FOR SALE—A large stock of Fall Wheat straw and chaff. Apply to And. Darby, R. R. 1, Hanover.

Merchants, if you require counter check books, ask to see our samples and prices. Order now as there will be a slight increase in price Dec. 1st.

The Durham Branch of the Women's Institute will hold its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. C. Ramage on Thursday, Dec. 4th at 2.30 p. m. All ladies welcome.

The weather for a week has been mild in the main occasionally giving us a "pet day," but more often skills of snow running into mud. The prevailing mild fall has saved the coal bin however. To-day, Tuesday, a snowfall promises sleighing.

If you wish to secure neat and tasteful Christmas Greeting Cards with your name and verse of your own choosing printed thereon, at very moderate rates, call early and see samples at the Review Office.

Lost—On Saturday, Nov. 15th, between Mullock and Durham a little hard satchel containing a bank note of $100.00 and a sum of money. Suitable reward if left at Review Office. Mrs. Jas Brunt.

CHURCHES—We were astray in some particulars last week as to the sale of the farms of Bert and Chas. Smith. The purchaser was Mr. Jno. Hamilton and the farm of 100 acres sold for $10,000, not $8,000 as we had it. The 50 acre farm sold since to the same party brought $5,000, $15,000 in all.

ONE T. R. TRAIN DAILY—Unless the coal situation shows some marked improvement this week, there is a strong probability that commencing December 1st, the Grand Trunk train service will be cut in half on this and other branch lines, and only one train daily arrive and leave. Such is the purport of a message received by local agent Croft on Tuesday. The Railway Company have not received any coal from the States for the last month, and unless the coal starts moving this week, they have no other recourse but to economize the now available supply by reducing the service.

A. Y. P. A. ORGANIZES—The young people of Trinity Church on Monday last week organized their young people's Society for the coming year with the following officers: President—James Lloyd; Vice Pres—Mrs. Stedman; Treasurer—Elvie Schutz; Secretary—Harry Kress. Last Monday an enjoyable social evening was held, when about forty-five were present. An address by Rev. R. J. Campbell of Toronto, games and refreshments were features of the night. The A. Y. P. A. intends to hold many interesting meetings during the winter. They have purchased a large amount of literature, Rev. Mr. Hardy also proposes to use the lantern occasionally at his evening service, giving illustrated talks on famous bible stories and characters.

"The Unpardonable Sin"—An eight reel picture based on Rupert Hughes' novel, was presented at the Veteran Star Theatre to two full houses last Friday evening and twice again Saturday to audiences scarcely as large. The unpardonable sin was Germany's inhuman treatment of the Belgian women and children, and the film vividly portrays the cruelties and abuse to which they were subjected by the enemy soldiers. An American woman and her daughter, who while in Belgium at the war's outbreak, were enslaved, are being another daughter, who comes from America with a newly-wed husband and rescue them. It is an interesting picture, with many sad scenes, some humor, and a thriller near the close, when the party escape across the Holland border in a furious auto race, followed by a hand to hand wrestling bout, in which the German pursuers are worsted. It is quite evident the picture is mainly intended for Yankee eyes, as the heroes throughout are almost all Americans. The Yips Orchestra rendered pleasing music at intervals during both evenings.

A Family Treat
A real good treat for every member of one's family would be a year's subscription to the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal. It costs only $1.25 and each subscriber receives a handsome souvenir portrait of the Prince of Wales, 10 x 22 inches. The portrait alone is well worth the money. The Family Herald and Weekly Star is a credit to Canada. It has over three quarters of a million readers and thousands more are being added each week. It is a wonderful combination of a newspaper, family magazine and agricultural journal, the best of its kind in America. It is well worth a trial for a year. Every member of your family would be benefited by the weekly visit of that great paper.

Single Examination For Normal and Matriculation
As a result of negotiations with the University authorities, Hon. Dr. Cody in making his last official announcement as Minister of Education, was able to impart the good news that arrangements have been made for joint examinations for matriculation and for the entrance to the Normal School and Faculties of Education. In the past the High Schools have been required to prepare candidates for two types and standards of examinations based on the same courses. By the new arrangement the work of the schools will be materially lessened, and the pupils will have the opportunity of qualifying at the same examinations for entrance to the Normal Schools and to the Universities.

Mr. C. M. Bowman, was honored by the Liberals of W. Bruce by abanquet, presentation of a gold headed-cane and many kind words. He represented the county for 21 years and never met with defeat. 300 Liberals from all parts of the county were present and R. D. Cameron of Lucknow was chairman.

Durham Baptist Church will hold Anniversary services on Sunday and Monday, Nov. 30 and Dec 1st. Rev. H. B. Coomans, B. A. of Toronto, will occupy the pulpit on Sunday at both services on Sunday while on Monday an entertainment will be given by the choir, assisted by Mr. Albert Pequet of Stratford. Admission free.

All old Band members, and everyone interested in the welfare of the Band are requested to attend a meeting in the Band rooms above Harding's store on Friday evening, Nov. 28th, to discuss its reorganization. Council, citizens and the bandmen now in town all would be gratified, we are sure, to again have the Band a going concern. Come to the meeting and have your say.

PREACHED FIVE TIMES ON SUNDAY—Rev. R. J. Campbell of Toronto, representing the Christian Men's Brotherhood Association, occupied the pulpit of four Durham Churches Sunday in the interests of the Serbian Relief Fund for the starving women and children of that "solate" country. He made a strong presentation of the needs of Serbia and will doubtless secure a considerable amount of assistance financially throughout the town this week. On Sunday morning, he spoke from the Baptist and Methodist pulpits in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, Methodist Church, and in the evening from English and Presbyterian pulpits.

