U.S. is here at present visiting friends. He is an elder brother of Don McLaughlin of town.
Some of our young men complain of "dull times"—no employment, but A and J. Haggard Bros. seem to have all the work they can possibly do. They have cut a lot of wood in the vicinity, besides other work.

County Council Holds Annual Squabble re Good Roads Committee

Committee composed of Warden Howe, Reeves Calder, Holm Taylor and Brown.
The County Council can spend an awful lot of time in ineffective argument says the Owen Sound Sun Times. This was exemplified without any chance of a doubt at the session yesterday afternoon. The first argument was as to whether the council should go into committee of the whole on the report of the special committee appointed to strike the standing committees. It resulted in the report being considered in committee.

The next argument was as to the personnel of the House of Refuge committee. Dr. McArthur of Markdale wanted Reeve J. T. Miller's name placed on the committee in place of Reeve Brown, so that the county would save on mileage. Mr Miller said he had not asked to be put on the committee. He was on last year with Warden Sing and a "man from Owen Sound," who did not once go over the house of refuge. He and the warden had not always agreed, and if they had, Mr Miller said, he would look ridiculous. Mr Sing wanted an extra $5000 insurance put on the building and Mr Miller did not believe he had the power to do so.

Mr Brown then got up and said he wanted to be on that committee and if necessary would not charge mileage to the County. Mr Sing said he had always had the most friendly dealings with Mr Miller last year, and had left much to Mr Miller. He believed the House of Refuge was not half insured.
Mr McTavish, Reeve of Flesherton, suggested that the reeve of Markdale be on the committee. He also drew Mr Brown's wrath by suggesting that a uniform with brass buttons be given to Mr Brown. Mr Brown retorted that he was quite able to buy his own clothes and could afford to go to Markdale at his own expense if necessary. Mr McTavish then accused Mr Brown of wanting to hold the chairmanship of committee. Mr Brown said he had not asked for a chairmanship. He had been chairman of the Good Roads committee for some months to fill in the balance of Mr Boyd's term when the latter had resigned.

Mr Calder then slipped into the argument. He believed Mr McTavish's remarks were uncalled for. Mr Brown though defeated for the wardenship had been one of the first to congratulate Mr Howe. He had more respect for a man who would say openly that he wanted to be on the committee than for the man who would go behind doors, and pull wires. The personalities had not been in good taste.

Reeve McTavish can generally find something personal in Mr Calder's remarks and this was no exception. He jumped to his feet and accused Mr Calder of meaning him, and he wanted to say such an insinuation was not so, he never had an axe to grind. Mr Calder said he had not mentioned him, McTavish, but if Mr McTavish wanted to wear the cap he had no objection. The vote was taken and the report was adopted making the warden, Mr Brown and an Owen Sound representative the House of Refuge committee.

The discussion on the House of Refuge committee was merely a circumstance to the lengthy, drawn out, ineffective, and to some extent unwarranted discussion that occurred when the Good Roads committee clause was reached. The report recommended that the warden, Messrs Calder, Holm, Brown and Taylor be the committee.
Mr Bothwell was right on his feet. He recalled the long drawn out discussion that had occurred a year ago when each member of the committee had been elected separately by a full vote of the council. The Good Roads committee were the big spenders of the council and he felt that the expenditure should be curtailed. They had exceeded their appropriation last year by $70000. Each member of the county council must accept responsibility and he believed that such a small committee should be elected separately by the council. The county was going rapidly behind. The council should have a direct say as to who should spend the money. He suggested that the council nominate members to the committee and select each one separately by a vote. It was more important than the election of a warden. He brought in a motion to that effect, Mr W. W. Smith seconded the motion.
Then Mr Miller of Euphrasia got into it. He wanted Mr Calder to tell him why it was that Collingwood got $12,000 for maintenance while Euphrasia got only $8000, and the amount of county roads was about equal. That was getting away from the issue, but Mr Hunt who was in the chair let it pass.
Mr Calder undertook to answer Mr Miller but his answer was not satisfactory to that gentleman. Then Mr Calder spoke on the motion. He said that any other member, rather than Mr Bothwell, should have made the remarks about curtailment. Three years ago the construction of a road

Hockey News of the Week

Juniors Whitewashed Hanover
All teams look alike to Durham Junior hockeyists these days. Last week they won from Harrison here by 11 to 1 and on Tuesday night they went over to Hanover and trounced the hopes of that town by a 11-0 score. Durham has swept through the southern half of No 1 District without a loss growing stronger as the season progressed. They will next be matched with Owen Sound Juniors, winners of the northern half of the district.

Hanover, who were defeated by 7 to 5 only here, were considered to have a good chance of capturing the game and tying the district. It was the difference in Durham's playing strength that created such a one-sided score as 11-0. The team with York of Markdale, now called to the forward line, is working like a well oiled machine and will henceforth take some beating. The scoring was evenly divided 4-0, 4-0 and 3-0 in the different periods. Mountain has proved his worth in goal the last couple games, and Cliff Buschlen is enjoying his best season yet in hockey. McTavish of Flesherton rounds out a strong defence, while no faster forward line and all dangerous shots, has been on a Durham Junior team, than Willet Snell, Irving Elvidge and York. With Vollet and Hamilton for subs Durham has equally strong players to change off, which they played in former seasons F. Murphy of Mt. Forest refereed.

Mt Forest took 2nd Home Game
Durham High School boys lost by 11 to 5 the third game of the double scheduled in Mt Forest last Friday night. Mt Forest has thus won its two home games, Durham one, and our boys must win the last one here next Friday night to tie the race and bring about a play-off. Come to the rink and see them do it.

Harrison Won Exhibition Game
There was some funny work going on for the scheduled game, Hanover in Harrison last Thursday night. Harrison had no chance since their last defeat in Durham, so it seems they played men over Junior age, as an exhibition, which they won 8 to 1. Hanover thus got the League game by default and this kept them in the race with Durham, but it was of little avail as Durham lads with their 11-0 kalsomine brush put Hanover down and out four days later.

Tight Game With Mt. Forest Seniors
Mount Forest's senior puck chaser's gave Durham a hard argument in an exhibition with Durham seniors Wednesday, our boys winning 6-5, though some claim it a 6-6 tie. First period ended 1-1, second 2-2, then Mt. Forest opened the last with 3 goals. It looked all up, but Durham made a grandstand finish and pulled ahead. With very soft ice, the players couldn't carry the puck, and lobbing it ahead was often resorted to. Alex Graham refereed. Durhams were, J. Allan, goal; Farrell, Mack Saunders, Falkingham, Al Saunders, Bob Saunders, Morlock, Clarence McGirr.
