TOWN TOPICS

British American Coal Oil for sale at the Ford Garage. Put War Bond interest into War Savings Stamps and keep saving.

Consult F. A. Graham, eye-sight specialist about your eyes. Central Drug Store. Bring in your films to be enlarged up to any size desired.

During the next few weeks, while the redecorating of the Presbyterian church is in progress, services will be held in the Town Hall at the regular hours.

A HOLIDAY.-The 24th of May, next Saturday, is as usual a legal holiday and stores will be closed all day. The usual week-end buying should be done on Friday evening, when stores will be open.

CLEAN UP.-Spring is a little late but it is here and there should be a general clean up of the fifth and muss of many back yards and an occasional front one in Durham.

Destroy the garbage and the breeding place of flies and many varieties of germs is removed. While attending to the back yards, some of our river banks should receive attention, and civic action might well be taken to make things of beauty out of some unsavory spots.

THRIFT Stamps.

We strongly recommend the purchase of Thrift Stamps and War Savings Certificates. In this way you not only are aiding your country's finances, but are forming the Savings habit.

Rev. F. Ashton of Mulock yesterday advised us "Kindly remove my ad as I have sold the horse and other property advertised." The Review brings results in the way Mr. Ashton puts it. Some fast lacrosse will be witnessed here this summer as Durham will be up against "big league" company in a district with Owen Sound, Hanover and Orangeville, all much larger places and old lacrosse towns.

WON BALL GAME FROM MARKDALE.-Unknown perhaps to many of our citizens Durham has a baseball team which can win. It is entirely young chaps whose names are prominent in Junior and juvenile line-ups. They slipped over to Markdale last Monday evening and beat the home team 21-18 in an exciting nine innings see saw battle.

Another Record Breaking Auction Sale at Elderslie

The farm stock, implements, etc., belonging to the estate of the late Walter Dudgeon, of the 10th con, Elderslie, sold by auction on Friday last, brought the aggregate of $7,500, which is the largest sum ever realized at a similar sale in Elderslie.

Memorial Meeting Still Hangs Fire

The third Memorial meeting in Town Hall on Monday night was an improvement on its predecessors, there being over forty citizens out including ten or a dozen ladies. Still that number is a miserable representation for a town of this size and forces one to the conclusion that real sympathetic sentiment is lacking in many quarters.

The meeting waited for the Mayor to take the chair, but about 9 p. m. Mr. Irwin was appointed to the position, a difficult one for there was neither plan nor program, nor report from the committee appointed at former meeting, the Mayor Conventer, which had never met.

The monument idea is related purely to sacrifices of the war and its approximate cost easily ascertained. Mr. Calder estimates that a site for a small park and equipping it would cost about $2000 and he had a cut of a monument of respectable dimensions that could be got for $1500 more. In discussion several thought there should be an effort to reach $5000 at least.

The idea of a memorial hall for theatrical displays, dances, &c, even with a soldiers' room as an annex, is distasteful to many, and abhorrent to a few. Dugald McKechnie in a few pregnant remarks closed by saying that such a use of a memorial Hall would to him look like dancing on his boy's grave.

We trust the committee which consists of one delegate each from the G. W. V. A. from the Red Cross Society, from the I. O. D. E. and one from each church in town, $ in all, Mayor McKechnie, convenor, will be able forthwith to formulate some scheme that will lead to something practical being done.

And Neither Fire nor Tempest Could Destroy

The letter following from J. W. Crawford, Eyebrow, Sask., is a timely and welcome contribution to the memorial movement in town. It is heartening to find a well-known Durhamite taking an interest in this creditable movement. He and many others at a distance are watching us at home, and expecting us to measure up to the occasion by planning for and erecting a worthy memorial.

Dear Mr. Calder.- I am pleased to notice that the people in and around Durham are taking action to erect a Memorial or Monument to the memory of our brave boys who fought and died that we might live. I am strongly in favor of a monument that neither fire nor tempest could destroy. I would like to see the name of every boy who was born or enlisted in South Grey and who saw actual fighting on land, sea or in the air, inscribed on monument. My choice of a place would be in front of Mr Kelly's: there are a number of trees there and more could be planted. I cannot think of any better place for the boys to meet occasionally and have a reunion. The boys have played their part nobly and well: we mourn for those that will never return and the least we can do is to show the living that we appreciate their heroic worth. You can put me down for $25 to $50.00 as may be required. Wishing the undertaking every success. I remain, Sincerely yours, J. W. Crawford.

On the Labrador Coast

"With Dr. Grenfell in Labrador" was the theme of an interesting address in the Town Hall, Friday last. The speaker was Mrs. Ross Jamieson, a Newfoundland lady, who in war hospital work overseas, met and married Dr. Ross Jamieson, son of Alex. Jamieson, Mt. Forest, and consequently is related to the Jamiesons of Durham. She is a lady of fine address, enthusiastic we should say in whatever she undertakes, as may be inferred from the fact that she spent two years as nurse in the isolation of Labrador under Dr. Grenfell without pecuniary recompense.

She has a number of stereopticon views of the bleak coast, showing types of inhabitants, their homes, their boats, their dogs, &c, all illustrative of the seafaring life. Pictures of icebergs and seals and other Arctic features of the desolate coast which however is "home" to thousands, who love it in spite of its forbidding aspects.

