YOUNG LAD OPERATED ON.—Master John Allan, the little 8 year old son of Mr and Mrs W. J. Allan, Egremont, underwent a critical operation for appendicitis Monday, performed by Dr Groves, Ferguson, assisted by Dr Mair, Holstein. It appears the appendix had burst before it could be removed, making it a serious case. Nevertheless the operation was successful and the lad is making favorable progress.

The farmer who owns a farm is the particular person who is fixed. Banks may fail and factories close, workmen strike and mines suspend, merchants fail and towns burn, times may be panicky and even crops may be short—but the farmer who owns his acres will get along. He will live in comfort and quiet with plenty to eat, drink and wear. He is the most independent man on earth. Yet there are lots of them who do not appreciate their situation.

County Council meets on 16th June, and much interest is being taken in the meeting for there is likely to be some caustic comment on the committees of whoever was responsible for the purchase of some very defective road making machinery. At the present rate of going, said to be "a mile a month," South Grey people will be a few years older before they see "good roads." Owen Sound papers think it doubtful if they will reach Woodford on the way to Meaford this year.

June Weddings

McKENZIE—McGILLIVRAY

A pretty June wedding on a pretty June day. June 11th was solemnized at the home of Mr Neil McGillivray when his daughter Laura, became the bride of Mr Kenneth McKenzie, lineman for the Bell Telephone Co., Toronto. Rev. Mr McEwen, the bride's pastor, performed the ceremony, in front of an arch of evergreens and maple on the lawn. About 100 guests were present, including relatives from Owen Sound and Toronto.

The wedding march was given by three of the groom's brother pipers of the 48th Highlander pipe band, Toronto, and these with the groom and another highlander present went through the fierce engagements of the Somme and Vimy Ridge unscathed.

The bride looked handsome in a gown of white silk crepe de chene, carrying a bouquet of flowers, while the groom was at his best in his regimental uniform. They were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Jennie McGillivray and Wm. Riddell as groomsmen from Toronto, also a war veteran.

The wedding feast which followed was worthy of the home that prepared it and then followed an evening of music, chiefly from the pipers such as is seldom heard. These pipers are remaining over for the garden party at Glenelg Centre church Friday evening.

The bride and groom are remaining at her home for a short time, then going to Owen Sound for a little trip ere proceeding to Toronto where the groom has purchased a home. The good wishes of a host of friends in which the Review wishes to join, will follow the happy couple.

WILLIAMS—RAMAGE

Wednesday, 11th June, 1919—will be a red letter day in the lives of Mr Stanley Williams and Miss Florence Ramage who on that day before Rev. B. Smith, Dromore took the vows that made them man and wife. The groom is a progressive young farmer on the 19th Con. of Egremont, the bride is one of the twin daughters of Mr and Mrs Wm. Ramage, also of Egremont. The happy couple were attended and the ceremony at 5 p. m. was witnessed only by immediate relatives of the two principals.

The wedding dress was a handsome one of white satin, with tunic of georgette crepe and trimmings of white satin ribbon while the travelling suit was of navy blue gabardine and with this went a becoming white hat.

In the evening a reception was held at the home of the bride, the guests being a wider circle of relatives of the parties. As at the marriage here also there was overflowing of good wishes to the young couple, both well and favorably known in the community, the bride, being musical, having appeared on many platforms in her father's choir and otherwise. After a sumptuous supper with the table graced by a beautiful wedding cake the party resolved itself into a charming evening of music, games and social chat, the youngsters of the party finding the grassy sward outside, in the bright moonlight, just adapted for ring games, &c. Later refreshments were again served and the health, happiness and prosperity of the bride and groom put as a toast, was heartily responded to by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Dundalk, two Borthwick families from Guelph, Mr and Mrs John Hockridge, Cedarville; Mr and Mrs. And. Weidman and daughter, Mt. Forest, all relatives of the groom, were among those from a distance present.

The young couple left next morning on a honeymoon trip to London, Guelph and Hamilton and on return will settle down to farm duties. The Review extends felicitations.

The fair bride was the recipient of many valuable gifts, suitable and ornamental, a tribute to her popularity.

Recent Arrivals from Overseas.

SISTERS J. & M. MUNRO

Among the recent arrivals of returned heroes and heroines are those of Nursing sisters Jessie and Maimie Munro who returned to their native town on Saturday evening last after a year's absence in France. Ere sailing they had taken a special course for nurses in the Department of Physical Reconstruction at Boston and when sailing were attached to the 1st Base Hospital No. 9, American Expeditionary Force. They went over in one of a convoy of vessels, flitted with the submarines, and after making a quick run through England, landed at Le Havre and from there, were designated for Chateauroux, 150 miles south of Paris where they spent the first six months. Following this they were sent to Nantes Evacuation Hospital No. 31, where they saw much experience. Before leaving France they had a unique experience in a motor trip throughout the devastated regions of France and Belgium, visiting the grave of their brother-in-law, the late Major E. L. Knight at Albert. They have brought back many tales and curios with them and their home makes an interesting place to spend an hour or two. They returned on the German transport the "Imperator" which is manned by German officers and is being rented by the U. S. government to carry their soldiers and "soldierettes" home.

