A social dance was held in the Town Hall Monday night when the proceeds—$31, went to Red Cross hospital funds. It was a purely informal affair and the music to lighten expenses, was supplied by a local orchestra.

The letter on Fox Farming on page 5 will be a revelation to many of the growers and extent of this industry. We thank the writer for his informative article, and we hope the Priceville ranch under an auspicious beginning may prove abundantly successful.

A COSTLY LETTER.—Mr. L. Karakowsky received a letter from Russia on Monday which bore five postage stamps, each for a thousand roubles. A Russian rouble in normal times, was worth about 95c, therefore almost $500 worth of stamps were represented on the letter. It is an indication of the way Russian money has depreciated when it now takes $500 to do the work of five cents in normal times.—Perth Expositor.

A GENEROUS LIGHT.—Bruce Rogers, a young Walkerton electrician who is just launching into business for himself, put in a tender for wiring Walkerton Methodist Church for $365. There was another tender at same figure and another considerably below them, but to ensure Rogers getting the contract, Mrs. McKillop of that town notified the Ladies Aid, who were financing the wiring, that she would contribute $100 towards the fund if he were given the contract. Needless to say Rogers promptly landed the job, and the Times comments that if he ever blossoms into an electrical magnate, he can look back and credit it to the unostentatious lady who saw that he got away to a good start.

PROGRESSIVE EUCHE and DANCE.—St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church held a progressive euche and dance in the Town Hall Friday night last. The attendance was not as large as on previous occasions, due no doubt to the fact of the numerous other doings of that week. However this did not spoil a good time and the favors for the euche were won by Miss Stella Bolger and Mr. Arch McPhee who received respectively a flowering plant and a box of cigars. The consolation prizes fell to Miss M. Angevine and Mr. Lynch. Lunch was served about midnight, followed by dancing, with Messrs Sharp and Houghton, of Toronto, violinist and pianist supplying the music. Over $54 was made at this function.

The fourth concert of the Canadian Lyceum Bureau series under the auspices of Trinity Church, was held on Thursday night last and again the Hall was well filled. At this concert musical instruments were in the foreground, particularly the Saxophone and the manipulation of this instrument by Mr. and Mrs. Alexander of Columbus, Ohio, proved them to be long past the amateur stage. They render standard and classic numbers with wonderful effect and altogether was the best demonstration of this instrument ever in Durham. They also used during the evening alto horns and guitar and with their singing gave pleasing variety to the program. The violinist, Miss Pearce, also from Ohio, was a star in her line and her rendition of classic selections, as far as our judgment goes, left nothing to be desired. The old favorites, "The Rosary" and "Annie Laurie" carried a strong heart appeal. Miss Pearce's versatility was also shown in her solos and monologues.

Mr. Matt. Bolger's lease of the Mid-daugh House expires shortly and with his daughter Stella, contemplate living in Detroit, for the summer at least. The Mid-daugh House was conducted as a first class hotel in Mr Bolger's regime and Durham is sorry to lose them as citizens.

COMMUNITY Y. P. S. ORGANIZED.—Feeling the lack of some organization among themselves for social, religious and educational benefit, the young people in the vicinity of St. Paul's Church, Egremont, met a week ago and organized a Community Young People's Society Meeting will be held each Friday night, at the church, and being open to all, it is hoped all the young folks of the district and many older ones as well, will attend and avail themselves of its privileges. Miss Del Macintyre, the teacher there, was elected President. Milford Matthews, Vice-President. Ruby Morrison, Secy-Treasurer; and Misses Blanche Allan, Ella Wilson and Irene Barbour the Program Committee. The first gathering will be held in St. Paul's Church next Tuesday March 7th, and will take the form of a concert and lantern lecture by Rev. F. G. Hardy on "The Cathedrals of England," in which some exceptionally fine slides will be shown. Some of Durham's leading musicians will furnish the balance of the program.

Durham to O. Sound Twice Daily by Motor Bus. With the opening of spring a new line of communication is to be opened up between Owen Sound and Durham by a motor bus which will make two trips each way daily and take about two hours for the trip. It is being promoted by Major J. B. Morrison of O. Sound and the retail merchants of Owen Sound are unanimously behind the scheme. It will be run as late in the fall as possible, and probably continued during the winter by horse.

