STILL A MYSTERY—A searching investigation has been made into the origin and causes of the fire which destroyed a garage, printing office and other property in Dundalk a few weeks ago. The Ontario Fire Marshall and expert lawyers conducted the proceedings, but the investigation has ended, the cause not found and blame attaches to no one. An unsolved mystery.

EN ROUTE TO AFRICA—Mrs. T. Banks, Upper Town, received a letter a few days ago from Mrs. Rice, written in Liverpool, Jan. 9. Her steamer Celtic was 7 days, 6 hours in crossing the Atlantic. They had snow rain and fog for four or five days as is shown on a printed abstract of the voyage supplied each passenger at the close. REVIVAL SERVICES.—Letters and echoes of a great revival of religion near Walter's Falls have reached several parties here. The two congregations near there are presided over by Rev. B. M. Smith, formerly of Dundee and Knox Normanby. A series of special services began with the New Year at Knox, St. Vincent. These were conducted by Rev. T. A. Woods and Mr. Britney who held similar services at Dornoch recently. Interest increased remarkably, and a deep impression has been made on the community, even on the very aged and very young, as well as on all between no fewer than about 49 deciding to serve or re-consecrate and as many more deeply impressed. Similar services are now being held by same men at Mr. Smith's St. Paul's congregation in Sydneyham.

Some changes have taken place recently in the jurisdiction of Police Magistrates in Grey County. A. D. Cressor of Owen Sound has been given a blanket charge over the whole County while Wm. Laidlaw has Durham still and part of Bentinck and John Telford has Hanover as before. Mark Armstrong, Markdale, has that village, Chatsworth and Flesherton and six townships. Mr. Cressor can operate anywhere or can sit with the others on request. Local J. P.'s can deal only with breaches of local by-laws.

In a perusal of the religious beliefs of the newly elect members of Walkerton council, the Herald-Times finds the Presbyterians to be largely in the majority with six of the eight, the other two being Anglican and Roman Catholic. Durham Council is almost identically similar religiously, with six of its eight at the Board Presbyterians, one Anglican and one Baptist. However in managing the affairs of the town, religious beliefs are unthought of. Good service and a readiness to assume the responsibilities of the office are the main qualifications for holding a seat at the board here.

First Carnival a Grand Success Had it not been for the stormy night a bumper crowd would have been present at the rink last Thursday night, at the Durham Amusement Co's first carnival of the season. As it was, there were nearly 600 present, and about 100 of these were masqueraders. Some fine costumes were in evidence, and others were with them simply to get in on the whole evening skating. Previous to the judging and races a moose skin dance was held on the ice, which a number enjoyed.

At the close of the lucky ticket for the lacrosse clubs granofola was drawn by little George Gray, and it named Jas. McLachlan as the winner of this fine cabinet machine.

We cannot describe costumes but simply give names of the prize-winners: FANCY: Lady—Frankie Burnett (Christmas tree), Gent—Alex McLoughlin, London (18th century gentleman), Girl—Norma Gagnon (poppy), Marjorie Pickering (rose); Boy—Bowman Jamieson, Norman McIntyre. HISTORICAL: Lady—Miss Flo Limin (squaw); Gent—E. D. McClocklin (Fiar Tuck); Girl—Sadie Levine (Japan); Boy—Clen Rowe (Indian), Earl McEachnie (John Bull). COMIC: Lady—Ottillie Limin (Topsy); Gent—Vic. Catton; Girl—Eula Burnett (Mr. Jiggs), Florence Kress; Boy—Ned Burnett, Jack Lauder. RACES: Open—Harper McGirr, Frank Morlock; Boys—George Hind, Leonard McComb; Girls—Vera Mountain, Blanche Murdock.

Former Durhamites in Toronto Have a Reunion

The newly organized Durham club in Toronto staged a highly successful social gathering in the city on Thursday evening last. The event was held in Hunt's parlors, Yonge and Bloor St., and the attendance reached almost the hundred mark.

