NORTH EGREMONT

Miss Louisa Ramage of Wingham, was a visitor at her home over the week end. She was accompanied by Mr Alex Darroch of Harriston, an expert in binder fixing.

One of those stirring old time events took place on Wednesday last on the farm of Mr. J. M. Allan when his fifty foot square new barn was erected under the direction of R Matthews the framer. Some 100 friends and neighbours gathered to lend a helping hand generously. Sides were chosen by Messrs Gordon Geddes and Geo. Hargrave when the race royal began and ended, many say in favor of the latter. The Gordon Highlanders (no offence at this appellation) had placed their "collar tie" first in the braces of the pulvane (the usual place at a raising) and went to some other work. The Royal Geographers also followed suit finishing by placing theirs in the same place and clambered off the building with the usual accompanied cheers and cat calls.

The Gordons seeing their chance, went back to their collar tie and placed both in proper place on the earst call of the framer so claim the others refusing to climb onto the building, more especially as the latter had been assisting the other side all through (so it was alleged.) Many arguments were indulged in and hot talk but will all blow over. It is a decade or nearly two since a barn raising was held here and one is reminded of the passing of time, when many of the best selections of years ago, were left to rot the last, though not to be despised with their knowledge of the work.

Some clever work and daring stunts were performed, some 50 ladies looking on and lending encouragement to the more daring. Mr G. Peart and Henry Beaton of Glenelg were present. Miss J. E. Livingstone our popular teacher from Holland Centre was also present and lent a helping hand for several days. She was recipient of many congratulations in passing all her four pupils who wrote on the Entrance, never yet having had one failed, a good record. Chronic grumblers are naturally pleased with her success.

Mrs Arthur Hann and children returned to Toronto last week after a months stay at Mr Albert Hann's.

Messrs Thom McDougall, Ed. Pratt, Matt McKeown, Geo Lothian, Stanley Williams, all violinists together with Misses Jessie Gemmill, Hazel Atmore, teacher of St. George and Belle Lothian spent a pleasant evening on Thursday last at the home of Mr Wm Ramage in vocal and instrumental music. Mr. R. Borthwick, a returned Siberian soldier of Guelph vicinity had a number of interesting snap shots with him, taken out there personally of Coolies with great burdens on their back, of Russians, &c. Arch. McCoig Jr. was also of the number present.

Miss Atmore returned to her home on Friday leaving many pleasant memories.

Mr and Mrs W. Ramage and family, Mr and Mrs Jas. Weir journeyed to the home of Mr Sandy McDonald on a farewell visit to his son, John L., who leaves this Monday for Ottawa having secured his old school at an increase in salary.

We congratulate Mr. Jas. Weir on the purchase of the farm along side, the last in Egremont on the 21st and wish him and his wife all prosperity.

Mr Crawford Harrison as sub agent with Mr A. W. Lauder, are often busy in this locality in behalf of the Great West Insurance Society and meeting with good results.

Mrs H. Greenwood intends leaving shortly for her home in N. Dakota, after an extended visit to her parents Mr and Mrs Jas Geddes.

The well drilled Mr Pratt and McKeown have finished drilling at John McKenzie's at a depth of 115 feet, having water now at a depth of 75 feet. They have moved on to the farm of Mr Jas Ferguson on the 17th.

Mr Wm. Ramage has treated himself and family to a brand new buggy recently.

Mrs Laugheed of Toronto is visiting her sister, Mrs John Eurig.

Messrs Harry and Ed. White of Arthur tp. and Misses Sophia Freeman and Duffield of Mt. Forest motored through the Bend and called at the Model Farm on Thursday last week.

Mrs James Hunt and daughter of Holstein, Mrs Albert Hunt and baby of Wingham were recent visitors at J. Hunt's.

Messrs Thomas Roy and James Hunt motored from Holstein lately and visited friends here. We were pleased to see James looking so well after his experience overseas.

Miss Lily Gardiner of St. Thomas is visiting her brothers, Messrs Edgar and Edwin Gardiner.

We know our residents join us in extending deep sympathy to Mr and Mrs Edgar Gardiner in their great sorrow, their eldest child a dear little girl in her sixth year, dying on the 25th ult.

But there is heavenly garden Where flowers are blooming fair And the little child with the golden hair

And the sweet bright eyes is there. On Monday evening of last week a number of friends and neighbors assembled at the home of Mr Michael Farrell to welcome from overseas his sons James and Joseph. A very pleasant time was spent until the wee sma' hours, indeed old Sol was casting his beams when some arrived home. Handsome presents were given to the boys, a gold watch and fountain pen to each. Following is the address:

To James and Joseph Farrell;

Dear Friends,—

It is with feelings of deep joy and gratitude to God that we, your friends and neighbors, have assembled here-to-night to welcome to our midst two that went forth with many others at the call of King and Country to help defend our beloved Canada, and glad you were allowed to come home in health and strength, while so many were seriously wounded or left in Flanders with the bright poppies growing on their graves. And although you were not called to go into the battle front, still you were on the field, ready if needed to go and do your bit.

We wish to show our appreciation of your willingness to serve in some slight form and ask you to accept these gifts, not for their value but for the feelings that prompted the givers and trust you may long be spared to live in the country you were willing to fight for.

Signed in behalf of the neighbors, Wesley Holliday, Henry Moyer.
