DISAPPEARED.—A despatch to the Mail and Empire from Palmerston, tells of the disappearance of a young man of 22, named Radburn, a grandson of Mrs. Geo Watt of this town. He lately came from Northern Ontario, suffering from a nervous breakdown and intended visiting relatives in Fergus, but at time of writing relatives here and there have lost track of him. He is tall and of dark complexion and was wearing a dark suit when seen last.

WELL STAFFED NOW.—The Jno. E. Russell Co., stone crushing plant is now in full operation, with a much greater capacity than last year. There are about seventy five employees, approximately the same number, but with six carloads of new machinery recently installed, it enables them to turn out many carloads more. A night shift will be commenced next week, though with the staff will be but slightly increased. The management have found no difficulty in securing employees with wages a little lower, having turned down scores of applications mainly from outside points.

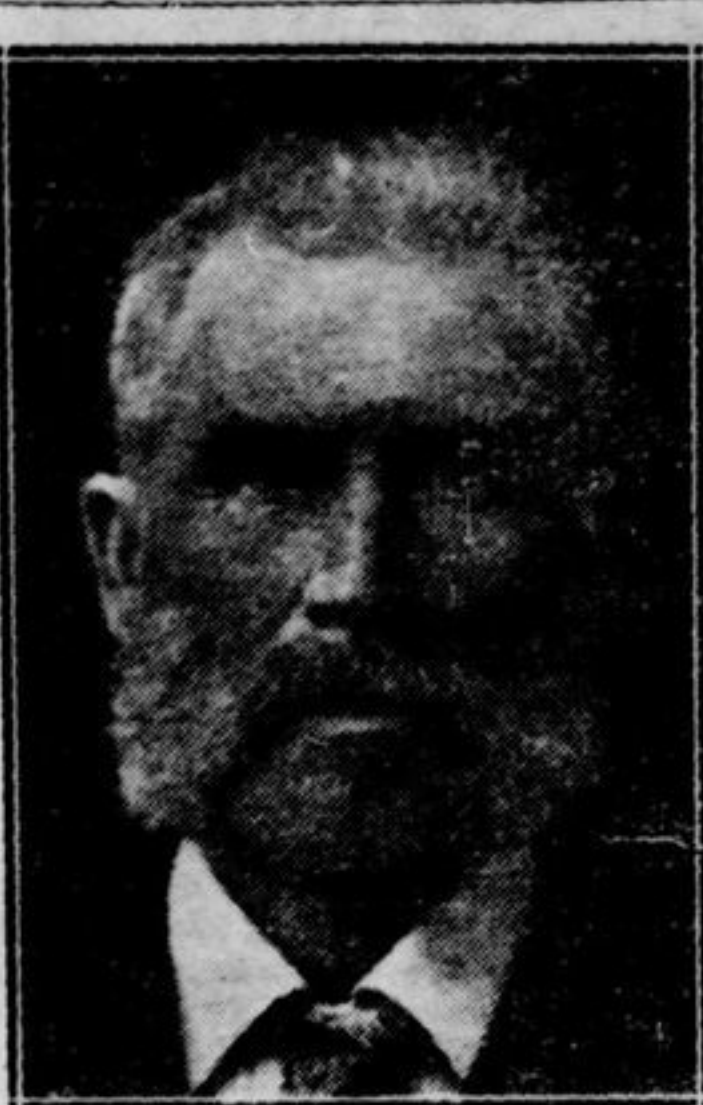

EPWORTH LEAGUE BANQUET.—This active organization of the Methodist church gave their annual banquet on Wednesday night and though the rain dampened the outside atmosphere the interior of the church was quite dry and inviting, with its festoons of crepe paper and gaily decked lights. A splendid supper was served by the Leaguers, and on leaving the tables, one was led to wonder if they had sampled the eats at all, judging from what was left behind. Following the supper the gathering wended their way to the auditorium where Rev. Mr Cole presided over a short but interesting program. The orchestra were at their best in several numbers and were vigorously applauded. Mrs Will Lawrence and Mrs Mark Wilson received a favorable hearing in an Easter duet; Jennie Traynor, a recitation; Roy Wiggins in Harry Lauder songs and in ladies costume; Norma Gagnon and Irvine Storrey in a duet, "The first quarrel"; Wilma Smith in a taking solo and Mr Benson in a sacred solo. The evening closed with the National Anthem.

Knight and Mr Guy Kearney were the prize winners, which took the shape of a deck of playing cards to each. About $23.00 was made at this party which goes to the hospital fund.

MADE AN ASSIGNMENT.—Some concern was felt last week when it was learned that the Jackson Manufacturing Co. had made an assignment to H. J. Snell. We hope the financial difficulties which have led to this action may be capable of solution and that this fine industry which gave promise of much development, may yet be placed on a sure and strong foundation. Operation has not been suspended, Mr A. A. Catton is in charge and a meeting of creditors is called for Wednesday of next week when some solution will be arrived at.

The Women's Institute met on Friday last, April 7th at the home of Mrs C. Ramage, and considering the dubious weather of that day a gathering of forty three ladies would be termed a large meeting. Miss Kathleen Firth in the absence of her mother read a paper brimful of good ideas on "The proper treatment of bulbs." Rev W. H. Smith was present and as President of the Library Board, addressed the ladies as to the advisability of securing books for the Library, that would be an aid in their sphere of work, and would like their co-operation in making the Library a real help to the various organizations of the town. Misses Winnie Blyth and Miss Christene McDonald a solo. Refreshments were served at the close of meeting. The May meeting will be the annual one of the society.

