We were patting ourselves on the back last week for the way we were musing the storms and well we may but on Saturday a storm broke over and while there was not very much wind, the rain was exceptionally heavy as a consequence some fields of standing grain was broken down considerably. Otherwise we hear of nothing destructive.

The families namely, Rev. Lovegrove, A. J. Buller, Jas. Brooks of Holstein and the Duffas family, New York, N. Y., who spent nearly three weeks near North Bay camping, returned Saturday morning, all looking as if living out doors agreed with them. Some of the party must be weather profs for while the weather was dry during the whole time, they just got home in time to be housed before Saturday's storm.

The Holstein foot ball team journeyed to the Orange Picnic Swinton Park and defeated their eleven 1-0 on their own grounds, this being their first defeat this year. Clarence Calder scored on a nice pass from R. Dickson after our forwards had completely beaten the S. P. defence giving the goal keeper a slim chance. Our boys scored again the second half but the goal was disallowed on account of a foul made in front of their goal. Score Holstein 1, Swinton Park 0. Gibson showed fine form on the defence while the forwards showed speed and fine combination. Lou Kennel, W. Knib and W. I. McLeod were stars of the S. P. boys.

YEOVIL

We quote from Saturday's Globe: Sometimes, when the sun is hottest, in the sultry days of August, With the grasses growing golden And the mosses grey and golden, Seems the summer slowly dying, While the whispering poplar's sighing.

Summer's dying, dying, dying, And the wind is hot and sighing: Like a shadow she will wander 'Till we hear from over yonder One faint bird song in the gloaming, To recall us to her roaming.

Yes, our summer which has seemed so brief will soon be added to the annals of the past. As we look at the fields we see the bountiful harvest standing in stooks and the sound of the binder is heard on the land.

Best wishes to Rob. Keith and his bride.

When Mrs. W. Coleridge and family of Owen Sound, visited friends here on Civic Holiday, her mother, Mrs J. Reid returned with them for a little visit. Last Wednesday she came back accompanied by the Rev. Dr. U. graduated this summer and is practising in Allenford. Helen Urquhart who has been spending her holidays here, also went home taking Alma Bunston with her.

They had a fine trip and an enjoyable holiday, camping on the lake shore on one of the Three Sister Islands, canoeing, fishing, etc.—about 50 miles north of the last railway station.

What might have proved a fatal accident occurred at A. Henderson's last week when the team which Rutledge was driving on the mower to which the pea harvester was attached, ran away, throwing him off the mower wheel passing over his back. For a while serious results were feared, although no bones were broken, but he is almost his usual self again.