PTE. LANCE MCGIRR
A big crowd assembled at the G. T. station Saturday eve to welcome home Pte Lance McGirr, second son of Mr and Mrs. Thos. McGirr, east of Durham. Lance was a very big but he fully upheld his part in beating the Hun and returns very little changed. Enlisting in the 71st batt. at Walkerton in October 1915, he was one of Durham's early recruits. Training that winter in Galt, he went overseas in March 1916 and on Aug 10th crossed over to France with the trench mortar battery of the 10th brigade where he spent nearly three years on active service. In May 1917 he was wounded on the bridge of the nose, but after 3 mos. out of action, he was again fit. After the armistice he got as far as Brussels. On April 28th last his division left for England and at end of May he sailed for home. His older brother Wm. who suffered the loss of an eye is still in England and is not expected home until August.

PTE. BERNARD COFFIELD
Pte. Bernard Coffield had much experience crowded into a short military career of little over a year. He returned to Durham on Monday noon having reached Toronto the day previous, and visited old friends here and in Glenelg for a couple days before leaving Wednesday for his new home in Detroit, where his parents, Mr and Mrs Martin Coffield now reside. Barney enlisted in May 1918, went overseas June 2nd, and spent from Sept. till the armistice was signed at the front in the 75th batt., but was never wounded. He remained in France until last month, when his Division embarked for England and thence home.

PTE. JACK SMITH

Returning to Durham Tuesday evening was Pte. Jack Smith, only son of Mrs John W. Smith of Aberdeen. Jack enlisted in the winter of 1918, went overseas in May of last year, and saw several months' service in France in the 102nd battalion. He escaped unscathed and relatives and friends around the old home are pleased to welcome him hale and hearty.

PTE. GORDON WILSON

Also returned to his home, in Durham Tuesday evening after an eventful military life for the comparatively short period he wore the uniform, in which he saw much of the warring nations. Enlisting at Niagara Jan 23rd, 1918, he went overseas next month, and across to France at the end of July. He was first in the 102nd batt., but was transferred to the 50th, and first met the Hun in conflict near Arras last Sept. In the engagement here he was wounded in the shoulder, but a three weeks' care again made him fit, and he came back into the fight at Cambrai. He reached as far as Valenciennes with the advancing Canucks when the armistice came. He was afterwards through Belgium and six weeks in Germany at Cologne and Coblenz with the army of occupation. Gordon looks well after his 17 mos. army life.

PTE. J. KARL LENAHAN

This old Durham boy arrived at his home in Owen Sound Monday evening in the best of health and was given a warm reception. He enlisted in Owen Sound with the 147th and went to France with the 102nd Batt. He served through the heavy fighting at Passchendaele, Amiens, Arras, Cambrai, coming through the whole campaign unscathed.

Another Glenelg Barn Fired

Still another of the mysterious fires which have been happening recently with all too frequent regularity in Centre Glenelg took place early last Monday morning when Mr. Jno. A. Beaton's fine barn on the 4th con. was fired by some yet unknown but much wanted creature. When first noticed by Mrs Beaton on awakening about 2 a. m. the barn was a mass of flames.

Mr Beaton's first thought was to give the alarm by ringing the bell above the woodshed but this action had been premeditated by the scoundrel for the wire attached for ringing it had been wound three times around the axle, thus rendering it useless. Neighbors were quickly on the scene however and with their aid Mr Beaton managed to rescue most of the stock. With the barn were consumed 1 sow and 9 young pigs, some hens, 500 bus oats, some hay, a load of flour, a roller and 2 pair of scales. Most of the implements were in a driving shed near by and it was with the valiant exertions of the neighbors this was saved, though several times on fire. There was an insurance of $1000 on barn which will cover only a fraction of the loss and $1000 on contents both in the Grey and Bruce Fire Ins. Co.

Both the night of the fire and the previous one, Miss Muriel Beaton, who slept above the kitchen had heard the dog barking, it appears but on arising and looking out the first night could see nothing untoward. It is possible the perpetrator of the deed was then prowling around.

With this the fifth structure recently to go up in flames in the neighborhood no apparent cause other than incendiarism, the farmers of the district are in nervous fear of more arson cases, unless the culprit is soon apprehended. With all vigilant, no doubt the fire brand will soon be cornered should the vile work continue. We are informed that detectives are now at work in the township, and it is to be hoped convicting evidence will quickly be secured.

Proton Gave Medals To Its Soldier Boys

Every corner of Proton was well represented at an immense gathering at Hopeville on Tuesday evening, when a public presentation was given to the returned soldiers of the township. Almost 2000 people assembled outside the hall, and autos by the hundred lined the road-side. To each of the 23 returned soldier boys and to relatives of those who fell, Rev. Geo. Kendall presented a suitably inscribed gold medal on behalf of the township of Proton while E. E. Hockridge read the address. As well a splendid program of song, addresses by the clergy and others and music by the pipe band and Dundalk band was rendered, making it a memorable evening in the township's history.

Quite a number of Durham sports attended Walkerton races Thursday. We hope they will respond as well to Durham's invitation on July 1st.

Mr and Mrs T. Allan accompanied Mr. and Mrs McElroy home to St Catharines and also visited with their son Edwin in Toronto.

Banquet and Reception

To-morrow, Friday Evening

Another of the welcoming functions to returned soldiers is to be held in the Library on Friday evening. None was held last month as quite a number were expected home soon after the usual date. The I. O. D. E. has charge of the affair this time and they will be sure repeat the success of their first one.

At the close of the banquet adjournment will be made to the town hall, where about 8.30 a program will begin, which will include the usual presentations to soldiers. We would like to see the hall crowded once more as an indication of appreciation to the boys who have recently returned and at the same time a witness of respect for the memory of those that sleep in the battle zone. Let's all go.
