Sudden Death of Matthew Campbell

The startling news of the death of Mr. Matthew Campbell, 2nd Concession, Bentinck, spread around Monday forenoon...

The condition of Durham main street in lower town at present, should make council and citizens take an oath to have a beginning made for a permanent roadway in 1920.

We have gone over our mailing list again this week very carefully and new subscribers will see their names and date to which paid on the label in type.

What does your Label Read? We have gone over our mailing list again this week very carefully and new subscribers will see their names and date to which paid on the label in type.

We will correct our lists again first week in December and would like to have a large number of renews, particularly from those in arrears had before that time.

Hymenal

A quiet wedding took place in Ayrton Wednesday, Nov. 5th, when Miss Vera Damm, of that village, became the bride of Mr. Sam Wilson of town.

In Port Hope on Monday, November 3rd, the wedding was solemnized of Miss Gladys Bryson, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bryson, Durham, to Mr. George Smith a former resident of Port Hope.

A wedding of interest to Durhamites was solemnized at Cooke's Presbyterian Church, Toronto, Nov 1st by Rev. A. D. C. Melroy, when Mr. Joseph Firth, formerly of town, was united in marriage to Miss Eliza M. Donald, eldest daughter of Mrs. Geo. McDonald of Durham.

At the home of the bride, Mrs. F. Mies, Bruce street, a quiet wedding was solemnized Monday at 6 p. m. when she was wedded to Mr. Wm. Lake, a well-known citizen here.

A very pretty Autumn wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Rife on Wednesday, October 29th, the high noon when their youngest daughter, Gladys May, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert H. Brooks, eldest son of Mrs. M. J. Brooks, of Greenfield, Mass.

The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father and looked lovely in a gown of white satin with georgette crepe and pearl trimming and white picture hat, and carried a shower bouquet of roses.

The best wishes of town friends follow them, including those of the Review.
