

BANG! BANG!

Down With the High Cost of Living

HARD LUCK versus GOOD LUCK

It was certainly Hard Luck when H. Allingham had to sacrifice his whole stock of General Merchandise at a low rate on the dollar, but there was no alternative as the Store and Premises was sold over their heads and had to be vacated. The consequence was that A. Ball, the Bargain Wizard of Ontario, took the opportunity and bought the whole stock of High-class Merchandise at a low rate on the Dollar. It will certainly be Good Luck to the Thousands of Customers and Patrons of this Store and the whole surrounding community that will be able to participate in this immense money-saving and profit-sharing event that is not likely to occur again for years. Sale will open Friday morning August 27th at 9 o'clock, continuing 15 days

Now it's up to you good people to be at the door Friday morning August 27th, when the Clock Strikes Nine

Let nothing keep you away. Be here when the doors open—Be here every day. While our stock is large, some lines are sure to be exhausted early and the first buyers will get these particular plums. Come miles to the sale, it will pay you. Make no mistake—Remember the place and date, meet your friends here. There will be regular Circus Day Crowds at this Store.

In referring to our sale we also wish to make the announcement that our mode of doing business will be strictly cash and one price, which is the most modern and up-to-date way of doing business. We know from past experience that the cash buyer does not want to pay for the losses that occur from bad debts by the credit system, and, as we will have none of these and no expensive credit system and office expense, we can sell at lower prices, which you will appreciate.

We cordially invite you to come in and look around whether you buy or otherwise.
