Publications Branch, Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. (No stamp required.) Enter my name for "SEASONABLE BINTS"-a free publication containing useful facts for Farmers—and also send me your list of other free farm pamphlets issued by the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

The Gates of Hope

BY ANTHONY CARLYLE

CHAPTER I. Marcia Halstead took her fingers half-wistful sweetness of expression manded expenditure such as she had intellect, in character, and in the cover with a dry towel. Repeat until off her typewriter keys, and, letting that was arresting, and a charm, when hitherto never dreamed of; and Gor-friendship that she offers to girls of the skin begins to redden. Anoint with patch.

things of life—not so much for bodily She laid them down on one of the shrugging herself into her great soft expressed one of the fundamental home, the following information will comfort as for beautiful surround- tables while she fumbled in her bag coat, turned to greet them with a sigh things in a friendship of any kind— be interesting, as many have been Tractors are being used in British delicate mother, to whom the change "I've been to a doctor, but he doesn't girlhood, could venture a shrewd valued properly, to be weighed and not processes following upon her saw thousand the complete could be said: "We make a processes following upon her saw thousand the complete could be said: "We make a processes following upon her saw thousand the complete could be said: "We make a processes following upon her saw thousand the complete could be said: "We make a processes following upon her saw thousand the complete could be said: "We make a processes following upon her saw thousand the complete could be said: "We make a processes following upon her saw thousand the complete could be said: "We make a processes following upon her saw thousand the complete could be said: "We make a processes following upon her saw thousand the complete could be said: "We make a processes following upon her saw thousand the complete could be said: "We make a processes following upon her saw thousand the complete could be said: "We make a processes following upon her saw thousand the complete could be said to be said to be said: "We make a processes following upon her said the complete could be said to be sa of circumstances following upon her say there's anything wrong-just a guess. husband's death had come as a very bit run down-but he hasn't done me She had even, in her happy-go-lucky rible; and then, by purest chance, she proval. young, vivacious and remarkably pop- worked practitioner, I suppose, to ing that the general run of young men exclaims, "Let's meet again for lun-work was congenial, she came in con- stood with it dangling from one hand. ence. I believe Lord Rosslaer has cut Everybody is happier for a little ap- market—for lumber is the major eletact with people of note in society and Beside the jewels on the table she down Kemp's allowance already— preciation or compliment. We all ment in construction of a home. Lumroundings which satisfied her artistic silent? "I wonder if you'd care to tentions to Araby Trask-" real effort that she managed to get Mrs. Alden nodded. Crossing to a approve. He approves less since he at, we always feel like going there the Dream-Ship," by Mr. Ralph Stock, deed, should she become unfit for em- "Lady Rosslaer!" she observed. My dear, it's the very way to drive of fresh air, eat simple, wholesome dinary way. For instance, he calls a very far from feeling. To-day the Marcia smiled. Audrey Alden was son knows how to go the pace—cards,

The room in which she sat was a claim to considerably more than her embarked upon a mode of living which doesn't know how to get on with men. It is ruinous to any complexion to luxurious one, quietly but perfectly share of beauty; but to-day she looked was reckless, to say the least of it. She's so afraid of flattering them, so It is ruinous to any complexion to good taste and with plenty of money Alden, happening to enter amusements; money was his constant seen her entertain a man for an hour ride or a journey to remain upon the to spend. As Marcia opened her eyes the room at the moment, looked at desire, and when he won it or had it or so successfully, but when it came skin, as it encourages wrinkles, again she glanced about her appreci- her with a little frown. She herself given to him he spent it like water.

Since his advent into those girales to saying 'Good-bye' she seemed sudatively, more than a little enviously, was a picture of health, and her hazel Since his advent into those circles denly dumb. Not a word for past dingy color.

All her life her soul had craved for a long string of exquisite pearls and her came in now after Kempton with a definite period.

When the young man left, Alice conover in their minds during the last exceedingly unlucky for a person to still were 8,000 houses completely des ular novelist, the widow of a man of whom you are just one of a crowd!" who hovered round Audrey. Then, as Marcia nodded. "My dear," the latter had declared, talk over with you." She had been attracted to Marcia at Miss Halstead, in my opinion you "though he appears as cool as ice- But just a deadly, formal "Good-go and see Sir Hugh Dallas? He's Here she met the inquiry in Mar-Little, pretty Mrs. Alden was a one of the biggest men in his profes- cia's eyes and laughed. capricious employer, but a consider- sion—altogether most awfully clever. "Araby is the daughter of Marcus know ourselves, we pick up a book in general. Renewed activities of conate one. And so for nearly nine Everyone is talking about him, and I Trask, the artist. The Trasks are as and do our best to change our tractors and builders throughout Canatraces of the struggle were more than an outspoken little person who made betting, racing! And his remarkably quicker than late hours or sleeping in no secret of her likes and dislikes. pretty mamma can make the money a stuffy room. The late morning sun was pouring Among those of her acquaintances who fly now she has it to handle. Don't To eat of rich, heavy food, to fail complain of that flour you sent me."

