Rob Roy Mills Limited
SOLD GROCERY BUSINESS.—After about three years of successful business in Durham, Mr. Robt. G. Lindsay last week disposed of his grocery business to Wm. J. Vollett, of the 2nd con., Bentinck, who is giving up farming. Bob enjoyed a good trade here and we understand will retain possession until April, when he may take a rest for a short time.

A KIND GOODBYE—All Edge Hill and a number of friends from the Garafraxa Road were represented at a surprise party at Mr. Wm. Edge's home last Friday night. They gathered to spend a social evening with his daughter, Mrs. Jno. H. Edge before her departure Monday to her home in Saskatchewan. The night was merrily spent in games and dancing till the early morning hours.

HIGH SCHOOL HOLDS DEBATE—The High School students held an interesting debate at their literary meeting Friday afternoon last. The topic was no doubt chosen as a tribute to the birthday of the Irish Saint—St. Patrick. It was "Resolved that Ireland has produced greater men than Scotland." The affirmative was upheld by Margaret Eden and Cecil McLean while the negative side was held down by Esther Firth and Irving Sharp. It was an unfortunate day for St. Patrick and his friends for the judgement went in favor of the negative, —his Scotch cousins. However we still feel and know that the Emerald Isle in no small way, have contributed eminent men, and from the present state of affairs "over there" are still casting men of the heroic mould. At the same time the negative had an unfair advantage when they were given Scotland's men to champion, for that little nation has nothing of repute but its men and its scenery. The judges were Principal Danard, Misses J. Weir and A. Sillars.

Three cars of American corn just arrived at Rob Roy Mills. Get your supply now.

The expenses of Mr. Burnaby, the U. F. O. candidate in North York in the late Federal election, were $957.94, which amount was subscribed by the U. F. O., all except $16.90. He escaped lightly.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society will hold a sale of homemade baking and afternoon tea in the basement of the Presbyterian Church on Saturday April 15th, commencing at 3 p. m.

Durham High School have recently added two new paintings—reproductions of the old masters—to their collection, which now number sixteen and adorn the class-room walls. The recent additions are "The Fighting Temeraire" by Turner and "The Shepherdess" by Lerolles, a French artist. Miss J. Weir, B. A., supplied the evening at the Presbyterian Y. P. S. Monday night by an interesting talk on these pictures with a biographical sketch of the artists.

MAKE IT A BEAUTY SPOT—Sawyer Cumming in the Owen Sound Sun holds up both hands for improvements in the surroundings of the municipal buildings. It is referred to as a bare spot and an eyesore in the business section of the city. "It is referred to very appropriately as a barn-yard, with perhaps apologies to a well regulated barn-yard." A flower plot at one corner, and a screen for undesirable features, are among the suggestions. A somewhat similar line of criticism would not be inappropriate for Durham Market grounds.

ST. PATRICK'S SOCIAL—St. Patrick was given special attention on Friday night last in the Presbyterian church when the Young People's Society arranged a social for his natal day. The school room was prettily festooned with green paper shamrocks and those in the audience who were not Irish, tried to be. Rev. W. H. Smith was chairman and waded aside the customary chairman's address for Mrs. Wm. Ruttle, Hanover, a native Irish enthusiast, who was present and gave an outline of the present and future condition of the Irish Free State. She also went into details of the patron Saint's life, giving as her belief, "that he was a native of France and not of Scotland as is commonly supposed. Also that the bagpipes originally belonged to Ireland, but handed them over to the Scotch as a joke and as yet the Scotch have not realized them as a joke! The remaining program of all an Irish nature was as follows: solos, Mrs. Moore McFadden, Mrs. A. W. H. Lauder, Mr. Thos. Bell, Master L. McComb; reading, Miss E. Firth; Monologue, Miss V. Caldwell; Irish address, Mr. W. Irwin; instrumental, Miss Jean Morlock, Mrs. Ralph Catton, Mr. Stewart McArthur; duets, Misses Jessie and Mary Bell, Esther McComb and Emily Smith. Accompanist: Miss Alice Ramage. Refreshments followed the program which closed with God Save the King. Receipts were over $20.00.

"SAVE THE CHILDREN" FUND.—Famine stalks through Russia claiming its victims by hundreds of thousands, including helpless and innocent children crying for bread, doomed to a slow and painful death. This picture though heartrending has a somewhat cheerful aspect. For five dollars you can practically adopt a Russian child keeping it alive till harvest. One dollar will feed a child like one of your own for a month. Twenty five cents will keep it for a week. One cent will buy a nourishing meal of bread and rice or bread and beans. The thought of a child saved from a painful death may comfort you as you hand in your gift as much as you can afford. Leave it with Miss Kearney at Mrs. Beggs' store. The Daughters of the Empire will forward it at once to Mr. Chas. D. Gordon, Dominion Bank, King and Yonge Toronto, who is Honorary Treasurer of Toronto and district.

Death of Mrs. (Rev.) Martin
On Tuesday, March 21st, Mrs. (Rev.) Martin of London, passed away after an illness from influenza. She was well known in this locality, being a sister of Dr. D. Jamieson and a former long-time resident of Mt. Forest. Dr. Jamieson spent from Friday to Monday with her, when she seemed somewhat improved, but she relapsed several hours later and never rallied. Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves an illustrious family of three sons and two daughters; W. M. Martin, Premier of Saskatchewan; J. A., Manager of the Dominion Rubber Co., Kitchener; Dr. Beattie of Regina; Mrs. Dr. Gunn of Calgary and Mrs. (Rev.) Cranston of Clinton. Interment will take place at Mt. Forest, their old home, on Saturday or Monday next to allow of the sons and daughters from the West to be present for the funeral.

ANKLE INJURY—Mr. Alex. Hay, Upper Town, is in for enforced idleness for a week or two. While at his duties in the Furniture Factory, the upsetting of a loaded truck pinned him against the corner of the wall, causing a splinter to be struck off the ankle bone. He walked to the Dr.'s which angered the wound somewhat and he was taken home and now has the injured limb in a plaster cast, and resting easily after some painful intervals.

The fifth and last concert by the Canadian Lyceum Bureau, under Trinity Church auspices came off Thursday night last. The performers had a full hall, and in fact for all the preceding concerts, all the seats were well filled. Trinity church guarantors who were there are to be congratulated on their enterprise, for, while so many surrounding towns are back several dollars, the local men behind it expect will clear approximately of $200. Rev. F. G. Hardy, in his opening speech, thanked all who were instrumental in making it that success and hoped to have a similar series of concerts next fall and winter.

The chief entertainers Thursday evening were Princess Oyapela a direct descendant of the tribe of the Creek Indian, Southern Oklahoma with Miss Pierce, violinist, and Miss Burton, pianist. The Co. Oyapela is a direct descendant of the chief of her tribe who fought in the American Civil War, and appears to be well educated. She gave several exhibitions of the native dances as well as the folklore of her people and her suppleness in the former art easily betrayed her race. She wore striking native costumes and on the whole an agreeable charmer. The pianist and violinists were fully the equal of any of the seasons artists here in their respective lines and also assisted the Princess in her roles.
