ORCHARD

Stewart—Johns Nuptials

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Aug. 23rd at the home of Mr and Mrs. John Orchardville when their eldest daughter, Alice Willis became the bride of Mr Jacob Stewart son of Mrs Adam Kellar of the same place.

Promptly at one o'clock to the strains of the wedding march played by Mr W. J. Moffat, Durham the bridal party arranged themselves under a tastefully decorated arch on the lawn. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked winsome in a gown of ivory satin with over dress of silk crepe-de-chine with opal bead trimming. She wore a pearl and emerald necklace, the gift of the groom and carried a bouquet of sweet heart roses and maiden hair ferns. Her twin sisters in white organdie dresses with pale blue sashes and hair bows made charming brides maids. The groom was ably supported by his cousin, Mr Thomas Stewart The Rev. T. E. West, pastor of the bride, officiated. After the ceremony and congratulations were over a dainty buffet lunch was served and then the bride donned her travelling suit of navy taffeta with peach trimming and hat to match. The happy couple left amid showers of confetti, etc, with the good wishes of all for future happiness. They travelled in the grooms car for Hamilton, Toronto Oshawa and other places.

The presents were numerous and costly showing the esteem in which the young couple are held.

On their return they will reside on the grooms fine farm near Orchardville.

The Western Fair Sept. 10th to 17th

The Exhibition grounds at London is becoming a busy place in preparation for the Exhibition in September. A large amount of work is to be done in readiness for the big event. A portion of the cattle barn will be moved to the new grounds purchased last year. The sheep and swine pens will also be moved out of the way. This will allow very much more room for outside exhibits such as tractors, threshing machines and other farm implements. If space is required application should be made at once as there is very little left. All information given on application to the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, General Offices, London, Ont.

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE AND LIMITS

Fins and cool and somewhat showery in general for the last week. Frost Monday morning 22nd Aug.

Harvest is about over, a few having some to do yet. Miss Minnie McIntyre of Toronto, visited at the old home, S. L. Glenelg, for a few days and at her brother-in-laws, in the Tp. of Bruce for some time and returns again this week.

Mr and Mrs Jas Brown of McWilliams, visited Mrs Brown's uncle, Mr D. McDonald lately. Also Mr and Mrs Chas McDonald visited his uncle one afternoon lately. Mrs McDonald was a trained nurse and was one whose services was highly appreciated by her patients during her practice. We congratulate Charlie in securing a helper who will take good care of him in health or otherwise.

It is forty three years since we started corresponding to the Review and during that time we served under four editors, viz: Jos. Townsend and Chas McArthur, both gone to their reward, and Ben Townsend and the present editors, Messrs Ramage and Son. In giving a backward look we almost imagine that the years gone past are no more numerous as they really are. The senior editor at present was in the prime of youth while the junior editor had no intention of landing in the town of Durham for a number of years. However as if told that this was a land flowing with milk and honey, he obeyed the call "come and see" and found that Durham and the surrounding country was a pleasant place to east his lot and we wish him success as editor still he reaches the age of his good father.

In our first heading it was 'Durham Road Items' but as our lot had been cast southward, we thought a change would be necessary, so we headed our correspondence "Priceville and vicinity" for some time and now it's "Priceville and Limits". In looking back we find very few, if any of those who reached the half century mark, 43 years on the Durham Road or in Priceville. And the youngsters of that time are now getting fast on the decline. But time passes on, irrespective of three years ago there was no such a conveyance as an automobile and those going along the Durham Road in a covered buggy were looked upon as a different class of people to those going on foot to their different places of worship.

Bring your wives and friends along as the U. F. O. is the back bone of our country.

Mr Albert Pierson who spent the last ten days out west with a thrashing gang, is home with a broken arm, his team becoming unmanageable and running away, upsetting load and wagon. Albert liked the West, only his stay was too short. He left his brother and Jack and Gordon McCann out there. The latter two have a poor opinion of our prairie provinces and will be glad to be back in Balsam Valley.

PRICEVILLE & SOUTH LINE

(Two other items appearing in Balsam Valley—already set—are omitted.)

Those cool days remind one of Autumn weather and the cool nights are a welcome change to some we had in July when it was more comfortable sleeping outside than in. The past week has not been very favorable for harvesting but with a few sunshiny days the majority of the farmers will be ready for the threshing outfits which will start their music going very shortly.

The McKinnon family of Toronto are holidaying at present at the old home. Their many friends in and around Priceville are always glad to see them and renew old friendships.