In through one of the windows. It had the unhappy knack of always rub- wonder Lord Rosslaer is drawing in to macticate properly, to eat hurriedly is horne a hit back in the big, comfortable, padded Rosslaer, the quite recently made sec-

Stories About Famous People

Mrs. McAvity, has just completed a himself in the mirror-adorned with portrait of the Prince of Wales, who, the famous hat. And the newspapers she says, is the most considerate and friendly "sitter" she has ever met.

"The Prince smoked and talked al- Mr. Phillips Oppenheim, the popumost the whole time," she said, "and. | lar novelist, the other day met a woas he sat' in naval uniform, he seemed man who, full of enthusiasm over the to be more concerned that I should get author's works, remarked: "I read the order and color of his ribbons one of your books every night-I'm so right than anything else. He was very fond of them." flattaring, and I am glad to say I man- "But I don't write three hundred terested the people more than his "No. Sir James," she replied, "my hangings, everything!

Many stories are told about this my husband."

say this was not an isolated occur-viewed by Queen Alexandria before ty girl went up to Sir James Barrie whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed neck or the skin back and around the and asked for his autograph, telling goods. For fifty-one years millions of ears, for here age first shows itself. him that he was her favorite author. women have been using "Diamond Wipe the cream off with either a soft tracted and had dropped a bombshell in the midst of his friends and acquaintances when he had announced his quiet and unsuspected marriage to her a few months later. The whole thing was surprisingly disconcerting. Lord Rosslaer was a proud old man whose honorable name was his most valued possession. Since the death of his first wife many years before he had live a more or less solitary life, lavishing all his affection and time upon his son, Kempton.

His second wife had been a widow, and an amazingly attractive one at that, when chance had brought him whole manner was that of a man Rosslaer had discovered her.

Kempton, like himself, had extravagant tastes. Now, with a wife and spother son to provide for not only when she doesn't say it the right of the skin is naturally greasy or during his lifetime, but in the event of his death, Lord Rosslaer had found Alce questioned him closely; be- environment, steam the face over once the Juxurious and more beautiful several sparkling, flashing rings.

Rosslaer and his mother. Mrs. Alden, tinued to sit by the fire. Had he not few years the question of building a look back when he leaves his house.

But with his death things had altering! What in the world is the matter with was possible to finish on a fixed date the sells direct from producer to conwith the world is the matter was possible to finish on a fixed date.

Western cattle breeders are being as, he held, otherwise the efforts would ed. She had found herself alone in with you? Have you had proper riage of his father's no one knew, but person whom she takes pains to study sells direct from producer to con-Audrey Alden, who had known him a thirsty craving to be appreciated; sumer, was able to give us a very con- own in London, England.

At first the struggle had been tersible; and then, by purest chance, she proval.

Way, confided her opinion of the whole affair to Marcia, who had met Kempton Rosslaer several times, and had man is plainly pleased when his friend had fallen in with Audrey Alden, a "An ordinary, harrassed, over- found him considerably more interest- man is plainly pleased when his friend once. Discovering that she was desirous of finding congenial work she failing steadily through the last six difference to him They're not rich you a wet blanket. The washer-woman had offered her almost eagerly the months at any rate. You look now difference to him. They're not rich, you that Alice's mother employs beams if post of companion-secretary, and thoroughly ill. Something ought to be Marcia had accepted it willingly and done, and that quickly."

that Alice's mother employs beams if Alice adds on paying her, "It's been a any one who waits for all prices, but any one who waits for all prices to provide the prices of the Her salary was really generous, her ing for, and now closed her purse and This is going to make an awful differ- will be as good."

