PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE AND LIMITS

The winter is fast approaching, the dreary nights of November make us feel that December will soon follow its footprints. The barren forest has the appearance of being deprived of its summer garments. The howling of the winds is an indication that preparations are necessary for the near future days and nights. For the beautiful days and nights of October are past and gone. We go through the woods and the rustling of the leaves under reminds us of frail humanity. The subjects that bore the fallen leaves are yet standing erect, probably some of them may yield to the tempest of the winter and be blown to the ground. We see some of the tender saplings yet with their green leaves as if protected by the tall and majestic elms and maple.

Frail man, his days are as the fallen leaves. The summer time of the aged pioneer is past in many instances for he has seen spring, summer, autumn and winter in their course returning. We see in a beautiful summer morning in June the sun rises in the east and proceeds slowly till midday when it begins to go to its resting place in the west but continues its course till next morning when it goes the same direction.

So we follow up frail man from the cradle to the grave like the rising of the sun we see him as a helpless babe but we watch him and as the sun strong there so does the child for he is gaining strength till noonday when he is at the prime of life. But as the tide he only stays there a little while when he begins to go backward till the sunset of his existence has come to its destination and he is laid aside and laid in his last resting place.

We saw a big flock of snowbirds this Monday, 8th Nov, generally an indication of a storm near at hand. A few days ago we saw a big flock of blackbirds, generally a sign of bad weather of which we had enough lately. Threshing is not much more than half done in this locality. Some of the thrashers say there are over 50 barns waiting on them yet and the traction engines must be substituted hunting up an old horse power machine of the olden times and engage Bob Fisher to run it, he being an old thrasher.

Some are near done plowing while others haven't turned a furrow yet. Those having turnips say they are not so large as usual on account of not getting enough frost in October. Wood is needed to have at the approaching of winter and to some it is quite hard to get at the present time. We came through Mrs Sullivan's place (now Wm McLeod's) and the bush is all covered with fallen branches from the effects of 1st Oct. snow storm.

Miss Floyd, teacher, had a good Halloween party lately and all enjoyed the program.

Hector McEhearn and family and Miss McCormick drove to Bentinck on Saturday to see Mrs McC's father and will be returning this Monday.

We are pleased to hear Miss Mathew is getting along well after her operation. As Angus McLachlan is able to run his two furrowed riding plow being laid up since harvest with an accident to his foot. Pleased also to hear he is now a pater and we extend our good wishes to him and Mrs McLachlan over the young lady arrival some weeks ago.

Mr Donald McDonald accompanied Rev Mr Jones to the induction of Rev Mr Smith of Durham lately.

The spire of the Presbyterian Ch. is covered with Vancouver shingles this time of the best quality.

Lots of sweet slover is left in the fields yet and won't be much, at least the price is small this year and the quality not so good.

The Standard Bank young man is always regular in his attendance here and is very obliging.

As was seen in a previous copy of the Review the death of Mrs McArthur of Dandalk and as a near friend and relative we feel like adding more to the obituary given. Mrs McArthur (nee Kate Black) had a host of relatives in the townships of Glenelg, Bentinck, Ptoon and Egremont and was a cousin of the writer. Mrs McArthur was a lady in her youthful days whose personality combined with her kind disposition and manner was hard to excel in her sex. To the bereaved husband and inasmuch we reach the semi-centenary of friends in this part in sending condolences on this sad occasion.

SWAMP COLLEGE

Mr Chas Bosley and son Earnie, are busy decorating Mr Walter Broughton's house.

Miss Dell McIntyre spent the week end at her home in Dandalk.

Mr Alfred McCauley is engaged with Mr John Haw.

Some of our young people were disappointed last Tuesday night, owing to the disagreeable weather for the ball at Hopeville.

Ms Herb Corbett, Ptoon, had the misfortune to have one of his cattle shot by some one handling a gun recklessly.

Mr and Mrs Wm Moody and daughter left for Owen Sound.

Miss Marie McCannel and brother, Sundayed at Mr Nat Caswell's, Plesherton.

GLENMONT

(Arrived too late for last week)

The rain it raineth every day with a little snow at night once in a while.

The workmen are pounding away at Dixon's house as if they meant to make a spoon or spoil a barn before Xmas.

Some farrows are visible in some fields but they are few and far between. There may not be much increased production in 1921.

Some of the youth and beauty attended the party at Jas. Weir's last night ago. They must have been well entertained. Just ask them if they got home late or early or later.

The S. School Anniversary Services in Ebenezer church on Sunday and Monday evening, 1st Nov, resulted in an addition to the funds of about $35. Rev H. Berry conducted the Sunday services and gave a stirring address on Monday evening also. Mr Berry is only 78 years of age yet, and he is full of life and energy. He loves his work and to all appearance will likely die in the harness.

On Monday evening the services were much enlivened by two good addresses by Rev Mr. Burnett of Dro-more and Rev C S Jones of Priceville. Music was supplied by the local choir and Mr and Mrs Thos Daily, Miss Mabel Dailey, Mrs H. McLean of Priceville, Miss Beryl Rennie and the Hooper Bros., the latter giving two violin selections which were well received. Mr and Mrs Thos Weir gave songs and several of the young people sang recitations.

The Secy, Treas, Wm. L. Dixon, read the financial statement of the S. School which showed a balance on hand 1st Nov. of $37.18. Rev R. J. McCarten fill'd the chair well.

But the most interesting to some was the address to the Superintendent, W. R. Watson, who has served faithfully for eleven years and has been much noted for punctuality, regularity of attendance and a desire to make the church prosperous by every means at his command. Mr. W. L. Dixon read the address and Mrs. All' Tucker made the presentation which consisted of a new Methodist hymn book and a set of gold staff links. Mr Watson replied in suitable terms. He expressed thanks and promised to visit the school as often as he could, but his removal to another farm near Durham, makes it impossible for him to continue as superintendent of our Sunday school. The best of good wishes attend Mr Watson to his new place of residence.

One of Four Millions

(A Photograph Direct from the War-Stricken Area)

$1 per Month Preserves the Life of One Child
Millions of war orphans in Central Europe are growing up undernourished and stunted.
Thousands of them are dying of typhus, tuberculosis and small-pox

There is almost a complete lack of the nourishing foods growing children need, of clothing, of doctors, nurses and medical supplies. The condition of the children is pitiable in the extreme.

Upon this coming generation depends largely whether these nations will be healthy and right-minded or a hot-bed of anarchy and degeneracy—a menace to the world.

It has been found by experience that the cost of caring for a waif child is approximately three dollars per month; that of the supplies that are required by imports about one dollar is needed; and therefore the dollar that we provide, together with the local support of local governments, local municipalities, local charities and local services practically preserves the life of one child.
