Stomach Disorders

There are no remedies or medicines so effective for the treatment of the various Stomach Disorders as Hacking's Heart and Nerve Remedy and Hacking's Kidney and Liver Pills. This we know, from the experience we have had from these preparations, and from the knowledge we have of the action and medicinal effect of the different drugs and herbs that go into the composition of these two wonderful remedies.

The Appetite may be either exaggerated, perverted, diminished or entirely lost, these preparations will restore it. The condition may be either Acute or Chronic or the nerves supplying the Stomach may be defective or there may be Gas on the Stomach due to Fermentation or Decomposition of Food; no matter what the trouble may be this treatment will tone up the organs of the entire system and bring back the glorious good health that you so much desire.

Pain after Eating, Vomiting, Gradual Loss of Flesh and Strength, Dyspepsia and Anæmia are some of the Symptoms of Stomach Disorders that only disappear when you use Hacking's. In order to effect a cure, however, patience is as essential as the right remedy and anyone who has been ill for any length of time should not expect to be cured in a few days. Buy 6 boxes of Hacking's Heart and Nerve Remedy and 3 of Hacking's Kidney and Liver Pills and give them a good trial. Be sure to get Hacking's.

SOUTH BEND

A Dream by the Saugen A young Indian launched his birch canoe. On the silver Saugen's breast: And swiftly rowed toward the setting sun Bound for the far northwest.

Many moons ago he sadly mused, My tribe filled this fair land: From Ottawa to broad Huron's side, Now almost alone I stand

And the river is whispering to me That the pale faces draw near: And my race shall vanish like the mist, When the morning sun shines clear.

Then a sad farewell to my native woods, By the silver Saugen's side: And farewell to the grave of the dark-eyed maid

Who had promised to be my bride. The deer bounded from the river's bank He heard the bear's fierce growl: And in the depth of the darkling woods The hoot of the gloomy owl.

Still onward beneath the silent stars And the whispering forest trees: 'Till he heard the dash of Huron's waves, Borne by the western breeze.

Then northward he sped to the Manitou, Those islands of beauty rare: And over Superior's sparkling waves, Amid scenes that are grand and fair.

Many moons had waned, an old man stood, On a boundless western plain: I'll return to my boyhood's home he thought,

By the Saugen fair again. He came and gazed on the wondrous change

That the whiteman's hand had wrought: Can this be where the wolf had his den, And the red man hunted and fought?

The fields art covered with golden grain, Fair homes nestle 'mid orchard trees, And the sounds of a busy thriving town, Float past on the morning breeze.

The change indeed is wonderful, And the old man bowed his head: May they all be blessed, I shall now return

To my home in the West, he said.

Through the influence of Col. McFarlane of the old 147th Grey Batt. and Mr R. J. Ball, M. P. for South-East Grey, Dundalk received last week from the Director of War Trophies at Ottawa a splendid souvenir of the great war in the form of a captured German field gun. It should be stated that shortly after armistice was signed a committee of citizens was appointed to make application for a suitable war trophy for the village and correspondence with this end in view was begun. The trophy occupies a position on the boulevard at the town corner and it will probably have a prominent place in the Soldier's Memorial Park at the formal opening on Dundalk day, Thursday, June 24th, with Premier Drury and other leading men will be here.—Dundalk Herald.