smooth months Marcia had come and know him quite well. If you'll go to poor as the proverbial church mice, thoughts. Sometimes we talk over da would indicate that they too are him at once—to-day—I'll scribble a and nobody in particular, though un- our failures with a comrade of whose preparing for more building this year. An immense sense of relief had line of introduction for you. He's doubtedly gently born. Araby is dis- sympathies we are sure. gradually grown upon the girl during likely to take a greater interest in him! her analysis are sure. the first month or so; then the pleasentress of her employment was marred by an increasing feeling of lassi"It's awfully good of you," the girl don't know how much there is in it, of the first month or so; then the pleasyou than if you went to him quite on where a pretty face is concerned. I don't know how much there is in it, of see us. And so we think perhaps we'll through her day's work—times when little inlaid bureau she opened it, pull- has been married. Lady Rosslaer's again. her brain throbbed and her hands felt ed a sheet of notepaper toward her definition of poor Araby is a hoydenlike lead upon the typewriter keys. and began to scribble. As she stood ish model!' And some women have Even Mrs. Alden remarked upon up again with it in her hand the hum a way of saying things which is abher altered appearance more than of the electric bell whirred through solutely blighting! Consequently Lord not worth it, I assure you. It can only laer and Mr. Ruthven, m'm," she said. opposition is fatal where Kemp is conor more of them and your complexion pense will show visitors the shark's She had spoken kindly enough, but "Bring them in here," she said, and, known him. Give him his head and playion you must live properly: that himself to be photographed. her words had struck a chill to Mar- as the maid departed, turned to Mar- he'll not come a cropper on the matri-about, and she had forced herself to ship and Gordon making up the party! "Altogether the poor old boy is having a rather lively time of it. His step." ing a rather lively time of it. His step-to bring shadows under the eyes ond wife of Lord Rosslaer, of Rosslaer poor old Kemp! He's one of the very course, is followed by a muddy, sallow made a pie with it, and it was as much as my husband could do to cut it." She was slim to thinness and very pale, yet, in spite of her look of delining in Scotland.

Court, in Wiltshire, and of Ross Laer, best, a white man through and cacy, she was a decidedly attractive through, if he has got the reputation for falling in and out of love with the regularity of clockword of the point of feeling full. It is vulgar to overest and fatal to one's containing the regularity of clockword of the point of feeling full. It is vulgar to overest and fatal to one's containing the regularity of clockword of the point of feeling full. It is vulgar to overest and fatal to one's containing the regularity of clockword of the point of feeling full. It is vulgar to overest and fatal to one's containing the regularity of clockword of the point of feeling full. Dark-eyed, brown-haired, and somewhat remote and dreary watering the regularity of clockwork! Of course, gar to overeat and fatal to one's comwith well-cut, rather small features, place abroad; had been amazingly at- a wealthy marriage is the only thing plexion.

when Lord Rosslaer dies, but that'll open air enough to cause the blood stroyed 1,000 square miles of timber, be about all. My lady and her son to flow swiftly and to throw off its valued at $10,000,000. must be a terrible drain upon the old impurities. If you would keep supple A famous Canadian woman artist, known personage calmly admiring Rosslaer Court need some keeping up." (To be continued.)

> Dye Faded Sweater Skirt, Draperies in Diamond Dyes should be selected.

tells how to dye or tint any worn, water and soap every day and two or faded garment or drapery a new rich three bathings in cool water. Always aged to get his ribbons in their pro- and sixty-five books a year," the novel- anteed with Diamond Dyes even if you Once a day, preferably at night, color that will not streak, spot, fade, follow the warm water and soap proist replied. "I am not so bad as that." have never dyed before. Just tell anoint the face with pure cold cream Provincial Government, and it was The other day, at a reception, a pret- you wish to dye is wool or silk, or tips of the fingers. Do not neglect the During his tour through America Barrie asked her name, and then said: Dyes" to add years of wear to their paper napkin or with a piece of old Marshal Foch took the nation by "You live with your parents, I sup- old, shabby walsts, skirts, dresses, linen. Then follow with a thorough to the public clock many to first washing. The first state of the public clock many to the public clock many to first state of Minard's Liniment for Colds, eta from her saying, "I never thought of this kind to remain on at night. nearly double his age, she was very that!" or "That's a new idea! I'll try Most powders contain starch in little over thirty-seven, decidedly a it." But last week he quite took her some form, which swells when mois-found wanting.

Saying Good-Bye.

cheon! I've something else I want to red by an increasing feeling of lassitive of physical weariness which at first puzzled and then began to trouble I will go. I—I admit I have been with hor!

where a pretty face is concerned. I don't know how much there is in it, of course, but they—'they' being nearly go to see Marian next Saturday, rather than Helen, because even if she is habitant of Thursday Island, to the Crowtox and following the Cro working after you leave here. It's "Lady Rosslaer, Mr. Kempton Ross- "But, as I ventured to tell him once, and correct individual care. Omit one in his escape, and in return for sixcleanliness, prevention of blemishes go." He takes an extraordinary pride ployment, and with a delicate mother "What on earth did she want to come him straight into the girl's arms!" food and take a normal amount of ex- gramophone "Bokkus belong noise."

