The Passing of the Old Year and the entering of the New Year

By J. McDonald

To the aged pioneer the passing of the year reminds him how swiftly time is passing by. He remembers in the days of his youth that the many years that intervened between his boyhood days and the passing of 1919 was far far away and he wondered if ever he would be permitted to see that far away year but now after passing through 50, 60 or 70 years, they are only to him as a tale that has been told.

We heard a good old resident of Durham who came there when all goods and provisions had to be brought from Fergus, tell that often he would be glad to get his appetite appeased by a good feed of boiled turnips.

Many sad reminders are in many a home on this New Year morn. The mothers and fathers, sons and daughters in many cases were called away during the past year and the Xmas and New Year festivity were only to them sadness instead of joyfulness as in times past.

But now we must give a few of the present events. The homes of many are gladdened to have sons and daughters with them on this New Year morn.

Mr and Mrs Gray of the West are spending their holidays at Mrs Gray's home at Donald McMillan's S. Line.

Donald McLean is at the old home at his brother Colin's, S. L. Joe L. McKinnon of Saskatoon is home for a few days. Arch J. McDonald is spending his holidays with friends in Toronto and elsewhere this week.

Wishing the Editors and many readers of the Review a prosperous New Year.

Hymeneal RITCHIE - POGUE

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place on Saturday, December 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pogue, when their daughter Elizabeth, was united in marriage to Herbert Davis Ritchie of Bagot, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. R. O. Scarlett of the Methodist Church, Portage La Prairie.

Promptly at three o'clock, the bride entered the drawing room leaning on the arm of her father, while Miss Hattie Pogue, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march. The bride wore a costume of batteleship grey crepe de chene and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Following the wedding ceremony, a sumptuous dinner was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie left on the 6:10 train amid the showers of rice and confetti for Toronto. Durham and other Eng tern points where they will spend the winter. The bride travelled in a navy suit, the coat opening over a blouse of pearl grey crepe de chene with hat of grey beaver with crown of rose.

They were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents showing the high esteem in which the young couple were held.

GLENELG COUNCIL

A Paper in the forefront of Progressive Movements.

THE STAR is sometimes described as a Radical. Without admitting all that the term sometimes involves, The Star regards the description as a compliment rather than a criticism—for what it really means is that is in the forefront of progressive movements.

Take the Farmers' Movement. Its city friends used good-naturedly to chaff the Star when, on occasion, it suffered defeat fighting the Farmers' cause. Now, when the Farmers' movement has many friends, The Star does not so often hear that it is an extremist on this issue.

So with Labor. Chidings directed at the Star for its sympathy with Labor, are an old story. But now the point of view is changing. Conciliation, consideration for the claims of Labor, are the phrases on every lip. The Star no longer hears so much of being a Radical.

Far from the Star's attitude being revolutionary, it is the attitude that, on the Labor question, is now being universally adopted.

This attitude of sympathy and understanding toward the great movements of the day, permeates the whole paper.

The Star is not a supporter of Socialism — but it is Progressive.

After reading The Star for a short time, you will admit that it is rightly called

CANADA'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

The Star is supreme in Sports—with a group of Sporting writers such as no other Canadian paper has gathered together. It is also distinctive among Canadian newspapers in the number and quality of the humorous features it prints.
