MULOCK

Following is the address read and presented to Pte. Harry McDougall, which we regret, was crowded out last week.

To Pte. Harry C. McDougall:
 We are gathered here to-night on this very happy occasion to welcome you home from across the seas where you have nobly done your part in erasing militarism and upholding righteousness.

We are proud that you were among those who gave their service, and offered their lives, if required, to pay the price of freedom.

As a Canadian soldier, you share the credit of bringing peace to our troubled land and of having taught other nations to take off their hats to Canada. We congratulate you on your safe return and also in capturing such a worthy prize as a helpmate through life.

We desire to express our esteem of you and our appreciation of your services by asking you to accept this club bag with the wish that you may ever remember that the same loving God who brought you safely home will ever guide you aright and that you may both be spared to live long and useful lives.

Signed on behalf of neighbors and friends,
 Miss Flora McDonald,
 M. as Tema Livingstone,
 Mrs. Andrew H. Stie.
