder, Reeve,
S. P. Saunders, Councillor

At the close of the statutory hour at the Nominations on Tuesday evening Returning Officer Vollett had before him only the two names above to fill the vacancies in council, and declared them elected. Both have ample experience and will add strength to the council. There was no speaking, but general satisfaction that an election had been avoided and the council once more complete.

"Yokohama Maid" Made Big Hit

Will be Repeated for G. W. V. A. Next Tuesday, May 13.

For the first time in several years, Durham was treated to a comic opera entertainment on Thursday last and this form of concert, a change from the usual line, delighted an appreciative audience which filled the hall. The play was presented by Durham Presbyterian Choir, assisted by several other young people of the congregation, the musical part being under the direction of the leader, Miss Margaret Hunter, Mr. J. H. Harding had charge of the stage work, and that all went off so smoothly is a tribute to their training.

To depict an outdoor garden scene in Kyoboko, Japan, where the plot of "Yokohama Maid" is laid, the stage was transformed into a bower of beauty with the aid of evergreens as a background, plants in foreground, and above head chery blossoms and hanging baskets.

The costumes as well were striking; all were in Japanese garb (with the exception of principals who had come from America) and some beautiful costumes of both lands adorned the stage. With flower ornaments in the hair and the aid of a little make-up, some of the young ladies would have been mistaken anywhere else for typical Japanese maidens.

The central figure in the opera is the Japanese heiress, O Sing-a-Song, taken by Mrs. A. W. H. Lauder. She is a born actress and with Fattedo the mayor (taken by J. H. Harding) supplied much of the humor of the opera. In her musical numbers, Mrs. Lauder appeared also to fine advantage, the most popular being her reverie in "Back again to old Japan" and duets with Fattedo. In this latter role, J. H. Harding appeared as Sing-a-Song's unwelcome lover, who as mayor of Kyoboko lost out in the contest for her hand to an American mayor. Mr. Harding is at home on the stage, and his clear enunciation and fine voice made his work enjoyable to the audience. Kissimee, O Sing-a-Song's companion, was Miss Vada die Caldwell who well played a difficult and amusing part in making all the advances to the mayor's secretary, Knogudi (Mr. Peter Ramage) with whom she was in love. The latter like Fattedo, bestowed his affections on O Sing-a-Song, but after losing her, was finally won by Kissimee's wooing. Tung Waga, O Sing-a-Song's nurse was taken by Miss Alice Ramage, who gave a fine alto solo with chorus "O powder puff." She with Kissimee accompanied the bride-to-be to America to "learn everything" and all returned Americanized after two years absence in 2nd act. With O Sing-a-Song's party was an American lawyer-mayor (Harry Cortcase) whom she had wedded, and two American tourists Hilda and Stella (Mrs. Guy Kearney and Miss Jean McCowan). Harry breaks in on Fattedo to just when he is performing his own marriage ceremony with O Sing-a-Song, and proves she is legally his bride.

As Harry, Mr. Guy Kearney, realistically performed the part and won merited applause for his ballad "A heart once went through the world alone." Fattedo is so disconcerted and disgusted with the turn of events in losing O Sing-a-Song, that as a climax he commits "social suicide" by announcing he'll wed Tung Waga, and the opera closes with three couples in line and all in a taking chorus "Wedding Bells will soon be ringing."

Not so closely connected with the thread of the plot were three other principals. Tasaki the herald, was represented by Mr. Grant McComb, who in resplendent costume, heralded the story in fine baritone voice, "Listen, O ye people." As an officious policeman Mr. Thos. Bell was right on his part, and created fear, and trembling, and amusement among the chorus in his solo "Attention ye!" Ah no, the Chinaman represented by Mr. Frank McIlraith, was a hit of the evening, and won a rousing encore for his solo "Suki Tong," with chorus, in his initial appearance to a Durham audience.

Though not appearing in a principal role, Mrs. M. McFadden contributed much to the success of the evening in her splendid solo "Japanese Nodding Doll" with nodding effect by chorus, and responded to a hearty encore. Others appearing in the many choruses were Misses Edie McKenzie, Mary McIlraith, Jessie Bell, Winnie Blyth, and that their vocal talent was appreciated was evident when some opinionated it was equal to the best chorus work ever given by Durham talent. Miss Margaret Hunter accompanied throughout and had a busy evening. With other duties, she had a strenuous time in devoting so much attention to training at rehearsals, but her reward comes in the success of her efforts.

The proceeds were nearly $133, and of this nearly $90 is clear, which goes to choir funds. As the G. W. N. A. require cash to furnish their new club rooms, the Choir have agreed to repeat this opera under their auspices next Tuesday, May 13th, so that all who missed it may then attend and also assist the returned boys organization.

Mixed Chop $2.50 per cwt. sacks included. Rob Roy Mills, Ltd.

Rev. Wm. Cooper, B. A., of Mt. Forest will, by appointment of Presbytery, occupy the Presbyterian pulpit here on Sunday next, and will advocate and throw light on the great "Forward movement." Rev. Mr. Whaley is engaged elsewhere in the same purpose.

Congratulations to one of our returned soldiers, Mr. Pearious Sherk, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sherk, who did not fall a victim to the charms of the British maidens, but on Wednesday took to himself a fair Canadian bride in the person of Miss Nelie Anderson of Chesley. The family here motored to Chesley yesterday for the event. The young couple left on a honeymoon trip to St. Catharines and will reside in Durham. The citizens will extend to them best wishes and a hearty welcome.

CADET INSPECTION.—Last Thursday, Col. Barker of the Toronto Military district inspected the local Cadet Corps. There were three dozen cadets on parade and in their military tactics they were put through by their company and half company leaders. The Colonel pronounced it excellent, also saying it was the best corps as regard drill, etc., he has inspected, considering the time since their formation. He paid compliments to Instructor Morton who is well deserving of them. He wishes larger boys to join and has given them the promise of rifles so that a rifle platoon can be formed. Fifteen more uniforms will also be sent to further equip them.

BAILEY.—In Bentick, on Wednesday, April 28, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bailey, a daughter.

On Friday afternoon last a pleasant little surprise was given by the 4th room students at the school, when they presented their teacher, Mr. A. S. Morton and his bride with a handsome cut glass vase, cup and saucer and bouquet of flowers. Needless to say the donors were appreciative of this kind action.

COLLAR BONE BROKEN.—Mrs. John Vessie, Rocky Saugen, had her collar bone broken and was otherwise bruised in an accident on the home farm last Saturday. She was assisting in loading a wagon load of pigs and was standing behind the wagon when the horses backed up, crushing her shoulder between the wagon and the bars. Mrs. Vessie though still active, is not a young woman and thus it will require some time for her injuries to heal. She will be kept to her bed for some weeks and at latest reports is improving nicely.