Dr. Grenfell and his heroic and unselfish work and many dangers she speaks highly, relates some thrilling experiences in her own with dog teams, in reaching the sick and altogether leaves a delightful mental picture of the bleak coast, which though separated only by 12 miles of water (Straits of Belle Isle) from Newfoundland, yet differs entirely in its people and outlook.

Mr. C. Ramage was chairman, and interest was added to the program by a fine recitation by Miss Annie Graham, a solo by Mrs. M. McFadden, which brought a hearty encore. Miss Rita Irwin accompanied and contributed two of her brilliant instrumental. Mr. Frank Irwin manipulated the instrument and pictures. Rev. Mr. Whaley moved an appreciative vote of thanks which was heartily given. The meeting which was under the auspices of the I. O. D. E., opened and closed with the National Anthem.

To the Soldiers of Bruce County

The citizens of the town of Chesley extended to the returned soldiers of Bruce and border townships of Grey a cordial invitation to attend a Re-union of the Bruce County Soldiers at Chesley on the King's Birthday, June 3rd. There will be an official welcome by the Mayor and Warden of the County at Heroes' Square at 11.30 a. m., and addresses of welcome at Victoria park at 2 p. m. by Sir William Hearst, and Mayor Tolmie.

Cheaper Postage Wanted

Let us have cheaper postage is the cry of the Toronto Star and other papers, and we join heartily in the demand. We believe a return to the old rates would give results something like 1897, when the reduced rate knocked all gloomy forebodings into a cocked hat, and substituted surpluses for deficits. If the one cent post card were restored, we feel certain the postal card revenue would not suffer. We don't mind giving the government a hint that such a reduction would be as popular as its imposition was unpopular.

PERSONAL MENTION

Nurse Jean Crawford has reached Toronto on her way from the wars and her brother Charlie is expected back by the end of the month.

Mrs. J. M. Latimer, of Toronto, is visiting at Miss Matthews' and other old friends in town for a week or two.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. McClocklin have returned to their residence in town after spending the winter months in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gun arrived Monday night at the former's old home here from Scotland and we trust that Mrs. Gun's first experience of Canadian life may be favorable.

Lieut. Harper Kress, patient in Burlington Military Hospital, is home on a short leave. He expects to get his discharge shortly.

Mr. J. L. McDonald and sister of Boothville, visited at Mr. Jno. McQueen's over Tuesday.

Mrs. Ross Jamieson of Mt. Forest visited over the week end with relatives here after her return on Friday night.

Mr. W. D. Mills of St. Catharines, a former townsman has been critically ill with pneumonia for some weeks but happily has now been pronounced out of danger. Dr. MacDonald, also an old Durhamite, is his attending physician.

Mr. Mills expects to spend some time soon with relatives in town and Bentick when sufficiently strong to travel.

The engagement is announced of Marion Irene, daughter of Mrs. Jamieson and the late Rev. Walter S. Jamieson, to Mr. Nelson E. South, of Winnipeg. The marriage will take place quietly in June.

Messrs. Chas. and Jack McGillivray of Paisley, are visitors at Mr. John McFadden's, 2nd con, Glenelg. Jack has recently returned from overseas.

Mr. Jas. Ector of Portage La Prairie, Man returned Wednesday to the West after spending two weeks with his nephews, Mr. Arthur Edge, Edge Hill. Mr. Ector sold out last year owing to ill health, spent the winter with relatives near Ottawa and has since been visiting in Western Ontario to improve his health. It is 39 years ago since Mr. Ector left Glenelg for the West and 29 years since he was last here.

Sergt. Fred Kelly Home

Holding the distinction of a longer overseas service than any other Durham boy, Sgt. Fred Kelly arrived home on Monday noon, and has received a warm welcome from family and old friends. Fred enlisted on 1st February 1915, the first from Durham along with John Weir and Percy Bryon who both made the great sacrifice. Fred trained at Owen Sound an I. Niagara, went overseas in Oct. 1915, and after four months in England went to the front in March 1916. He spent five mos. on the firing line, then was transferred to a clerical position in Headquarters office, where he wielded the pen instead of the sword or rifle. Later he was given an office position in the Forestry Corps, and from this branch, received his discharge. Fred looks in splendid health, and in his over four years army life, has had a wealth of experience.

The Ladies' Guild of Trinity Church realized $135 from their sale of work and baking in the Calder block Saturday last. There will be some expense out of this but will still leave a healthy balance that will reward them for their work.

Flying the Atlantic

The sensation of the past week apart from the revolution in Winnipeg was the attempt of Hawker and Grieve, Australian airmen to fly the broad Atlantic, direct from Newfoundland to Ireland. They started in high hopes and nothing more is known, so no doubt they are victims to their daring spirit. That daring attempt however will ever rank them among the pioneers of Atlantic aviation. The American flyers took the easy way by stages to the Azores, Portugal and England and have succeeded in covering safely the first 1400 mile gap from Newfoundland to the Azores. Provision was made by a string of warships to ensure their safety but Hawker and Grieve had no such backing.