Care of the Complexion.

or in an uncongenial atmosphere is to it?"

Any one who longs to have a clear, "He'll have the title and estates radiant skin must move about in the Forest fires in Quebec in 1921 deof limb, clear of eye and possessed of Minard's Liniment Used by Veterinaries inses, without soreness or irritation. three miles a day.

Never buy cheap soap. French castile, tincture of green soap, or the production of a reliable soapmaker

Unless the skin is very sensitive it Every "Diamond Dyes" package will bear one good cleansing with hot coats, sweaters, stockings, draperies, washing with warm, soapy water. A soft complexion brush or a Turkish washcloth is good, unless the face is Before going out into the wind or A friend of Alice's, a sudent at col- sun protect the face with a thin film lege, sometimes comes to ca'! upon of vanishing or greaseless cream and across her path. Though she possess- her, and by her fireside they thrash dust lightly with fine, pure cosmetic out many questions. Often he goes powder; but never allow anything o beauty, and undoubtedly wasted in the breath away by saying, "It makes no tened with the skin secretions. If this umdrum environment in which Lord difference to me how nice a girl has powder lodges directly in the pores, been, possibly for an entire evening, it will in time cause them to be He was not a rich man, and his son, if she fails when it comes to saying stretched and coarsened. Always use one's occupation is in a smoky or dusty it very necessary to curtail expenses. cause he had awakened her interest. a week to cleanse the pores thoroughbut a wonderfully appealing smile, a travagantly inclined. Her position de- liked; a girl far above the average in warm water, place upon the face and ber hands drop into her lap, leaned back in her chair, closing her eyes full of vivid, unexpected allure. In lavished a blind adoration, had long sigh.

She warmed to animation—that was friendship that she offers to girls of lawished a blind adoration, had long her own age and to women. "But," cream, working well into the skin. lavished a blind adoration, had long continued the young fellow, "she doesn't know how to get on with men. then dash on cold water to counteract."

Of a law in the skin despite the skin despite the skin despite that she offers to girls of law in the skin despite that she offers to girls of law in the skin despite the ski

For those who have been turning Among the Hindus it is considered in seven years. He admitted there ings. She had been well educated, for something, keeping her eyes the and until the death of her father had while on Marcia's face.

"My dear girl." she said quickly. The Marquis insisted that only those must be repaired each year which is must b practice of selling the complete outfit for construction of a thoroughly wellbuilt home. Last year, take for instance, this home would have cost you $3,648.80. We have just set our prices for 1922. They stand at $2,577.66; or in round figures one-third less than last year. Here's another: Last year $2,237.99 and this year $1,557.79. The reason is that lumber prices have hit most of her day was spent in sur- She went on as Marcia remained tentions to Araby Trask."

Strive to please, that is leany what of the prices on the upward trend wind tentions to Araby Trask."

We are put here for; and if we feel more than offset the small gain in who says that his head looks as if it had been half cut off. The author once, shaking her head reprovingly. the flat. A moment later a maid ap- Rosslaer looks upon the girl as a most includes four steps—good health, would say was: "Me push; 'im leave tried to get him to give an account of 75 Jarvis Street,

The problem did not bear thinking now I suppose we shall have her ladybreath and to chuckle with soft malice.

There is nothing which will cause go, brother belong tomahawk."

Altogether the poor old how is have

Mrs. Youngbride - "I've come to Grocer-"What was the matter with

SPOHN'S DISTEMPER COMPOUND Influenza, Distemper, Coughs and Colds

Chinese Proverbs.

Think twice and do no speak at all At 70 a man is a candle in the wil A thousand soldiers are easily ob tained; a general is hard to find. Do not lace your shoes in a meion

Easy to open a shop; hard to keep here believe they will never come

Of all important things, the first All pursuits are mean in compariso

Win your lawsuit, lose your money

Hindus Are Superstitious.

Get back that girlish figure by taking space for 4,000 boys and girls. The Reduce eight pounds a month. Pienty He is described in "The Cruise of to eat, but a scientific diet which does 000,000 francs. Construction work is not produce fat. Crowtox is absolutely to be spread over five years. Sold by all draggists, or by mail on

> CUDNIC CNUNO

Lift Off with Fingers

People who "need to be handled with "Freezone" on an aching corn, instant gloves" are sometimes better handled ly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the cal-nearly thirty years "SPONES" has been given to prevent the spasmodic yelp of a dog. occasional dose "conditions" your horse and keeps disease away. As a remedy for cases actually suffering. "SPORTS" is quick and certain. For sale at drug stores. SPORN MEDICAL COMPANY, GOSSEN, INDIANA, U.S.A.

