TOWN TOPICS

The work of the snow plough on our streets during the storms has been excellent and Mr Wiggins and the council deserve credit.

Owing to the storm last Tuesday, Moses Donnelly's sale, at Lot 11, corner 3rd and Main, has been postponed to Wednesday, Feb. 4th, 1920. Remember the date.

The Zion Branch of the Women's Institute will hold a Leap Year Tea Social on January 27th at the home of Mr A. G. Blair. Admission 25 and 10 cents. Come and have a good time.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed in Durham Presbyterian Church on Sunday, 23rd inst. Preparatory service on Friday evening at 8 p. m., when Rev. Capt. Lane, of Hanover and Hampden will preach.

The regular meeting of L. O. L. No. 632, will be held on Jan. 30th. All members are requested to be present as there is some special business to be dealt with.

SOUTHAMPTON DIDN'T COME—The Northern League hockey game billed here for Monday evening last was cancelled as owing to railway tie ups caused by the storms, Southampton was unable to come. The game will be arranged towards the close of the season.

Edith Cavell Loyal True Blue Lodge No. 340, will hold a box social and dance in the Town Hall on Feb. 6th, commencing at 8 p. m. All are cordially invited. Admission 25c. Ladies bringing boxes free.

Union church meetings will be held (D. V.) next week in behalf of the inter-church movement in all the churches of the town. On Tuesday evening, Jan. 27, Rev. J. D. Fitzpatrick of Brantford, President of the Hamilton Conference of the Methodist church, will give an address in the Methodist church at 8 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Owing to damage which occurred to our skylight during recent severe wind-storm, we have decided to close our photograph gallery until further notice. In the meantime the gallery will be remodelled, and would advise those considering having a photograph taken to wait until the gallery is re-opened, when even better work than we have done heretofore may be expected. Kelsey Studio.

STORMS AND MORE STORMS—The man who predicted an open, mild winter is hiding behind the barn up to his neck in a snowdrift. January so far has furnished a succession of storms, that of Tuesday last, from the east, being the worst. Trains were cancelled per force, rural mail carriers had hard times or gave it up altogether for days, and the town has had a quiet time for country roads were impassable. To-day is promising and one may hope for improved conditions as the sun strengthens.

Stable and pony burned and some other stock injured was the result of a fire at Mr. Chas. Caldwell's, south west of town, on Monday night. Mrs. Caldwell was milking and a cow kicked the lantern over, the blaze resulting. Mr. Caldwell was away at the time and it was with some difficulty the other animals were saved. The loss at this time is serious. We have not learned if there is any insurance.

SERVICE—Our highly-developed service is available at all times for the benefit of our customers. Every well-grounded business man appreciates the importance of the co-operation, guidance and information on financial matters of his Banker.

101 tickets were sold at Durham G. T. R. station this Thursday p. m. for Mt. Forest to witness the Junior League hockey game between Durham and Mount Forest.

Durham won the Northern League Hockey match here Thursday from Hanover by a score of 14 to 3. The game was not so one-sided as the score indicates as Hanover worked hard but were weak in shooting ability.

South Grey Agricultural Society elects its Officers

The annual meeting of this Society was held in Durham Library on Saturday last and was one of the best attended for some years. Mr. Geo. Binnie, the veteran Secy. Treas. was again appointed to the position and Mr. D. Edge elected President. Last year under Mr. Calder's Presidency was one of the best financially ever held and with a large accession of new members and under the Presidency of such a friend of the show as Mr. Dan Edge there seems every reason to believe that the success will be continued. Following are the officers elected:

Hon. Pres.—Wm. Calder.
President—D. Edge.
1st Vice Pres.—J. W. Blyth.
2nd Vice Pres.—Geo. Ritchie.

It was decided to hold field crop competitions in Oats and Sweet Turnips.

Death of J. P. Telford

As the news got around town Tuesday morning that Mr. Telford had died on Monday evening there was felt a sense of personal loss, even though the event has not been unexpected for some time. Since a year ago he has been a sufferer from a malignant growth in his throat, necessitating appliances for relief in breathing, &c. From the early stages it was seen that a fatal termination was inevitable, but he long outlived the expectations of his medical attendants by unweary vitality and will power.

Mr. Telford was in his 65th year and was a member of a well-known and distinguished Owen Sound family. He was born near Owen Sound and got his primary education there. Early in life he showed a bent for mechanics, and he spent some years in a machine shop, where he acquired a technical knowledge and an inspiration that never left him all his life. From the cares and worries of a legal life he would find relaxation in an engine, a motor, or some mechanical device or appliance, and his advice and help was not infrequently asked along this line. But he had a legal bent also in his make-up and studied and graduated in law with distinction to himself. He took up insurance work, conveyancing, &c., and became a full-fledged lawyer, solicitor and ultimately a barrister. For many years he held the office of Police Magistrate and for many years was the embodiment of law and law practice in Durham.

