Two Town Barns Burned—The Fire Brigade had a run about 11 a.m. Thursday when Wm. Styles and Hugh McLean's barns at the south end of the town were completely destroyed. The fire originated in Styles' barn which was roofless since last fall's windstorm and is supposed to have been caused by some sweet clover in it becoming overheated after being wet.

Toronto World makes Assignment

The startling announcement was made Wednesday that the Toronto World Daily and Sunday editions had made an assignment for the benefit of its creditors. Both papers will be continued until some re-arrangements are made.

Make Durham the County Town

The likelihood of Owen Sound becoming incorporated as a city before long has raised the question of where the new County town of Grey is to be. We propose Durham. It is the centre of a very important section of the County, has two lines of railway, and is the largest town in the county having any claims to centrality.
