LARGE SHOE DEMANDS .- Local mer. chants report an unusual demand for boots and shoes during the past couple of weeks, in many instances it being the largest on record. Fear of increased prices for footwear has invaded many homes and "Mr John Citizen" does not intend to be taken unawares if he can help it. Buying one emergency pair, sometimes two, it looks as if the 1919 styles in shoes will now prevail for a few years. It is said that a Glenelg farmer bought five week. A merchant told us recently it is nothing unusual for a customer to give an order from $25 to $40 and equip his order and upon arrival home, he phoned of Dutton, a former Durham boy and up and extended the amount to $35.
