Mr and Mrs Chas. Reid and family paid a flying visit on Sunday last to Mr Henry Beaton and family, Glenelg Centre.

ALLAN'S CORNERS

The S. Paul's Ladies' Aid Garden Party which passed off last Thursday evening was a decided success. The weather was very favorable and the crowd the largest ever witnessed during the past few years in this locality. The former part of the evening was enjoyed by a good football match between Orchardville and Dromore teams, being won by the former, score 2-0. No doubt some disappointment was felt on the part of the program but hope to be excused for the time being as more musical talent was expected but failed to arrive and feel grateful to Mr Wm. Troy of Orchard who spared no efforts whatever in giving many selections on the bagpipes, which was pleasing to the ear of the Scotch and the violin to the Irish. Proceeds of booth and gate receipts amounted to the neighborhood of $105.

Mrs Wm. McMeekin of Toronto holidayed with Mr Robert McMeekin and family during the last week.

Mr W. J. Allan who was laid off work with a jammed foot at the raising of Mr Matthew Barber's, is again able to do his work.
