The U. F. O. in South Grey

In writing to the Farmers' Sun, Mr. M. E. Murray, Riding Secy. says: On Wednesday, Aug. 11th, the Ayrton U. F. O. Club held a very successful and enthusiastic meeting. The appointment of A. C. Grabill to the chair seemed to be the impetus required as everything went off with a bang from the start. When A. C. goes after anything, he goes after it hard, consequently the Meighen Government got a few raps as did also all inactive officers who accept office in the U. F. O. Clubs and then go to sleep on the job. He used to be a soldier and knew from experience that if the officers were lax in their vigilance the enemy would catch them napping. Therefore it behooved the farmers and laborers who constitute the rank and file of the U. F. O.—Labor coalition party to wake up and if there should be any dead-wood amongst their branches, "cut it out."

an executive committee consisting of a U. F. O. Director for each municipality, and also a Director to represent the Labor Unions in Hanover, were appointed, Mr. Joseph Goodfellow, Durhain, was chosen Riding President; Mr. Jno Whiteford, Hanover, Vice Pres; M. E. Murray, Neustadt, Secy Treas. The executive board was authorized and empowered by the meeting to be on the "qui-vive" politically and at a later date a nominating convention will be called to choose a candidate for the coming Federal fray. Should there be any other Labor organizations in the Riding other than those referred to in Hanover, we suggest that the Secretary of same send in his name and address to the "Riding Secretary" so that arrangements may be made for these to receive due representation at nominating convention.

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

Death of Robert S. Carson

Priceville and vicinity was cast into a gloom on Friday evening by the hand of Death, it claiming one of our bright and hopeful young men in the person of Robert Samuel Carson, second son of Mr and Mrs Alex Carson, at the young age of 17 years and 8 mos.

The deceased had been taken suddenly ill with appendicitis the week previous and all that medical aid and skill could do had been done promptly but death came and this young life passed on to "The Home of Many Mansions."

While we will not attempt to eulogize the qualities of the young life, we only voice the sentiments of all who were acquainted with him and those who were with him and visited him during his illness. He was always kind and cheerful and his thoughts were always of others. He played the part of a man to the end and bore his pain and suffering with more fortitude and patience than might be expected of one so young.

He was a regular attendant at Sabbath School and Bible Class and viewed the future with cheerfulness. The funeral which was largely attended, took place from his home on Sunday, Aug. 29, and the service was very impressive. Rev. Mr. Jones took occasion to appeal fervently to old and young to prepare for the future life to which this life has no comparison in endurance or happiness. The remains were laid to rest in Priceville cemetery.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his parents, five sisters and four brothers. The sad features are that the loving mother was not able to attend funeral services owing to ill health, and that his brother, Jas. P. of Prince Albert could not arrive in time.

Many beautiful floral tributes spoke volumes of sympathy on coffin. A pillow from the family, wreaths from the Sunday school, the Waring family, the Campbell family, Nurse MacKinnon, A. and W. Hineke, Carson family of Toronto and K. McTeggart.

The pall bearers were his boy cousins Andrew and Willie Hineke, Gordon MacLean, Will MacKenzie, Wreathford MacLean and Johnnie Gilbert. To the sorrowing and grief stricken family the community extends sincere sympathy. Tho' we know the parting is only for a brief space yet the loved ones will often long for the touch of a vanished hand, and the sound of a voice that is still.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their great kindness during the illness and death of our son and brother Robbie

Mr and Mrs Alex. Carson and family

Lee-Nichols Nuptials

A very pretty and interesting event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nichols, Arnesia, on Wednesday, Aug. 11, when their second daughter Laura Caroline, became the bride of Mr Robert Russell Lee of Proton, son of Mr and Mrs Wm. Lee of Chatsworth. The ceremony was performed by Rev Mr Fowler of Fisherton in the presence of about thirty relatives of the bride and groom.

The bride who was given away by her father, looked charming in a dress of cream satin with trimmings of georgette and pearls, wearing the conventional veil and orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of roses and ferns. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Nichols, sister of the bride.

After the ceremony and usual congratulations, the bridal party entered the dining room amid showers of confetti, where a dainty wedding lunch was served, after which all proceeded to the lawn where a very enjoyable time was spent. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly gifts.

Friends from a distance who attended the wedding were Mr and Mrs Thos. McComb, Mr Wm. McComb and Miss Blanch Lee of Chatsworth. The happy young couple will reside on the groom's farm near Proton Station.

HOPEVILLE

The monthly meeting of Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs John Smith on Wednesday, 8th September. There will be a flower exhibition.

Mrs D. S. McDonald arrived home on Saturday from her western trip to Sperting, Man. While there she had the pleasure of being present at her parents' Golden Wedding.

Hector and Mrs Jack Ventry, visited his parents on Sunday, attending Hopeville services.

Mrs George Gilkes entertained Toronto friends for a few days last week. The ladies of Hopeville intend quilting a missionary quilt on Wednesday of this week, after which tea will be served.

Mr Jake Schmidt, Eugeneia, came over to spend the week-end at his home in the village.

Miss Lizzie Glenister, Toronto, is spending her annual holiday at Jan. Diagonal's. Miss Edith Glenister returned to the city on Wednesday.

HOLSTEIN LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. C. McMillan has installed a Mareka harness oiler. This should prove very beneficial as oil is much cheaper than harness.

Ideal harvest weather has given the farmers a chance to get a lot of the crop housed.

Mr and Mrs. Smeaton and children expected to leave Toronto on Saturday for their home in Medicine Hat after a visit to friends for a few weeks.

A truck from Toronto bound for some northern point, heavily laden, got stranded on Dowling's hill sometime Friday night. But when Geo. McLachlan took a few looks at it and a little more gas, the thing started off as if nothing had happened.

Mr A. Baird of the Hydro spent Sunday last with his family.

Mr and Mrs W. J. Freeman, Teeswater, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnston the first of the week.

Mrs Jas Durant, Mt Forest, visited friends in the village on Monday.

Mr C. C. Ramage, Windsor, while in the village on Monday, called on a number of friends.

Mr and Mrs Bell, Dundalk, and Mrs McLean, Meaford, visited recently at Mr C. McMillan's.

Mr Colin McKinnon was successfully operated upon for appendicitis in Guelph hospital last week.

Mrs. Grier returned home Friday