The I. O. D. E. put on a successful bazaar in the Calder block, on Saturday last when a little over $300 gross was netted as a result of this Order's enterprise. The ticket sale for gentlemen's sweaters, dolls and trousseau were matters of great interest to the town folk for the past few weeks and at the drawing of the tickets Saturday, the sweater, fell to Mr. Finley Graham and the doll and trousseau to Miss Ruby Long, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonty Long, and recently of town. The various booths of fancy work, handkerchiefs, homemade baking, etc. did a splendid business and the tables at the rear were kept well filled throughout the afternoon. Everything was sold and we think all well satisfied. Part of the proceeds will be devoted to the Navy League campaign.

"The Message of a Memorial"

Large Congregation Sees Tablet Unveiled

Sunday last was set apart for the unveiling of the tablet commemorating the sacrifice made by fourteen young men associated themselves or families with Durham Presbyterian church. A large congregation was present added to by over twenty veterans of town and neighborhood who came to do honor to the memory of fallen comrades.

Pastor, choir and congregation were all attuned to the tender sentiment of the day. One of the opening hymns "Peace perfect peace" seemed to fit appropriately where the shadow of Sorrow was overcome by the reality of Triumph.

"Peace be perfect peace, death shadowing us and ours, Jesus has vanquished death and all its powers."

In the prayer that followed thanks were given for the peace we now enjoy and recognizing it as due to the service and sacrifice of others.

The choir had special numbers also, and their rendering of "In the Garden" and "The Bar" was in fine sympathy with the services of the day.

Rev. Mr. Whaley took his text from Josh. 4: 21, his topic being the headline of this article, "The Message of a Memorial." Joshua and Israel had miraculously crossed the Jordan and he commanded that twelve stones should be erected as a memorial, and when the children asked "What mean these stones?" Israel was to tell of a great deliverance.

The service was unique, the preacher said in that it was the first of its kind in the history of the congregation, and it was fitting that we should not let fall the memory of the dead. It was fitting that this commemoration should be a declaration of our faith for we all recognize, never more than in the late war, that God was true leader on earth, air and sea.

While the war was on this community was not unmindful of those serving as shown by many kind acts and this day's exercises might be looked upon as a completion of our recognition at least by formal act. The Honor Roll, (pointing to it) contained the names of 75 soldiers and nursing sisters of whom 14 had paid the great sacrifice.

Then asking the congregation to rise he withdrew the Union Jack that covered the tablet and read over the 14 names. "It again would mix with us in social converse, not again forgetting to give their hand-clasp, and again welcome them to our homes" yet

"Short days ago They lived, left dawn, saw sunsets glow, Loved and were loved, but now in the gloom, In Flanders Fields, . . ."

(Their voices still say to us) To you from falling hands we throw The torch, be yours to hold it high. I ye break faith with us who die We shall not sleep though poppies grow In Flanders' Fields."

The solemn standing congregational tribute over, the choir gave "Crossing the Bar."

Following is the legend and names on the tablet:

When you tell your children the story of the tablet, teach them also of the Universal hero and what he did and what his memorial is and stands for.

The Women's Guild of Trinity Church will hold a Recital in the Town Hall of Tuesday evening, Dec. 16th, Robert Hannah, B. A. Elucationist and Dramatic Interpreter, Graduate of Western University and past Graduate of Dept. of Public Speaking, University of Chicago, will be the leading entertainer. He is a star in his line and comes highly recommended. Plan to hear him.

Walkerton Times says: "Rev. S. M. Whaley, B. A. of Durham who occupied the pulpit at Knox Church last Sunday, gave a gripping sermon on Spiritual Power at the night service. Mr. Whaley is earnest, thoughtful and altogether one of the best pulpit men that has been heard here lately.

Guderich Signal: Mr. Hannah fully sustained the enviable reputation that preceded him. The audience that packed the church was held in a state of pleasant excitement by the excellent and varied program which he presented. Repeated encores were further evidence of the appreciation of the efforts of the elocutionist in Town Hall, Dec. 16th.

OBITUARY
ANGUS MCGILLIVRAY

On Monday morning last, the death occurred of Mr. Angus McGillivray, young and only remaining son of Mr. Neil McGillivray, Geniel Centre. Since July last the deceased has not been in good health and troubled with frequent bleedings of the nose and also a weak heart. Nothing serious was thought of it however, till the past week, and despite all that home and medical skill could do death was in the cup.

Angus was in his nineteenth year, and the youngest of a family of eleven, eight daughters and three sons. The mother died in his infancy and his two brothers have also since died. The eight daughters are: Margaret, Mrs. A. McKay, Toronto; Cassie, Mrs. D. McArthur, Geniel; Bel, Mrs. Robt. Campbell, O. Sound; Ethel, Mrs. Jno. Ferguson, O. Sound; Annie, Mrs. Dr. Wm. Ellison, Toronto; Laura, Mrs. Kenneth McKenzie, Toronto; and Misses Jennie and Ruth at home.

Deceased was a favorite with all in the section, where he was born and lived continuously, and all will regret his death in early manhood. Sincere sympathy is extended to his father and sisters.

The funeral is being held Wednesday to Durham cemetery. Rev. Mr. McEwen, his pastor, officiating.
