VARNEY

Back to the news column again after resuming a bountiful harvest that was enjoyed by all the farmers of this very successful neighborhood.

Mrs A. McCabe had the misfortune to break her wrist while painting the house last Friday.

Misses Margaret and Janet Kerr left Monday to attend Normal in Stratford.

Mr A. Keller went to Kitchener last Saturday where he expects to spend the winter.

Mr Ernest Leeson and Miss M. Mountain arrived home Saturday from London Fair. They report having spent a most enjoyable time.

Very sorry to have to announce that Miss Margaret Leeson is suffering from tonsillitis but we hope for her speedy recovery.

Everyone has oft been wearied by hearing the old folks speak of the good times they used to enjoy and ridicule the modern pastimes. However the young people of the village held a Corn Roast in Mr John Kerr's Park on Friday evening. A large bonfire was the centre of interest where every one endeavored to roast corn cobs, but sometimes more than the cob was roasted. The moonlight light was ideal for outdoor entertainment and after the delicacies had been dispensed which the generous young ladies had provided, games were entered into with such zest and pleasure that midnight soon arrived. The more pronounced normal inhabitants of the village who had long since retired were quite relieved to hear "Good Night Ladies" terminate one of the most enjoyable evenings the village ever witnessed.

Service in the village church was quite ably conducted by Mr Allan Sunday evening. Mr Dissell promises to be with us next Sunday.

Speaking of re-construction. If you are pending an investment glance to the unexcelled opportunities that Varney offers. Mr James Kerr's modern house is nearing completion and it certainly adds a new tone to the village. Travelling south we notice Mr Wm. Eden has remodeled and painted the house on the farm recently purchased. Must be that he intends to sell the place? Mr M. Barber's new barn is completed with the exception of the stables.

Mr and Mrs Ed. Kerr of Proton visited the former's sister, Mrs A. Butler the early part of the week.
