"A Joan of Arc Machine"

SHE withstood everything in the field and above all was, and still is, the last and only car to survive until the cessation of hostilities.—Extract from letter received by Ford Motor Company from a British Soldier, in Africa.

Over shell-torn roads, through water soaked fields, second only to the tanks in its power to climb debris and crater holes, the Ford car made a world famous record in the fighting area of the great war. In press despatches, in field reports, in letters, in rhyme and song the praises of the Ford were sounded.

In France - 700 cars out of 1,000 were Fords In Italy - 850 cars out of 1,000 were Fords In Egypt - 580 cars out of 1,000 were Fords In Mesopotamia - 999 cars out of 1,000 were Fords

The Ford power plant that established this world-wide record in every theatre of the war remains the same. It will be in the Ford you buy.

Philp was chairman and among the numbers given were selections by the string band and addresses by Mr. Lewis and Mr. J. L. Stedman, Secy. of Durham branch. There are now 10 or 12 members in the Holstein branch and officers will be elected at a future meeting.

Misses Ada and Mona Rice and Florence Kerr sang a selection, 'Mickey' very sweetly. W. Ramsay sang 'The Jolly Abstinence' and followed with 'Robin Thompson's Smiddy'. A gramophone number followed. Dr Mair Holstein, spoke facetiously and shortly. The string band again delighted the audience of over 100 people with some fine music. 'Listen to the Mocking bird' being especially good. Orme Hunt was called upon who jocularly refused to sing because his name was not on the program, though vociferously called on. He later favored the meeting with a comic song, eliciting a hearty encore. Mr Robt Sim gave a description of beef ring difficulties in the West and touched upon the coming vote. 'British to the core' was sung by W. W. Ramsay. Mr Wm Rogers gave a speech expressing a desire to see the younger people taking part. The meeting closed with Auld Lang Syne.

Monday night Varney was again the scene of one of those stirring "roasts" occasionally held in the village. The reports of the success of the last one greatly increased the attendance. A roaring bonfire was kindled at which each one roasted his "wearer." Fire crackers assisted by the tumult of the crowd made Varney seem a riotous place. The boys and girls wild with each other in treats, with the result that Mr Blyth's store was solely deprived of anything that had any Games finished, the crowd after "Good Night Ladies," turned homewards to the pleasure of those trying to rest and the reluctance of those present.
