MULOCK

Sincere sympathy is extended to the relatives and friends of the late Mrs John Beaton who died at her home in Priceville Dec. 8. She will be greatly missed by many sympathizers. Truly the community lost a good neighbor, her children an affectionate mother, her husband a good and faithful wife, the church a consistent and exemplary member. Their loss is a heavy one. She is now an inhabitant of that city which has a need of the sun, neither of the moon to shine in it for the glory of God did lighten it and the lamb is the light thereof. She is there swelling the sweet chorus of redeeming love.

Mr Jno. McDougall, Hamilton, is spending Christmas holidays with his sister, Mrs Jno. McKechnie and other friends here.

Mr John McLean, Hilly Grove, Mainville Id, is a guest at the homes of Messrs Donald McDonald and Andrew Hasie for the Christmas holidays.

The Christmas Entertainment on Thursday evening, Dec. 18, proved a great success, a large and appreciative audience being present. Rev. W. Aird made an excellent chairman. Addresses were delivered by Rev. E. J. McEwen of Durham, Rev. J. Moore of Chesley, Messrs Wm. Cook and A. C. McDonald of Mulock. Durham Baptist choir was in attendance in chorus and solo and did a large part of the program. The solo by Mrs Moore of Chesley was much appreciated also the recitations by Mr. Pelegie and Miss McCallum. The children did their part well and were all remembered with gifts from the tree. Also 11 special prizes were given to those present every Sunday.

The success of the entertainment is due to the efforts of the Sabbath school and public school teachers. Proceeds amounted to $31.

Mr Malcolm Beaton from — and brother Mr John Beaton, Glenelg, visited their aunt, Mrs John McGillivray over the week end.

Miss Edith Willis, Durham, is spending the holiday with her friend Miss Elsie Boyce.

We must heartily congratulate Mrs Thos. E. Miller (nee Miss Jeanette L. Rygers) Holstein, whose marriage notice appeared in last week's Review. We wish Mr and Mrs Miller all kinds of happiness.

Miss Etta Twamley visited her friends, the Misses Mabel and Elzie Beaton of Priceville recently.

Mr Edgar Boyce took a load of young people including a number of Crawfordites, Durhamites and Mulockites to the Christmas entertainment held at Lamdash. All report an excellent time.

The pupils of S. S. No. 6, enjoyed a special singing program on Friday afternoon, Dec. 19. Many of the parents of the section were present and enjoyed the program furnished by the school children under the direction of the teacher, Mr C. Rudolph. Mr Will Adlam presided as chairman. Addresses were given by Rev Mr Aird, Mr A. C. McDonald, Mulock, and Mr G. Rudolph, Elmwood. A pleasing feature of the afternoon was the presentation of special prizes awarded Edith Vickers and Clifford Brant for the highest standing in Sr. and Jr. classes, also candies and nuts given to each pupil from their teacher. At the close of the program two of the pupils asked their teacher to come forward and presented him with a purse of money and the following address. Mr Rudolph although taken by surprise in a few well chosen words, thanked the pupils for their gift wishing them one and all a merry Christmas and a happy New Year, after which lunch was served.

Dec. 19, 1919. On Dec. 20, 1919, Mulock friends presented Joe Livingstone, Elmwood with a club bag and the following address: To Pte. Jno. Livingstone, —

McKECHNIE'S WEEKLY NEWS

We wish to thank our friends and customers for their kind patronage during the year now closing and wish one and all a Happy and Prosperous New Year

JOHN McKECHNIE Durham

We, your friends and well-wishers wish to express to you in some slight way some thing of our appreciation of what you and others like you have done for us for Canada and for the cause of liberty. We welcome you back to your friends and loved ones who have waited so patiently and looked so longingly for your return. We wish and pray that you may be spared to them and they to you for many a long day and that the choicest blessings of the Almighty may rest upon you and yours.

We thank God that you and others like you are coming to us to-day as victors and not as vanquished. While we give God the glory for the victory yet we believe that he uses means with which we are familiar to bring about his purposes in this world and we believe that you and the other brave lads who went overseas will gladly offer yourselves as the means to be used by him for the winning of this great victory for the cause of right.

We thank you for your part in this. You were there to lay down your life on the field of battle where so many have given their life blood for the protection of home and country. We will know what a sacrifice it meant to you and your loved ones at home not knowing what a day might bring forth but through God's mercy you have been permitted to return. We hope to see you restored soon to your usual health and strength and we will be glad when the time comes when you will be back among us permanently. In the meantime, we ask you to accept from us this club bag as a slight memento of our kindly feelings towards you for what we feel you directly did for us.

Signed on behalf of your friends, A. C. McDonald, Donald Livingstone, John McKechnie.