REPAIRS TO BE UNDER. TAKEN FIRST.

Greatest Orphanage in World Soon to be Constructed at Vitry-Sur-Seine.

Surprise is frequently expressed by visitors to Rheims, and is more angrily voiced by the plain citizens there, that so little has been done to ward rebuilding that city during the three years of peace. The charge was made to a newspaper correspondenby a small Rheims shopkeeper that whatever has been done there has been in the interest of the champagne firms, the small proper'y holder hav ing been left to look out for himself

"Heaven help those who look after each other!" he exclaimed. "Every thing is paralyzed through watching out for the reparations. Most persons

The authorities are now awake the fact that such charges deserve no tice. Marqu's de Polignac, president of the Co-operative Society for the Reconstruction of Rheims, has just made a statement in regard to the future He declared a carefully thought out scheme was necessary for the rebuild ing of the city and that if this were clared, they must beg'n on houses capable of being repaired and then work should be sto ted on those for which funds were available through the city loan. The building of houses to replace those which had been totally destroyed and for which the canton committee has presented definite damage claims should be undertake last. He estimated that by working along these lines at least 850 house could be rebuilt this year On the other hand, the view of cynt cal citizens of Rheims is that it is beter to leave the rulas as they are Herb Remedy with high. since they constitute an excellent ad est endorsements from vertisement of the champagne bus States for 15 years-for ness. Also they consider it usef Rheumatism. Gassy to the community that Rheims should Now stand out as the most ruined city o sold by National Drug Co., Hamilton, France, now that American and other Ont., through your home drug store.

Rermit's Friend Rheumatic Remedy Co. foreign visitors still see the necessity of subscribing to funds to help the people of the devastated areas. World's Greatest Orphanage.

The greatest orphanage in the world is soon to be constructed in Vitry-sni Seine. It will be strictly on the line of the American vocational system In the Conseil General of the Sein Department it was revealed this week that the plans for the building call fo buildings are to cost not less than 20.

Apart from the special department receipt of price, $1.00 per box; from for children of tender age, where the THE ROSS MEDICINE COMPANY | older girls will get training in dome-Toronto tic sicence, as well as children's hospital courses, there will be a farm school and a series of ten mechanica workshops for teaching all kinds of skilled labor.

A commission has been studying the plans for more than two years. It has now been decided to adopt a combine tion scheme based on the systems now in operation in New York, Pennsy vania and Ohio orphanages earth varied according to the damp ness or dryness of the air. When in clouds four miles above the earth, he heard a railway train, but when the clouds were far below him all was silent. Two miles up he heard the barking siways found that sounds from the

Wonders of Sound Travel A famous balloonist named Glaisher

of a small dog, yet at less than half Drop a tittie that height he failed to hear the show ing of a large crowd of people. Another balloonist, the Rev. J. M. Bacon, found how wonderfully piere ing was the shriek of a railway whistle. The shouts of children were always the first to be heard among the many sounds rising from human The discharge of a gun was heard by Glaisher at a height of two miles Bacon's experience in this respect was curious. He was ballooning between Woolwich and Plumstead, in England, when he heard what he imagined to be

It was the sound of artillery practice on Plamstead Marshes a mile below. Bach sound was heard for one instant only, and reminded him of hose flashes of lightning which are followed by a single roar of thunder. At a height of between 5,000 ft and 6,000 ft. Glaisher could hear the deep gund of London rising like the roar of the sea. At a greater height the sound had sunk to a mere nine mur while at a height of four miles above London, all was bushed A noted French balloonist discovered that he could hear the crowing of

When you meet temptation tura

a cock and the sound of a church bell at 5,000 ft.

IRISH PEC

Winston Chu Adoption of to Secr

A despatch fro noving the sec Irish Free State Spencer Churchil Colonies, laid str of giving affect to ing the Provisio the treaty provid ers and enabling at the earliest m "It is the view atories of the tre an Irish Republic the Irish people that the Republ verted into a Fr cision of the pec ognize the Irish The objects of a added the Secreta an adequate const "a fresh, normal, sensible Parliame Of the present Mr. Churchill deel chosen because of were thought to to Great Britain : England most. must know where tion he character "It is perfectly pudiation of the would free all par gagements," the S ple felt they had already, but in ar an election was he success of Mr. de

Bringing British to Wes A despatch from

Bishop Lloyd, of Sai

sailed for Canada