There is now very inconvenient train connections between Durham and the baby city, but that the new service will be of any value to Durham from a business standpoint, is very improbable.

'Jack' Miner Coming to Durham. Canadian Greys' Chapter I. O. D. E. are to be congratulated on having secured the famous Jack Miner to give his lecture illustrated by perfectly wonderful moving pictures on the wild bird life of Canada. This will take place in the Presbyterian Church on Saturday evening, March 11th. Don't miss this treat.

The I. O. D. E. have been trying for a year to get "Jack" to come here as he seldom goes outside of the cities and large towns. Remember the date, March 11th. Only moderate prices are being charged, namely Adults 50c and children under 14, 25c. The I. O. D. E. are especially anxious that the children should hear Jack Miner and see the pictures. It is an event of a lifetime.

Death of J. C. Henderson, M. A.

The town learned with sincere regret on Saturday that Mr. J. C. Henderson, former High School teacher had passed away in his 33rd year. He came to Durham in Sept. 1920 and taught till Jan. 1921, though for a month of that he was far from well, an old trouble overtaking him. He resigned the position greatly to the regret of Board, parents and pupils for he had won golden opinions and the school was making splendid progress. He was a poultry fancier and this has taken up his attention since. He had ambitious plans on this line for the coming summer, but death has intervened.

He was born in Belwood, Ont., and had taught in Meaford, Coidwater and other places. Seven years ago he was married to Miss Heath, who with two sons, Gordon and Walter will mourn his loss as will also the father, Simon Henderson, of Belwood and two sisters, Mrs. Loree, Belwood and Mrs. Barnett, Kingsville. These and Mr. Loree were at the funeral on Monday. Ralph, Jeeves and Herb Heath, brothers of Mrs Henderson with their mother, were also present and a relative E. J. H. of Brampton, J. H. Simps of Toronto, a bosom friend of Mr Henderson was also at the funeral.

Deceased took his B. A. at McMaster and later by private study took M. A. and their was promise of a brilliant career. He bore his illness with Christian patience, never making a complaint. His mother died when he was 8 1/2 years old.

Deceased's pastor, Rev. Mr. Coe conducted appropriate services, and many floral offerings spoke love and sympathy. The High School Board sent a wreath. He was interred on Monday in Durham cemetery. Great sympathy is extended to Mrs Henderson who we believe intends to stay in Durham.

Men's Bible Class

One of the bitter controversies among all classes during the war period was on "Profiteering" a few made fabulous fortunes out of a nation's distress. The world is paying the bill and we are all called to help. What really is profiteering? Is there such a thing as profiteering in human life as well as in household necessities? What about the sweat shop and child labor? The question is a big one and of vital interest to every man who works and pays taxes. Come and bring your pal with you.

The letter from Miss Edith Edge this week is a classic in its way. To read her letter is to be taken right with her through the beauties of Paris, the glories of the Swiss mountains, and the sombre ruins and remains of the Great War. Begin it and you'll be sure to finish it.

Mr George L. Hughes sprung a pleasant surprise on his sisters and friends here by dropping in on them Saturday night after an absence of eleven years from his home town. For the last eight years he has been manager of a department store in Little Falls, Minnesota, with a staff of nine clerks. He has found it difficult to leave business long enough for a visit home in recent years, but a big storm there tied up all business last week, and at 5 o'clock one afternoon Gorge decided it was his opportunity to get a week or ten days off for a home visit. By prompt action he boarded an eastern train at 6, made close connections spent an hour with his brother Robt. in Guelph, and arrived here Saturday night. He looks well and little changed since behind the counter in Morlock's over a decade ago. He returns Thursday and Durham friends will wish him continued business success.

A quiet wedding took place Monday, Feb. 27th at the home of Mr and Mrs Palmer Patterson, south of Varney, when his sister, Eliza Margaret, daughter of Mr and Mrs Joseph Patterson, became the bride of Mr John Allan Bell, of Gravelbourg, Sask. The ceremony took place at 2 p. m. Rev. F. G. Hardy officiated. A sumptuous repast was partaken of and many good wishes extended them. The happy couple will spend their honeymoon with friends in Toronto and Winnipeg, en route to the groom's home in Saskatchewan. The Review extends congratulations.
