DOMINION DAY

Over the citadel of quaint Quebec The tricolor flag is flung. And the sentries who pace the battlements Challenge in a foreign tongue. A colony of sunny France Whose sons afar did roam To plant their banner and the cross Near many an Indian home. The night and Wolfe's battalions float Down the river toward the sea While in the town chivalrous Montcalm Dreams of home and victory. 'Tis morning and the asterished French See floating on the breeze On Abraham's plains the meteor flag. Of the mistress of the seas. Short and sharp was the conflict. Where many a brave man fell And gallant Wolfe and brave Montcalm Each doing his duty well. More than a hundred years have passed And yet from sea to sea Across this country vast and grand The meteor flag floats free. Over the united provinces. May peace and joy hold sway And millions unite to celebrate Each fair Dominion Day.

Last Thursday evening pupils and parents of No 9 gathered at the school and spent a pleasant evening in social chat, speeches, readings, music (vocal and instrumental), etc. The social feature of the evening was the presentation of a very dainty ivory dressing set to the retiring teacher, Miss Kerr. Ebel Alles and Jean Eccles presented the gifts while Effie Ellis read the following address:

S. S. No. 9, June 26 Miss Florence Kerr, Dear Friend and Teacher,—

For two years our lives have run comparatively parallel but now they diverge. These years have been pleasant and instructive and we regret that you have decided to leave us but we wish you success and pleasure in your new field of labor.

You have not restricted yourself to school duties but have always been willing to assist in any way you could—especially with our musical talents, which we assure you were appreciated.

As a small token of our esteem and love we ask you to accept this dressing set and as you use it we hope it will recall many pleasant memories of your first pedagogical years.

And now as we sever our present relationship we wish you many prosperous and happy years doing your work so conscientiously, faithfully and cheerfully that finally the Great Teacher will say "well done."

Signed in behalf of S. S. No 9, Ethel Rawe, Josie Whynne, Rosa Rogers, Lella Sohrbaum

Miss Kerr responded appropriately saying she liked the attention and the people in it, had enjoyed her two years work here and as she was not going far she hoped to see them all again. She thanked them for their pretty gift which would always be a lovely reminder of No. 9. A verse of "God be with you till we meet again" was sung and then luncheon was served.

Brown-McArthur Nuptials

BROWN-McARTHUR A wedding of two well known Egremont young people, took place Wednesday, 25th June, when Miss Mary Sophie McArthur, daughter of Mrs Neil McArthur, Yeovil, became the bride of Mr. Thos. Derby Brown, younger son of Mr. and Mrs Wm. Brown, Dromore.

The event was of the quietest nature, the young couple going to the residence of Rev Mr. Moyer of Conn, where the ceremony was performed at 2.30 p.m. Mr Lachlan McArthur the bride's brother and Miss Belle McEachern were the only attendants at the ceremony.

Immediately following the ceremony the happy couple left for Mt. Forest where they entrained for O. Sound and Warton and returned Saturday to Drayton and on to the groom's farm at Dromore where they will commence housekeeping.

The bride was attractively attired in a navy blue serge suit and wore a large white hat and also carrying a bouquet of flowers. Many handsome gifts fell to the lot of this couple, that of the groom being a cheque.

We voice our sentiments with that of others in wishing them a happy and prosperous life together.