The deceased was a many-sided man. Of great natural ability, his acquired attainments were not small. He had a well-stored mind, was a lover of books, and had a passion for music. Of Scottish extraction himself, he gloried, almost revealed, in Scottish literature and song, and he was one of a few in this locality who were steeped in the Scottish vernacular.

This man among men has gone. Many can testify to his genial, kindly spirit, in which there was ever a tenderness that battled with strictly legal judgment. For many years, and long as chairman, he has been on the Public School Board and rendered splendid service. Of him it can be said as of no other man, that Durham cemetery is his monument. Whatever of beauty or of fitness is found there, is very largely due to his initiative and unceasing interest in the city of the dead.

Liberal in politics, he was for a number of years President of the Riding Reform Association, and was always prominent in the councils of that party. He was a member of Durham Presbyterian Church in which for many years he was the guiding star and leader of the choir and seldom absent.

He was a keen sportsman when opportunity offered: fishing, hunting, curling, bowling, of all he was a devotee.

Mr. Telford married Miss Alice Corbett of Owen Sound, who survives him, with one daughter Mrs. W. J. Hoig, who, with her two children, has been a stay and comfort to the home, during the weary months of suffering. They will have the deepest sympathy of the whole community in their great loss. The community loss is great but not to be compared with that caused by the separation of a loving husband and father.

Mr. Telford was a Mason and under Mason auspices will be buried. Floral offerings, which are abundant, include one from the Public School Board, and one from the curlers, fashioned to resemble a curling stone. The choir and the masons also had beautiful wreaths.

The remains are being taken to the Presbyterian church for convenience of the large number who want to attend the service. His vacant chair in the choir is draped with black and purple, and his old associates have special music for the occasion.

A large congregation including many at angles, met in the Presbyterian church for the funeral service. The four Protestant clergymen of town were on the platform, all taking part. The choir was in full strength and rendered with chaste feeling Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar" and the hymns chosen were favorites of the deceased.

Rev. Mr. Whaley took his text from Rev. 9: 9, "And they sang a new song." He paid warm tribute to deceased for his unique work, for the qualities of head and heart especially that ranked him as one of the first citizens of Durham. He related his resolve, made years ago, to do something for the church and that something was his gift of song.

Two pure-bred Durham Bulls, one 12-months, roan color, the other 10-months' old, red.

Mrs. Arrowsmith, Upper Town, was so unfortunate as to slip on her back steps Friday morning last and wrench her shoulder bone out of place. Her daughter, Mrs. Pettigrew of Saginaw, Mich., arrived Wednesday to visit her for a time.

Another Election—for Council

The Nominations on Monday night resulted in placing the following six men in the field:

J. L. Smith, M. P.
Thos. Allan
Jno. N. Murdock
Wm. McDonald
John Rose
Robt. McLean.

It had been freely hoped there would be no election, but an election there is to be for five of the above qualified, Wm. McDonald dropping out, having accepted nomination only to ensure there would be three to stand. Of the others, Dr. Smith and Messrs Allan and Rose were the first to qualify. Mr. Murdock when he found the required number qualified declined the honor but later changed his mind and came before the time was up and made the declaration, Mr. McLean qualifying at the same time.

So a fight it is to be and we venture to think a fight with more snap than the last one. While any of the men would fill the bill there is a strong desire that Dr. Smith and Mr. Allan should be elected, a desire likely to be gratified. But the sovereign people must decide. Polling takes place on Monday next at the same places and same hours as before.

Juveniles Won in Palmerston

Many of our citizens were unaware that Durham could boast another hockey team, and a winning one at that, in its Juvenile bunch, who went to Palmerston last Saturday and captured by 7 to 5 the first game they ever played. The Durham lads took the first goal in 2 min. Palmerston the next 3, and Durham another in first period. Durham took all 4 scored in second period and Palmerston 2 to Durham's 1 in last. Chas. Dillane of Palmerston refereed impartially, and to our lads' credit, only two penalties were given them, while Palmerston earned a number. Their rink manager, John Bridge, showed the boys every courtesy, and while stormstayed there over Sunday were well used. Palmerston is expected here for the return game next or the following Saturday. Mr. A. W. H. Lauder accompanied the boys and acted as manager for the trip.

Author of "13th Chair" Smashes Traditions

Since Bayard Veiller began writing for the stage he has overturned a number of traditions. It takes nerve to do that, breaking precedent is a test of a man's independence, especially in matters of the theatre. "Don't fool the audience," seemed to be Rule No. 1 in the Playwright's Union, but Veiller smashed it when he wrote "The Thirteenth Chair," the melodrama that mystified New York audiences for over a year, and which has just been adapted to the screen and directed by Leonce Perret for Pathe.