The function was called a "Euchre and Dance" but in one sense this was a misnomer, for the occasion brought many of the guests together for the first time in several years and the glad hand of friendship for old time's sake was freely extended on every side. Frequently little groups of two's and three's could be seen reminiscing over the "good old days" in rustic but scenic Durham. Some of the guests who departed from the old home town a few short years ago eagerly enquired from those who still take the north bound train to Grey county, of developments there.

"Was 'Tommy' Allan trying to perform the Tommy Church mayoralty stunt?" "Had the town hall been consigned to the glorious past?" "How was the new post office in the Federal Square progressing?" "Who and why is Agnes McPhail?"

The above is a sample of questioning which the writer and others were subjected to at intervals in the evening. Information of the most reliable order and news of the town's chief assets were cheerfully given.

Several tables of progressive euchre were played and on the floor upstairs many of the young people spent a pleasant evening dancing. A dainty luncheon was served ere the party broke up at midnight.

The success of the evening was largely due to the social committee of the club of which Miss Mary McAllister is convenor.

Many of the guests brought Toronto friends with them and they were offered a touch of Durham's good cheer spirit. As nearly as possible, could be obtained the following are the guests who attended.

Men's Bible Class

Next Sunday the men will hear and talk about the problem of "Public Charity." The question is a live one. Thousands in the large cities are in the bread line now. The harvest of high prices and unemployment is not yet ended. We ought to seriously consider what are the causes of poverty and what forms public relief ought to take so as to adequately meet the need and give the needy prosperity with self respect. Those who have had to ask and those who give are all cordially invited to come.

At the recent Rexall clerk's Convention in Toronto a masquerade dance was given and at this function prizes of $10.00 and $5.00 for the two best costumes worn, depicting "Rexall" products. Miss Jean McGowan was fortunate in the two hundred competing, in coming second representing "Jontee".

MUSIC FOR THE RINK—The Durham Amusement Co. intend installing in the Skating rink this week what is known as a telemegaphone which will provide good audible music for all skating. It consists of a phonograph secured from the Jackson Co. here on which ordinary records are used. Attached to it is the telemegaphone which greatly enlarges and intensifies the volume, so that its music carries easily 500 feet and is plainly heard. A repeater attachment provides for a second rendition when record has been played. The machine costs about $400 and it is hoped to be ready for use Saturday evening. It will greatly increase the enjoyment of skating as it will be operated the three skating nights each week. It is planned to rent it for the use of dances and possibly for other purposes.

Wallace—Clark Nuptials A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized on Jan. 18th at 938 Dovercourt Road, Toronto, the home of Rev. Hugh Cowan, when Annie Cowan daughter of Mrs. Neil Clark, upper town, Durham, became the bride of Thomas Melville Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wallace, Normanby.

At five o'clock the young couple took their places in the drawing room where the ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle Rev. Hugh Cowan. The bride looked charming in a dress of navy satin and georgette, trimmed and beaded in silver.

After the ceremony they retired to the dining room where Mrs. Cowan assisted by her daughter, Miss Jean served a dainty luncheon.

After a short honeymoon spent with friends and relatives in Toronto the happy couple will take up residence at the groom's home in Normanby.

Power Farming with the Fordson Tractor

WHEN one man with a Fordson Tractor can do the work of three the old-fashioned way—is it any wonder the power farming idea is spreading like wild fire? Nowadays, the money-making farmer is the man who is selling the products of increased acreages without extra help, who is making himself as independent as possible of weather losses by always prompt work with a tractor. With the Fordson he does these vital money-making things better, faster and cheaper than he can with any other farm power. With two plows the Fordson will do 8 to 10 acres a day and it will positively not pack the soil. It will handle the headlands like horses—turning short and quick, leaving a neat job. And it will do it on inexpensive kerosene, used only when the machine is earning money for you. Twenty-two horse power on the belt—the Fordson is ready to go at 10 or 12 miles an hour to any part of the farm and do every imaginable kind of belt work or hauling. We have counted a hundred uses—more of them than any other tractor can be put to. Call in and talk it over with us. See the big stock of parts we carry, always ready to keep Fordson power continuous.
