Thanksgiving

Paper written by Mrs A. R. Hershey and read at Holstein Wom. Institute.

Thanksgiving is a returning of thanks, or of expressing gratitude for something received. In Christian nations government appoints a day each year for a special Thanksgiving to God for the blessings of the year. While all should daily acknowledge their Maker and his gifts it seems fitting that a day be set aside not just to feast and enjoy renewals of friendship, but also to have that day dedicated and set aside to worship the Giver of earth's choicest gifts: for food and raiment, Christian homes and loved ones, health and happiness, for God-given ability to use the talents and vocation for hospitals for the re-abled, for the construction of sick and wounded, for the progress of the gospel and elevated moral standard of the world, for increasing missionary spirit and the presence of God and promise of final victory.

We may well "Count our blessings two by two and it will surprise us what the Lord will do. No wonder Addison wrote the fine hymn beginning

When all thy mercies O my God
My rising soul surveys,
Transported with the view, I'm lost
In wonder, love and praise.

In the spring-time we cultivated the soil, planted the seed and asked God's blessing upon it and we have a bountiful harvest. Paul may plant and Apollos water but God giveth the increase. So it is becoming that we appoint a national day to thank and honor the Giver.

Plato, the heathen, thanked God, 1 that he was born a man, 2 a Grecian, 3rd a philosopher. We, as women have to be thankful, 1st That we were born women. Women in the home is the maker of the home. The training of the children (future of the nation) depends on the mother, and who but the mother so efficient? The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world. No nation is better or stronger than its homes.

Woman in Public Life. To-day as never before Women are recognized as being equal with men and indeed able to do many lines of work even where men have failed. This is a reason to be thankful. Missionaries of the gospel tell us the women missionaries have been able to get in touch with the heathen through channels where the men missionaries were unable to touch.

During the war we have not forgotten the important part women played and while our boys fought and won, the women at home worked and prayed. Many of the comforts we had it not been for the comforters and boxes, they could never have won the war. They think of the countless women who offered their services in the war training for Red Cross nurses and doing many lines of war work. Nor do we forget brave Edith Cavell, the war heroine, who gave her life.

Women's Societies are another thing to be a member of. Take for example our Women's Institute and W. M. S.; the W. I. has for its motto for "Home and Country." Surely this is a worthy cause. In the work of bettering our home the country is benefited. Child welfare is another one of our mottoes and also we are now particularly interested in the Children's Shelter in O. Sound. These are some of the important things we have to deal with.

The W. M. S. has for its motto, "The World for Christ." This body of women, thousands in number, of every denomination who are trying to give the gospel to the millions of heathen. It is interesting here to note that a woman was the first missionary to tell the story that Christ had risen from the dead. Also it was a woman who announced the birth of Jesus and he said wherever the gospel was preached it should be told about her. Just in passing we might mention of the two societies, W. I. and W. M. S. A thought comes to my mind of where Jesus while on earth went to the home of Mary and Martha. We remember how Martha was busy providing a meal and trying to be hospitable while Mary was sitting at the Master's feet learning from him. Martha was for home while Mary it would appear was learning from him that she might tell to others the bliss-d story. These two societies seem to be represented.

We have many reasons to be thankful for our privileges to help make the world better. Let us then try in his name to use the talents God has given us to His glory. In Genesis 3rd chap. we read that God saw it was not good for man to be alone, he needed a helpmate. He had a plan and He could see down through the ages that there were things to be done that man could not do. He had a plan for each one of us and there is some corner we must fill to carry out that plan. Let us then find our place, we may have all the works of a watch, the wheels, case, glass, etc. but they are useless unless they are in their particular place and in running order, the watch is no use.

Let us then be thankful that we are women in a Christian country and find our place where we may be of most service to our fellowman and bring the greatest glory to our Maker.

Important Announcement

The Publishers of the Review intend on Nov. 30th next to follow the majority of publishers of rural weeklies in advancing the annual subscription to $2.00. We have been loath to make the change but conditions of the paper market and other overhead expense have become so exacting that in fairness to ourselves we have to ask the increased price. One cent a week will cover the extra cost, and we believe our readers will recognize that the new price is reasonable in view of prevailing conditions. Not a few of our readers have advised us to take this course and some have even sent the $2 for one year's subscription, recognizing in the Review good value. As a concession to bridge over the change we make this offer: we will accept arrears and renewals for next year—up to Nov. 30th, 1920, at the old rate of $1.50 per year, it being understood that in no case will this reduced rate be applicable beyond 31st Dec. 1921. After 30th November the rate to all is $2 per year in advance, $2.50 if not so paid. To the United States the rate will be $2.50 in advance.
