Ferguson—Stapleford Nupt's

In Toronto, Dec. 22nd, W. Stanley Ferguson, B. A. of High School of Commerce and Miss Ethel Stapleford of Gerrard St. "Stan" as a school boy went from Priceville to Owen Sound Collegiate and afterwards well known in Kimberley, Heathcote, Waiters Falls and later in Huron St. School, Toronto. He and five of his college chums enlisted in the C. E. for the Sherbrooke, the Canadians and were assisted by some U. S. troops to cross the city and part of Via 1st street, well as a good many miles of the S. railway from destruction by Boer attacks. He returned last summer and was given his former position in the High School of Commerce. Miss Stapleford has held a good position as teacher in Huron St. School for several years and now they will live in the new house they have bought on Beresford street near High Park Toronto.—Priceville Standard.

Friday and Saturday's storms filled the roads badly in some places.

A Miss Floyd of Chesley is the teacher for Top Cliff school for 1920.

The watch on New Year's eve to see the old year out and the New Year in, in the Presbyterian Ch. was well attended and had a good time ringing the old year out.

If not too late the Sunday School entertainment held in the Presbyterian church two weeks ago was quite a success as usual. The ladies part was well attended to and all concerned acted their part well. Special mention should be made of the faithfulness of Ex Reeve Thos Nichol and A. B. McDonald for their good attendance as leaders of the school. Pastor Jones made a good chairman. Proceeds $104.

We thank Dr. McNeal of Chicago for a Xmas reminder. He gave us some Gaelic of which he is not too proud to deny the language of his ancestors.

The annual meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church, Priceville, on Thursday, 15th Jan. at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. All interested should attend.

Mr. Arch. McMillan of the West is spending a part of the winter at the old home, South Line, Artemesia.

Mrs Marshall of Toronto is spending her holidays with relatives here at present.

Mrs Hugh McLean and family spent the New Year at her father's Mr. Arch McCreed of Bentinck.

Neil Shortreed of the Standard Bank, Williamsford, spent sometime at home at New Year's.

Miss Alice McDougall of Toronto, spent the holidays with friends in this part.

We clip the following obituary of one who has many relatives in the County of Grey, namely Mr Donald S. Black, referred to in the following account of his death;

D. S. BLACK DROPS DEAD ON STREET

The community was shocked on Monday afternoon to hear of the sudden death of D. S. Black, one of the district's old timers and a prominent figure in the life of the community.

Mr Black was in town on business in connection with the unloading of a car of apples by the Grain Growers' Association and was walking from the post office to the hardware store when he collapsed just in front of the latter place. Several people immediately came to his assistance but by the time he was carried inside life was extinct.
Mr Black was in his 54th year and his death was attributed to heart failure. The funeral was held to the Oak River cemetery after a service at the deceased's late residence. Rev.
Wm Ferguson conducted the service and the Oddfellows attended in a body.

Further the Oak River Post says in another issue of that paper: "The late D. S. Black whose death and funeral were published in our last issue, was born in Bentinck Tp., Co. of Grey, a couple miles west of Dornoch, on May 26, 1865, and came to Manitoba in 1879 and to Oak River a year later. He married Miss Janet Darr on Jan. 26th, 1896.

The late Mr. Black was very active in the life of the community and held many executive offices in different local organizations. He was among other things a past grand of the local Oddfellow Lodge, a past Chief Russer of the Foresters and a past President of the Grain Growers' and the Agricultural Society. The several organizations as well as the community at large will sorely miss his generous heart and his genial personality.

Mr Black leaves to mourn him, besides his wife, a son Alex and daughter Lizzie both of whom are at home; also 3 sisters, Mrs. Chas. McArthur of Dundalk; Mrs Garvin, Prince Albert; Mrs C. P. Brereton, McConnell, Man. and two brothers, James and John of Oak River.

The late Mr. Black has a host of friends in Bentinck and Glenelg on his mothers side. The well known Smith's of Dornoch were his uncle's.
Now all gone. D. Smith, a cousin is there. Mr Black was a cousin to the well known Rev Dr Fraser Smith and Rev Jas Skene and many in Glenelg and Egremont.

Miss Rita Patterson was in Owen Sound last week attending the wedding of her friend, Miss Roadhouse.
The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. Arch Conkey in the death of his sister Mary last week, after an illness of some years resulting from rheumatism.

SWINTON PARK

Mr Wm. Froke had a very successful wood bee last week.

