PRICEVILLE VILLAGE

Old Man Winter would not resign until the month of March has passed away.

Toronto and all Canada has lost a great citizen and generous friend in the passing of Sir John C. Eaton.

Thos. Fisher sold his house and park lot to Louis Frock who in turn sold it to Arch. McArthur.

Lauchie McLaughlin who has been caring for a fox ranch for a year or more is now starting a ranch of his own.

The Companies who raise foxes in Prince Edward Island, and the farmer's families who have a pair or more as a sideline, might perhaps total 10,000 persons.

We hear favorable reports from Fergus Hospital stating that Don McKinnon is still improving.

Mrs. T. A. Ferguson who has been ill for a month, is gradually improving and is able to be up a part of each day.

Numbers of the school children have been more or less absent from school, owing to colds, &c.

On Sunday morning of this week Rev. R. J. McCarty was somewhat indisposed owing to hoarseness and Miss Wille Patterson, at present principal of Top Cliffs school, south west of village, conducted the service in the Methodist church and the congregation seemed to appreciate her address.

We had an inch or so of snow and sleet over the week end but nothing to compare with Toronto's share of the "beautiful."

SWINTON PARK

This Monday morning the maples are expected to do their bit in sweetening up this old world after the cold and snow of last week.

Mrs. Neil McLeod and daughter Marjorie and son Maurice visited at the old home at Ventry over the week end.

Miss Margaret Alderson is visiting in Dundalk with her sister, Mrs. J. Kennedy.

Swinton Park is losing this week some good citizens in the removal of Mr and Mrs Arthur Prondy and children.

Mrs. Richardson here and Mrs. Buchanan, Dundalk, last week received the sad news of the death in Detroit of their sister, Mrs. John McAulay.

Miss Macphail, who was again loudly cheered, said she had noticed that a "loafing on the job" is having an application nearer home.

pathy to those bereaved, especially as this is the second break in the family this winter.

There was buried at Swinton Park on Saturday, Apr. 1st, the mortal remains of Miss Jane Kinnell who died in a private hospital, Toronto.

A few years ago she with parents and younger members of the family, moved to Dundalk where the mother died some six years ago and is buried in Swinton Park graveyard.

The first teacher was Miss Wilson, daughter of Tailor Wilson of Durham followed by Miss Jones, daughter of Shoemaker Jones, Upper Town.

Miss Porter was here for a short time; Miss Jessie Black, daughter of John Black of Chesley; Miss McPhail now Mrs McGill of Hamilton.

March came in like a lamb, but it certainly went out like a lion. Mr Cameron Smellie and Mr Roy McDonald were in this burg last week sawing wood.

Mr Donald McFarlane left Friday for Hamilton to visit his son Chas. who is at present sick in the hospital and is not getting along as well as his many friends would wish.

Those who served as trustees were and are Neil McCallum Sr, who also acted as Sec'y Treas, for nineteen years; Felix McCaig, Edw. Bone, J. A. Hooper, Joe McPhail, Hec McPhail, Hugh McCaig, Neil McDonald, Hugh McKinnon, John McKinnon, Wm McLeod (Sr and Jr).

The majority of the foregoing officers have passed away some of them many years ago. They acted faithfully according to their ability in discharging their duties and as we find the names on the old records, it will be a reminder to the young generation of their fathers and grandfathers.

Death of James Hopkins

One of Glenelg's best known old residents passed away in Durham on Tuesday, in the person of James Hopkins, in his 64th year.

The deceased was born at Ball's Corners, Normanby township and when about 10 years old, his parents removed to the homestead on south line, Glenelg.

Decayed was Methodist in religion and Conservative in politics, of friendly disposition, and had just commenced to enjoy rest in his later years after an active farm career when his call came.
