Worlds in the Making
A Brilliant Lecture
 The community is under a debt of gratitude to the Literary Committee of the Anglican Church for including in their syllabus of winter entertainments such a clever lecturer as Prof. Carpenter, who on Friday evening, gave an instructive and interesting lecture in Town Hall.
 He is an enthusiast on Astronomy, believing that "Star-gazing was a great medicine of the soul and the best prescription for a weak man." He proposed leaving out the mathematical end of the subject and confine himself to the splendors and glories of the study of the stars. He began with the conceptions of the universe held by Hipparchus and the ancient world 700 yrs. B. C., when puny man flattered himself that he was the whole show and our little earth the foundation of all things. He touched on the grotesque attempts to explain that the foundation of the earth was resting on a huge elephant, in turn on a tortoise and "the Lord only knows" what it stood upon. Coming to Ptolemy about 200 A. D. there was progress, but the true conception of the universe was not attained till the 15th

Without the Fair, S. Grey Ag. Society had Prosperous Year.
 The annual meeting of South Grey Agricultural meeting was held Wednesday in the Public Library and despite the fact that the Show was cancelled last fall for the second successive year, owing to all day rain, the Treasurer's books show considerable improvement in the society's financial condition. This is accounted for largely because the handsome sum of $328 was received from the government for wet weather insurance, and almost $100 was cleared on the concert.
 The down-pour reduced the prize money paid, as it precluded second day entries, $344.15 was paid in prizes for 1st day entries. Ladies work, in which every entry was competed for, won $68.20 of it, the largest of any one class.
 After all expenses were paid the Society paid $82 interest on their indebtedness and $200 of the principal, and still have a balance of $39.07 on hand. The debt is now reduced to $1200. Surely a bright showing after the second year's knockout.
 Mr Dan Edge was re-elected President, J. W. Blyth, first Vice; Geo. Ritchie, 2nd Vice; and Geo. Binnie, Secy-Treas. All the 8 municipality directors were re-elected also, with the exception of W. W. Ramage in Egremont, who retired in favor of Robt. Aitken, Mrs McClraith was added to the Board of lady directors, along with Mrs J. McGowan, Mrs Wolfe and Mrs Burnett.
 If possible to secure them, Sept 14 and 15th were picked for the fair dates this year, two weeks earlier. It was felt that this would reduce chances of running into unfavorable weather again, and if these dates cannot be obtained from the Government close to them will be selected.
 The Field Crop Competition in oats will again be held.
Prevented Serious Fire
 Just after the crowd had gathered for the lecture in the Town Hall last Friday night, the fire alarm sounded for an outbreak in Smith's frame cottage, immediately west of the Hall, occupied by Mr A. Wilding. The interior of this house was smoke filled, and it was discovered the fire was below the floor of the kitchen where there was a foot or two space from the ground. As the smoke grew denser, it was impossible to get at it, but Mr Ab. Noble brought over four fire extinguishers and threw them in a hole in the north wall below the floor. This somewhat smothered the flames beneath, and keeping all doors closed to prevent the fire getting any draft, it was held in control till the engine, (run alongside the river bank behind the Town Hall) commenced to pump water. Then two streams were directed on the blaze, from each side of the dwelling, and as the doors were then opened and smoke gradually diminished the firemen went inside and soon extinguished the flames, before they broke through the floor. Had they ever gained headway, the house was doomed and possibly nearby dwellings. As it is the principal damage is from water and ripping up boards to get at the fire. It was caused by a torch being used to thaw frozen water pipes below, some hours before and some shavings likely then ignited and burned for some time before discovery.
