The Durham Review

JULY 17, 1919

N. W. Rowell

Somewhat of a sensation has been caused by a letter written by Hon N. W. Rowell to a man named Davison in Port Hope. His aim is plainly to discount and damage the leadership of Mr Hartley Dewar, whom he accuses of being in the service of the liquor party, who is going to be rejected by Liberalism, and many other charges to all of which Mr Dewar gives most emphatic denial.

At the same time Mr Rowell goes out of his way to say soft things of Mr Proudfoot, and this and other indications point to only one conclusion, that he is deliberately trying to stab Liberalism in Ontario by raising 'jalouses', or creating factions amongst them.

While Provincial Liberal Leader Mr Rowell had many friends. He deserted them without saying by what name. He accepted office at Ottawa, and his seat in since, and this letter, seems to indicate that he has deserted Liberalism also, and is as the Globe says, 'a d-in-glove with a government whose special aim seems to be to protect the 'big interests'.

It would be interesting to have an official pronouncement from the Liberals of Durham Co., who elected Rowell, of what they think of him now, as he stands with back to the Liberal party throwing poisoned javelins into the ranks of his former friends.

The Globe under the heading 'Mr Rowell Crosses the Floor,' gives a strong article in these words:

'Looking at the situation as it is today, and as it is likely to develop throughout the balance of the Parliamentary term during which it is the manifest intention of the present Ministry to remain in office it becomes quite clear, that by 1921 the Liberal members who have joined the new party will have merged their identity with and become absorbed in the Conservative organization. If they seek re-election it will be on a Conservative platform and by the support of electors largely of Conservative leanings. The Globe does not believe that Mr Rowell will carry many Liberals with him into the Unionist camp on these terms. The mass of Liberal electors who supported the Unionist Government at the last election on war issues will unquestionably refuse to regard past issues as sufficient cause for the creation of a permanent party. They will seek rather to ally themselves with forward-looking men who will eradicate the questions which must come before the electorate in the future on their merits and in their bearing upon the welfare and happiness of the Canadian people.

There is no logical reason for the permanent alliance of men who hold widely divergent views concerning the vital issues of the future in the fact that two years ago they held an identical view regarding an issue that has been settled and that has now no more than historical interest. Liberalism and Conservatism are principles of political action that will survive long after the men of to-day disappear from the stage. That is why the Liberals of Ontario will fall in on great numbers to follow Mr Rowell in the camp of the party that, however may name itself, is still in all essentials the traditional Conservative party of MacDonald, Carleton, Tupper, Thompson, and Braden, and that still holds the flag of privilege to the masthead.

Durham Hydro Shows Small Surplus in Operating Cost

The eleventh annual report of the Hydro Electric Power Commission of Ontario has been received and gives some very interesting details of the working out of this system throughout Ontario. The report is divided into many groups based on the source of supply and Durham is of course, listed with those which receive their supply of electric energy from the falls at Eugenia.

The following towns and villages showed surpluses; Markdale $121; O. Sound $31; Durham $33.97; Holstein $43.50; Mt Forest $40.51; Hanover $85; Elmwood $85; Chesley $40; Dundalk $27.30; Shelburne $30; Orangeville $35; Alton $43.23; Grand Valley $45.00 and Arthur $45.

The net deficit of the Eugenia Falls system since it was first put in operation over three years ago, was shown to be $25,143.05, though O. Sound shows a net surplus on the operations for the full period of operations.

Valley; Markdale $23.24; Fiesherston $28.96; Chatsworth $30; Tara $37; O. Sound $31; Durham $33.97; Holstein $43.50; Mt Forest $40.51; Hanover $85; Elmwood $85; Chesley $40; Dundalk $27.30; Shelburne $30; Orangeville $35; Alton $43.23; Grand Valley $45.00 and Arthur $45.

The total revenue from the municipalities on the Eugenia system was $77,854.60 and from companies and sale of power to the Severn River system, $48,386.68 making a total revenue of $126,241.28.

The net deficit of the Eugenia Falls system since it was first put in operation over three years ago, was shown to be $25,143.05, though O. Sound shows a net surplus on the operations for the full period of operations.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Margaret McDonald Alexander, died July 14, 1918, aged 21 years, 2 months. All is dark within our dwelling Lonely is our home to-day For the one who smiled to cheer us Has forever passed away. Yet again we hope to meet her When the day of life is fled There in Heaven we hope to greet her, Where no farewell tears are shed. Father, mother, brother and sisters, Glenside, Sask.

Girl He Left Behind Made Things Lively

While the price of admission was not as high as to the Dempsey Willard scrap, the pugilistic demonstration pulled off Saturday night on East Second Avenue, Owen Sound, was every bit as interesting to the spectators. And they were there in large numbers, for the affair was staged at a time when traffic was heaviest, and at a pretty well populated part of the street.

The participants were a returned soldier, his Canadian wife and a lady he is said to have met and espoused while overseas—though really the only one that was "in it" so far as the actual encounter was concerned was the Canuck lady.

It seems that when the soldier answered the call of King and Country he left behind a more or less devoted wife; but after reaching the Old Land he became enamored of a Scotch lassie, whom rumor says—though for this we cannot vouch—he married. He returned home a short time ago; and sometime last week the lady from Scotland also made her appearance in town. And Saturday night shortly after nine o'clock, Wife No 1 met hubby and alleged Wife No. 2 on East Second Avenue, and proceeded without delay to assert herself. We regret that we were not there, for according to all accounts it was "some scrap." Hubby was attacked first, with fists, feet and tongue—the vocal part of the engagement is said to have been a feature; and after he had been disposed of, Madame turned her guns on the siren whom she blamed as the destroyer of her home and happiness. The attack appears to have been a complete success, for we are informed that when the last was seen of the party, the attacking force was closely pursuing him on rear and flank.—O. Sound Advertiser.