So completely has Mr. Veiller covered up his tracks in "The Thirteenth Chair" that many an usher has been approached by mystified spectators who wished to pay for advance information as to who killed Spencer Lee. In every case, however, the usher preferred to keep the spectator guessing.

In adapting "Thirteenth Chair" to the films it was easy for Leonce Perret to follow the original and preserve the secret up to the final moment, but it was not so easy to do this in shaping the prologue, which was found necessary for a screen performance and which met with the hearty approval of Mr. Veiller.

"The Thirteenth Chair" has been booked for an engagement on Friday Jan. 30, 1920, at the Veteran Star Theatre. Yvonne Delva and Creighton Hale are co-starred, supported by an excellent cast including Marie Shotwell, Christine Mayo, Marc MacDermott, Walter Law, Suzanne Calbert and George Deneubourg.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. Gahan of Toronto, is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Coutts of Vickers.

Mrs. Moore McFadden, Pickering, has joined her husband at Durham where they will remain indefinitely.

Mr. Thos. Harris came up from Toronto to attend the funeral of Mr. J. P. Telford, his closest neighbor for many years here, than whom Mr. Telford had no more appreciative friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey of Tugaski, Sask., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. A. McGowan.

Mr. Wm. Gray and little daughter returned to Portage La Prairie, Man., after visiting his sister, Mrs. John McGowan.

Mr. McMurray of Simpson, Sask., came to Durham Tuesday to visit for a time with his wife's relatives, the Twamley, Boyce and Ledingham families in Bentinck.

Mrs. And. McIlvride, Cayley, Alberta, arrived Monday to spend some time with her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Mountain, south of town.

Mrs. John Marshall and little daughter Ellen left on Tuesday to spend a couple of months with relatives in Wisconsin and Northern Michigan.

Mr. Bert Caldwell of Dauphin, Man., is visiting friends and relatives in and about Durham, his early home.

Miss Susie Kelsey, teacher at Jansen, Sask., came home Monday for a two months holiday at the parental home. She returns in April to take charge of an English speaking school at Liberty, Sask.

Messrs J. C. Telford, John Clark and Fred Corbett, O. Sound and Geo. Corbett, Toronto, were relatives present at the funeral of the late J. P. Telford Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. John Sproule, Peace River District, have been the past few weeks also at the Telford home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bell, of Manitoba, near Portage La Prairie, are spending the winter in Ontario, and for some weeks were in Owen Sound where his sister resides. They are now meeting his old friends in Durham and neighborhood. Mr. Bell is a son of the late Robt. Bell, of North Egremont, and cousin to Allan Bell of Durham. We were pleased to meet with him and recall the days when as a little codger he walked over two miles to our school.

A wedding of interest to the bride's many friends in Durham and vicinity took place in Saskatoon, Sask., on Wednesday, 14th January, when Miss Mary Backus, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Backus of Durham was united in marriage to Mr. Stewart Jackson of Girvin, Sask. The bride has been teaching at Cabri, Sask. for the past year and the groom is a brother of Mrs. John Backus of that town. Best wishes are extended to the young couple.

Mr. Wm. McNally of Lumsden, Sask., and his wife are visiting among relatives and friends in South Grey for part of the winter. Pleased to have a chat with this Westerner who has made good in his adopted province. Like most western farmers he deprecates the injustices they are laboring under as to wheat marketing conditions, the Board of Commerce having proved of no use to better them. It sure is aggravating to find American farmers getting nearly a dollar a bushel more for their wheat than their Canadian brother.

The Northern Business College Trained Him For a Good Position

98 Gould Street, Toronto, Ont.
3rd November, 1919.

Mr. G. D. Fleming,
Northern Business College,
Owen Sound, Ont.

Dear Sir:

Having been advised that your Winter Announcement was in course of preparation, I take this opportunity of expressing my appreciation of the Course of Instruction I received at the N.B.C.

The Course itself is the last word in efficiency and completeness, covering every point of method and procedure that is met with in a modern business office while the Practical Department is such that one is never afraid of being asked to operate a "strange" machine.

The method of instruction leaves nothing to be desired while the personal help from teachers who think nothing too much trouble if it benefits the student, all go to make up a school which is "the best" in commercial education.

On leaving your school, I was accepted in my present position with the Superintendent of Transportation on the Grand Trunk Railway, Toronto, as "experienced" and at the end of six weeks received my first raise in salary.

With best wishes for the continued success of the old N. B. C., I remain,

Very truly yours,
Ernie Mark Thompson