Pte. Livingstone replied thanking his Mulock friends for the club bag presented him. He also thanked the Red Cross Workers for the many kindnesses shown him while overseas and assured them their timely gifts had given him much happiness in what were many times trying circumstances and said he would value this gift as a reminder of the kindness of Mulock friends.

Mr and Mrs Harry McDougall, Durham, are holidaying this week at the home of Mr and Mrs A. McDonald.

Mr Dave Hastie, Sullivan, and Mr Dave Hasie from the West, visited Mr and Mrs Andrew Hastie this week. Miss Annie Hastie, who is home from Business College, Owen Sound, and Miss Dier, teacher at Louise, also visited Mr and Mrs A. Hastie this week.

Mr Wesley and Miss Irene Dunn of Toronto, are spending their holidays at their home here.

Dec. 19, 1919. On Dec. 20, 1919, Mulock friends presented Joe Livingstone, Elmwood with a club bag and the following address: To Pte. Jno. Livingstone, —

Messrs Donald and Alister Mills and sister Miss Maria, is spending the holiday week with Mr and Mrs Wm. Smith.

Miss Ivy Dargavel of Toronto spent Xmas at her home here, returning Friday morning.

Mrs Buchanan of Elderslie, is visiting her daughter, Mrs Wm. Smith.

Mr Geo. Jones and sister, Mrs Karn of Michigan, spent Wednesday with Mr and Mrs Lueck.

Mr and Mrs J. O. Dargavel and son Robert of Rock Mills, Mrs A. McIntosh and family, Mr Jas. Lowe and family, all spent Xmas day at Dargavel's.

Mr Al. McGillivray is home from the West to spend the winter months.

Mr Jas. Mills of Sask., is visiting his brother Mr John Mills.

Mr and Mrs J. Crutchley spent Christmas day with Mr and Mrs John Mills.

The Women's Institute meets at the home of Miss Margaret McIntosh Wednesday, Jan. 14. All ladies are cordially invited to attend.

Mr Angus and Miss Margaret McIntosh spent Xmas day at Greenwood's.

Miss Oldford, teacher at the brick school, is spending her holidays with her sister in Wingham.

After an hour or so of social chat, Mr Jas Mather was asked to take the chair, when he requested the returned veterans to come forward, which of course they did. The address was read by Miss Edie Milligan, the presentation being made by a cousin of each of the boys respectively: Miss Bella Grierson to Nathan Grierson; Miss Ethel Derby to John M. Derby; Miss Margaret McDonald to Fred Corbett.

Dear Friends,— We, your friends and neighbors, have gathered here this evening in a social way for the purpose of showing in some small measure our appreciation and esteem for the noble stand you have taken for King and Country.

To night we know that God in His great mercy has answered the many petitions uttered in your behalf while on the terrible battle fields of France. We trust your experiences during those years of strife and war, may have a sobering and beneficial effect upon our lives for the years to come.

Our hearts should ring for joy and do—for your presence with us again this Christmas-tide, in the strength of young manhood whilst many homes less fortunate are mourning loved ones, never to return.

We cannot attempt to repay you in this world for the courage and sacrifice displayed in our defence, but as a small token of our appreciation of your noble and gallant act, we ask you to accept these Christmas gifts.

We welcome you back with pride and gratitude, knowing that the tradition which you have so nobly established will be worthily maintained. Now that you have returned to the civilian life, may we have the privilege of wishing you every possible happiness and success that you will long be spared to look back upon the part which you took in winning the greatest victory of all history.

Signed on behalf of the South Line, Benlcock, Alex. Grierson, H. Johnston, H. McDonald, W. J. Derby.

All rose and sang one verse and chorus of "Home Sweet Home." Mr Andrew Derby then in a few well chosen words answered for the boys, expressing their thanks for the gifts and the kindly thought which prompted them. When the Christmas boxes were opened they were found to contain a twenty dollar gold piece each.

After an impromptu program rendered by a few of those present, taken part in from the youngest to the oldest, consisting of song and story, recitations and music, the evening passed all too quickly, the "warrens" hours drawing near a toothsome lunch and cup of tea was dispensed and enjoyed by all, inducing much more social chat and kindly feeling. The goods things disposed of, and Long Syne was sung with great glee and the guests departed each wishing the other all the compliments of the season.

Humanity has lacked a practical rheumatic remedy since time began. Fortunes are spent yearly at hot springs, electric baths and hospitals to obtain relief, yet better results are achieved right at home by using T.R.C.'s "the common sense treatment". Just compare cost and results of T.R.C.'s with any other treatment and you will be convinced. Ask your druggist or write us for our new booklet; it is interesting and costs you nothing (Templeton, 174 King W. Toronto). We mail T.R.C.'s anywhere on receipt of $1.50.
