Calder Wins the Reeveship

The elections on Monday were without excitement of any kind and resulted in the return of Mr Calder by 116 majority. Mr Murdock made a courageous fight, and had the issues involved been town only, the vote would have been closer It was surely felt by many that the county end of the reeve's duties at this juncture required experience such as Mr Calder has, hence the decisive vote

Mr Murdock in 1919 proved a worthy working councillor, and there will be a desire in town not to lose his services for 1920. It would be gratifying to many if he would consent to accept one of the three vacant positions still on the council. Such an acceptance would without doubt. be remembered to his credit in the future,
