

Mischievous Lambs.

The goat is well known to be a creature of diabolic ingenuity in mischief and no respecter of dignity.

Mr. W. H. Hudson, in his Book of a Naturalist, reveals the darker side of sheep nature.

"She knew very well that it was wrong, and that if detected she would have to suffer, but she was exceedingly cunning, and from a good distance would keep an eye on the house."

Shocking! And there is some testimony to the fact that lambs are not always lamblike in amiability of disposition.

Red-Tape Humor.

One of the most curious and amusing instances of the fussiness of red tape came from an English officer who was sent on a special mission to Liverpool.

A certain poorhouse in the south of England had been turned into a military hospital.

"You are authorized to remove sweep at all costs."

Eats Many Bugs.

A cliff swallow will eat a thousand flies, mosquitoes, wheat midges or beetles that injure fruit trees in a day, and, therefore, is to be encouraged.

A SPRING TONIC AIDS EFFICIENCY

Lay Foundation of Good Health Now by Building Your Blood and Strengthening Your Nerves.

The good old fashion of taking a tonic in the springtime, like most of the customs of our grandparents, is based upon sound common sense, and good medical practice.

It is impossible to be energetic if your blood is thin and weak, or if your nerves are frayed or shattered.

Mrs. J. N. McNeil, Glace Bay, N.S., says: "For years past my home has never been without Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I have good reason to praise them highly."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic, not a stimulant. They build up the blood, and through their use not only the disastrous after effects of influenza but also troubles due to poor blood, such as anaemia, rheumatism, indigestion and the generally worn-out feeling that affects so many people, disappear.

Lip-Reading.

Lips to a certain extent, portray one's passions, and are usually indicative of character.

Idleness, love of ease, sensuality, and indolence are said to be represented by thick lips.

"Cherub's" lips, those well defined and developed, with a rounded outline, are supposed to show tenderheartedness, affection, and a sympathetic disposition.

Generosity is generally denoted in the lower lip, and according to its fullness and freshness in appearance, and its width, so is the extent of benevolence and liberality said to be represented.

Self-opinionated individuals are said to possess a long, firm upper lip, and they absolutely disregard other people's ideas.

A love of being praised or admired by others is seen in a short upper lip, and the middle teeth of the top row invariably show.

Miserly and niggardly persons are said to possess a pale, shrivelled lower lip.

Correcting Sights of Rifles.

The number of improperly sighted rifles throughout the country is surprisingly large. It matters not how accurate a rifle may be, it is worthless if it is not properly sighted—i.e. it shoots too far to right or left, too low or too high.

Correcting false sighting in rifles is not a difficult task, provided the breech block is removable and a clear vision can be had through the bore of the rifle barrel.

The rifle barrel should be detached, breech block removed, and a tight fitting wooden trough made to hold the rifle barrel. The trough should be made of three pieces of one-inch board. The bottom piece should be as wide as the thickness of the barrel and the two sides should be nailed on just high enough to clamp the barrel.

Take the wooden trough to a post with a flat top, and secure it to the top of the post by driving a nail through the bottom of the trough, and into the top of post.

Worse and Worse.

Mrs. Blank had just received a new dress and was trying it on. The laundress happening to arrive just then, Mrs. Blank asked her what she thought of it.

"It's elegant," said the laundress, and added as a tribute to her general appearance, "An' sure, ma'am, ye look a lady, whatever ye are."

Mrs. Blank's face told her that she had made a mistake, so she corrected herself hurriedly: "I mane, ma'am, it's a lady ye are, whatever ye look."

$45,000,000 THEFTS FROM CARS SHOWN

Booty Double That in Any Pre-War Year.

Wholesale looting of merchandise in transit on the railroads of the United States caused a loss of approximately $45,000,000 in 1919, according to United States Railroad Administration statistics made public recently.

This is estimated to be more than double the losses sustained in any pre-war year, but it is pointed out that the increased cost of the commodities stolen, roughly estimated to average 85 per cent, must be taken into consideration when comparing the losses in the days of low prices with losses now.

BITS OF HUMOR FROM HERE & THERE

Aspiration. An Irish mother who had occasion to reprove her eldest son exclaimed, "I just wish that your father was at home some evening to see how you behave yourself when he is out!"

Very Crude. "Boy," said a spectator, looking out to sea, "what kind of a ship is that out there?" "A cruiser," was the answer. "And who are on board?" "Her crew, sir."

"And by what means does she travel?" asked the interested man. "Oh, its screw, sir!" came the smart reply. "You are a very smart lad, and where do you come from?" "Crewe, sir!" And he asked no more questions.
