Dated this 31st day of March, A. D. 1920. A. B. Curry, Executor John C. Telford, by their Solicitor, A. B. Curry

CRAWFORD

HASTIE-SHARMAN The home of Mr and Mrs. John Sharmman, Elmwood, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, March 31st, 1920 when their oldest daughter, Alice May, was united in marriage to Robert Walter Hastie, son of Mr and Mrs. Thos. Hastie of Louise.

Promptly at 2.30 p.m. the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father and took her place under an arch of evergreens. Rev. Mr. Jackson of Hanover officiated. The bride looked charming in a gown of white silk crepe de chene trimmed with silk and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair ferns. They were unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch set with an amethyst.

The guests who numbered fifty, consisted of immediate relatives of the contracting parties, assembled in the dining room where a sumptuous repast was served. Many beautiful wedding gifts testify to the esteem the young couple are held by their numerous friends. The bride's going away costume is a navy blue suit with hat to match. Mr and Mrs. Hastie will leave Thursday for Dinmore, Sask. where the groom has a farm. We extend to them our heartiest congratulations for a long and happy life.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Reay Honored

Friday night last Mr and Mrs. Harry Reay were surprised in their new home (on the Burgess farm 1 1/2 miles north of Durham) by an influx of old and new neighbors coming with set purpose to give them a welcome and a house warming. About 50 were present and all in the mood to have and did have a pleasant social evening with the young couple.

At an appropriate time Mr. W. S. Brown was chosen chairman and ran off an impromptu program, the chief item of which was the presentation of a purse of money made by Mr. Geo. A. Turnbull and an address read by Miss Rita Bailey, which follows:

Dear Friends: We, your old friends and neighbors, have assembled here this evening for the purpose of meeting with you and your new neighbors. During the time you have been in our community we have known you kind neighbors, you have always been kind and sympathetic in times of trouble but also ready to rejoice with us in times of mirth and pleasure.

We feel therefore that we cannot let you leave us without some memento of kind feelings toward you. As a slight token then of the esteem in which you are held, we ask you to accept this purse of money. Be assured that the very best wishes of our friends and neighbors will be with you in your new home. Signed on behalf of friends and neighbors.

Mr. Reay, on behalf of himself and wife made a suitable reply and a pleasant social time followed.

Mr. Thos. Bailey who has been in Port Arthur for the last year has returned home. Miss Mabel Dowling is spending her Easter vacation at her home. Mr. Earl Fisher of Kitchener is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fisher.

Mr. Louis Kaufman had a "sawing bee" on Thursday. Mr. Steinboro has moved on to his farm which he purchased from Mr. Dan Brodighagen. Mr. Brodighagen is moving to Chesley. Mr and Mrs. Hugh McDonald spent Sunday at the latter's home here.
