The Durham Review

Warren G. Harding.

This is a name that may become famous. He comes from Ohio, and was chosen at the big Republican Convention in Chicago last week as the Presidential nominee of that party for the big election next November.

Three names, Wood, Lowden and Johnston had been prominent candidates before the Convention and led in the balloting on many occasions but never one of them secured a majority. In the tenth ballot Harding proved the "dark horse" for defections from the three leaders went to Harding and soon a slant placed him ahead with a big majority. He is a printer, said to be a good man, and anyway no like Johnston, who is a pronounced hater of everything British.

The Democrats hold their Convention next week. A great stake to play for is the Presidency of a hundred million of people.

Why the Farmer is Sick.

(Will the following from an American paper apply to Canada? The secret of "lesser" production is found in this comparison.)

The American farmer is sick and tired of the enormous tribute which reports for only a few hours a day on the job and which does mighty little work during those hours. The American farmer is mad clean through over the fact that he puts in 12 to 14 hours when organized skilled labor the country over puts in from 40 to 50 per cent less time and about 80 per cent fewer ticks. He has made up his mind that he will not work himself to a standstill to feed and clothe millions of wage earners who spend a good portion of their time striking for higher pay and then when they get it, will not earn it.

Representative Wanted. Canada Petroleum and Refining Co. Ltd. are offering a limited amount of stock, strong Directorate, good locations, splendid prospects, liberal commissions. What about your territory? For particulars address H. M. L. Land, 81 Victoria St., Toronto.

The possibilities of five dollar wheat some time, is making as many pessimists as optimists, depending on whether one is a consumer or a grower. Remember when dollar wheat made every farmer glad that he forgot to be sad at having to work about sixteen hours a day? But three or five dollar wheat is bound to make farming popular.

WELBECK.

Enter the wild strawberry, exit the mosquito—alas, not yet! Mr. Alex Campbell Jr has purchased a car and with Mr. Roy Campbell as chauffeur, is doing a flourishing jitney business in Durham.

Mr. Hugh R. Riddell has purchased a new Chevrolet car. Welbeck isn't so very far away back after all.

Miss Ruby Campbell has been visiting friends at Dornoch and was the guest of Miss Gladys Corlett for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ledingham spent the week end in Hamilton.

In view of the sorely vexed farm help problem, Mr. J. Lahn is to be congratulated on the arrival of a young man to assist him with the haying. The young man is poor in his English and expects to be provided with clothing as well as board, demands considerable attention, has no teeth and little hair but has staunch lungs and altogether Mr. Lahn seems well pleased with him.

ABERDEEN

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Armour of Saskatoon are visiting with the latter's sister, Mrs. Wm. Honess.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hastie of Louise, spent Tuesday evening with Crawford friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson of Mt. Forest, visited over Sunday with Mrs. Ferguson's uncle, Mr. Ed. Boyce.

Misses Celia and Bertha Honess spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sharman of Lamlash.

Miss Dowling spent Sunday with friends in Arthur.

Mrs. Wm. Honess spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. H. McDonald of Aberdeen.

THIEF WAS FOILED.—A Hanoverian, who came over to the recent Hospital dance at Walkerton Town Hall in a handsome new Ford Sedan, came so near losing his bus by the thief route that he is still wondering how he came to "spill the beans" for the crook. Becoming overheated in the whirl he went out to get a whiff of the fresh air for which Walkerton is noted when he overheard what listened like his car starting up. Rushing towards the buzzing notes, he saw the ship lit up and ready to steam out of harbor. Letting a roar out of him that would make the sea-lions in the Riverdale zoo green with envy, he sprang towards the roadship. The thief guessed what was up, and beat it out the glass door just as the owner was at his heels. A marathon run up the street by the light of a friendly moon was the next scene in the performance, but the light-fingered one was also light-footed, and left his pursuer so far in the distance that it could hardly be termed an exciting chase. Going back to his roomed driver, the Hanoverian discovered that the thief had made off with his auto key, and hence the proprietor would have been stalled far from home had he not at a previous time taken the precaution to supply himself with a duplicate key, which saved the situation on this occasion. The stranger reported the happening to Chief Ferguson, who laid low and watched for somebody's darling to return. But the scoundrel had apparently suffered a sufficient from nervous shock to care risking being sighted again, and hence he the trail for home and mother while the going was good.—Herald-Times

French Name Supplants English

Surrendering to desire of French agitators, another change in the name of a village in the Ottawa valley has been made. Burbidge was a station on the Maniwaki Division of the C. P. R. Now it is Messine, by the action of Senator Blondin, Postmaster-General, with the concurrence of the Cabinet.

This place got its name from Judge Burbidge, the first Judge of the Exchequer Court of Canada. He was a notable figure in his day, and his name has a place in the history of Canada. Can you think that these historic names would not be east aside without some better reason than that assigned. In answer to a question of Mr. R. J. Ball, of S. Grey, it was explained in the House that the majority of the people had petitioned for it. The fact is that that this place is to a considerable degree a summer resort. Much of the property is owned and occupied during the summer season by English-speaking citizens of Ottawa. Their wishes have no weight