Mrs W. J. Knox received a telegram on Friday from St. Catharines that her grand uncle had passed away.

Mr and Mrs Angus McCannel gave a very successful party to the young people on Tuesday night. Messrs R.
Scott and R. Black supplied music also the McKeown Bros. of the Glen.

The members and their families of L. O. L. 1136, had a fowl supper in the Hall on Tuesday night. Music was supplied by the Haw Bros. A good time is reported.

The youth and beauty of our burg attended a Ball in Hopeville on Friday night and report an excellent time but the snow storm was fierce coming home, therefore delaying some until after dinner.

Miss Allie McDougall and Mr Bond of Toronto visited last week at Mr D.
Campbell's.

Miss Maggie Knox was home from Toronto for New Years. She returned to the city on Saturday.

Mr and Mrs J. Kennedy visited Sunday at Mr J. Aldcorn's.

Mr and Mrs J. Sturrock Sundayed at Mr A. Ferguson's.

Mr R. Campbell returned to Toronto on Monday to attend Normal school.

Mr H. Watson is at present laid up with an attack of neuralgia.

HOPEVILLE

Jack Frost is here in earnest. Several have felt his touch during the past ten days.

Mr J. H. Richardson and men are busy cutting and hauling logs, ties, bolts, &c to Mr A. Riddell's mill. Mr Wm Burnet and men are also busily engaged in the same woods.

Nomination passed over very quietly Monday. Reeve Hockridge being the chief speaker, explained the work of the County Road Committee during first year's experience. The old council are again to take their places. Jan.
12th inst. A number of ladies attended the meeting to hear our public masters discussed and were made welcome.

Mrs Jas. McMurdo and daughter Miss Tena were visitors last week at Mrs F. W. McLean's.

Mrs Ostrander and children spent last week with New England relatives.

Mr A. H. Burnet received a tel-phone message Sunday week telling of the sudden death of his niece at Hamilton on Saturday.

Miss R. A. and Mr Alfred Dezell spent Sunday with Durham friends.

Two men and a lady speaker are here for a month to help add to our knowledge along agricultural and domestic lines. All are invited to take advantage of these different courses each afternoon. Come once to hear them and earn the way and you surely will come again.

Mr Will Hendry, our new mail carrier, is here much earlier these days much to the praises of each of his recipients.

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank our friends and neighbors for the very many acts of kindness and sympathy shown during the long years of suffering and the last illness and funeral of our only sister and companion whom God has called away.

Supreme in Sports

YOU'VE watched a team of hockey players sweeping down the ice! Have you ever seen anything more exhilarating, anything more characteristic of the team work, resourcefulness and stamina of Canadian Youth?

More Ontario boys play hockey than any other sport. There is perhaps nowhere a sporting organization like the Ontario Hockey Association. W. A. Hewitt, Sporting Editor of The Toronto Star is secretary of this Association. He knows Hockey—that is why there is such full and authoritative hockey news in

The Toronto Star

What is true of hockey news in The Star is true of practically every other department of sport. The Sporting Editor—expert in Hockey—is equally at home in other sports—Baseball, Boxing, Football, Lacrosse, Horse Racing. He has on his staff a group of sporting writers the like of which no other Canadian paper has ever gathered together—including Major L. E.

Marsh, known to Hockey or Athletic fans everywhere; Francis Nelson, one of the most distinguished sporting writers in the country; Lieut. Bob Hayes, the Soccer expert; R. H. Reville, golf authority; Athol Gow, enthusiast on Amateur Baseball; Charlie Good, widely known sporting writer; W. M. Tackaberry, bowling expert—and many others.

Sports provide recreation and training, both physical and mental, for our un-standing youth. No one can pretend to a full knowledge of the life of the community without keeping in touch with the world of sports. That is why The Star makes its Sports Department excel.

But you do not have to be a follower of sports to realize that The Star is Canada's Greatest Newspaper

The huge circulation The Star enjoys throughout Ontario to day has been gained by giving its readers extreme value. Always in the forefront of progressive movements, The Star cares less for "party" than it does for principles and causes, and so justifies its slogan — "A Newspaper, not an Organ." A LIVE newspaper—full of news, full of ideas, well illustrated, entertaining, informing, stimulating.

A three months' subscription will convince you. Sign the coupon and mail it—take this great paper into your home on trial. The Star will come to you daily for 3 months for $1.25—for 6 months, $2.00—for a year, $3.00.
