YEIVIL

Two of our citizens were successful in yesterday's election viz. C. McInnis, J. P., elected for Reeve and Neil Calder for Councillor. Congratulations and best wishes to the Council for a good year.

Sorry to report Clinton Bunston's illness referred to last week has developed into small pox. We understand it is a mild type and hope no one else will have it.

Thanks to the Electors To the Electors of Egremont: Ladies and Gentlemen,— I thank you one and all for the support given me on election day which has placed me in the highest position in the gift of the township.

The Critic

My father says the paper that he reads ain't put up right. He finds a lot of fault, he does, perusing it at night. He says there ain't a single thing in it worth while to read.

OVER-EATING is the root of nearly all digestive evils. If your digestion is weak or out of kilter, better eat less and use KI-MOIDS

VARNEY

Mr John Smith of Proton is visiting at present with her brother, Mr J. J. Wilton. Misses Margaret and Janet Kerr left Monday morning to resume Normal training in Stratford.

Mr and Mrs Wilbert Blyth entertained a number of young folk on New Year's night. Miss Winnie and Mr Bert Barber spent New Years with friends in Proton.

Mr Jas. Leeson is home after having successfully completed a course in Stratford Business College. Mr Harry Wilkinson is busy at present moving his implements and machinery to his new farm in Egremont.

Mr and Mrs Matt Barber treated the young people of the neighborhood to a very pleasant evening recently. Congratulations to Mr Joseph Bilton and bride who were married at the latter's home here on Dec. 31st, 1919.

NORTH-EAST NORMANBY

Mr Robert Marshall, of Alberta is spending a couple of months with his many friends in this part. Mr and Mrs Wm. Carson spent a few days recently with the former's nephew, Mr Bert Carson of London.

Mr J. Snell occupied the pulpit in Knox church last Sunday. Five of twenty five of the most prominent and best known among those who joined the majority in 1919, were Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Canadian statesman; Frank Woolworth, ten cent millionaire and philanthropist; General Louis Botha, South Africa's most famous son; and Adeline Patti, world renowned singer.

Diamond Jubilee 1860--1920

Sixty long years ago this business was first established by Mr Alex. Taylor and conducted by him for thirty-five years. It was then carried on by Mrs. Taylor under the management of Mr. J. M. Findlay for one year and four months, at the end of this period being transferred to Mr. Findlay, and five years later, in the year of 1903, the present firm of Taylor & Company was established.

For seventeen years we have "carried on", trying at all times to give our customers a Square Deal and Honest Goods. This, our Diamond Jubilee year, we wish to be the best yet and only by a continuance of your kind patronage can we hope to obtain our wish. We are prepared to give you Honest Goods, Fair Prices and Good Service at all times, and all we ask of you is a fair trial.

Yours for Business, Taylor & Co. Dromore, Ont.