Better Streets for Durham

The meeting on Monday night to consider permanent streets in town was not as well attended as was desirable. Mayor Allan presided and after some preliminary remarks called on Mr Calder who perhaps of all our citizens has had most experience in road construction. He had been in Toronto recently had seen Minister Biggs and his deputy and they were anxious that Durham should proceed with the work. Personally he favored going on too, for there was danger of a change of government and a new government might not be so accommodating as the present one.

He entered on a description of the requirements of a first class street: the space of 60 ft between the sidewalks would be taken by a crown of 20 ft, 6 concrete in the centre and 15 ft on each side of macadamized road. He recalled the cost of concreting in the early years of this century, about 10 cts a square foot and thought that modern machinery and appliances would enable the work to be done as cheaply now as then. The government gives 40 per cent of the cost of granolithic part, not so much if it were macadamized.

From these basic items, he thought the cost of building (road, sewers, &c.) of such a street from Garafaxa St. bridge to the Ford Garage corner would approximate $7000.00 and in the calculation he had included the cost of the sewers and other contingencies. The town he thought could stand this when met by a by-law extending say over 20 years.

Mr Robins, Road Superintendent of Government Roads, added interest to the discussions. He advocates strongly a good road, and thought Mr Calder's estimate too low. He thinks 16 or 17 cts a square foot a likely price.

Mr Laidlaw from much experience gained in his travels over the province, advised putting concrete from side to side and would begin the work from the Review corner. His estimate of the work from bridge to Ford Garage corner including curving gutters, &c, was $2000 or $2500. He urged "build it first class or wait till you are able." Mr Calder thought Mr Laidlaw's cost of gutters too high. Mr H. J. Snell thought it unwise to go ahead at present, till sewerage and water systems are made stable. Mr D. Leith thought it most important the work should be of a more permanent character than the sidewalks down his way. Mr Irwin crystallized the feeling of the meeting by urging the preparation of some definite proposition to enable ordinary citizens to get a better grasp of the situation, his remarks following the taking of a show of hands as to whether they should go on or not. Few voted and the negative carried. Mr John Hunter entered his protest against coming to any decision until clearer estimates of cost, &c, was made.

At last on motion of Jno. Murdoch, H. R. Kock a resolution was carried asking the Council to ascertain some definite method of action as to style of road, probable cost, etc.

The council met at the close of the public meeting, and made or will make arrangements to comply with the desire of the public meeting.

Why Durham and Hanover were Omitted

To the editor, Durham Review: Dear Sir:

In last week's issue of the Review, we were unfavorably impressed with the stand you have taken in regards to the lacrosse grouping that was suggested and published from Mt. Forest recently. You say that Durham and Hanover, two of the best lacrosse towns in the province, were omitted. We quite agree with you and that is the exact reason we omitted them. Now getting right down to business, what chance would Mt. Forest, or any of the other towns mentioned, have with Durham or Hanover? The majority of the towns included have not played lacrosse for a period ranging from seven to fifteen years. If in any way, they were grouped with Durham and Hanover for the first year, it would be another fifteen years before the game would be revived again. Please do not assume, that we are taking a dictatorial attitude in this matter, but are simply pointing out what would be the result if the groupings were arranged to suit the editor. Thanking you for the valuable space you have taken, we are, Yours very truly, Mt. Forest Lacrosse Club

Good-bye to Rev E. J. McEwen

The removal of Rev. Mr. McEwen and family to Dresden next week, induced his many friends to call a meeting in the Baptist church last night to have a representative good-bye. Dr Jamieson was in the chair and made appropriate remarks of his nearest church neighbors, and could testify to their faithfulness in attendance on worship and in church work. He had always been a friend of the Baptist pastors and regrets at the present separation were coupled with congratulations for the future. After a solo by Mr Giles, Mr John Ritchie came to the front and asked Mr and Mrs McEwen to draw near and read the address below, Miss Annie McKenzie presenting the purse, Mrs Chas. Brown the flowers and Miss Leah McComb a remembrance to Bruce.

Mr. McEwen returned sincere thanks on behalf of himself and wife. He felt his coming here had not all been in vain, a debt had been cleared off and his intercours- with his colleagues in the other town churches had impressed him with the importance of the brotherhood of man.

Mr and Mrs. Giles here gave a duet, admirable in taste and harmony.

Rev. Mr Hardy was frankly glad Mr. McEwen was going; it was a promotion (Continued on Page 4)

WHO IS HE?—The joke of the season is the South Grey man who deprecates the fall of Miss Agnes McPhail M. P. who with over 200 of her fellow men members marched up to the bar of the Senate to listen to the speech from the Throne and took her drink with the rest! Such conduct! Such comment!

DRATH OF MRS GEO. MACFARLANE.—Monday last relatives here received the sad news that Mrs Geo. MacFarlane had died at her home in Toronto, aged 55 years, leaving husband and three daughters to mourn. Deceased lady was a native of Glenoe, where she and her husband lived many years. Mr and Mrs Robt MacFarlane, Mr and Mrs Arthur Jackson are attending the funeral.

Intermediate Lacrosse again this Summer

At a preliminary meeting of Durham lacrosse supporters on Wednesday evening, it was decided to place a strong team on the field this season in the Intermediate O. A. L. A. series, and make a strong bid for the championship, which height the boys almost reached last season. Frank McIlraith was appointed delegate to the Good Friday Convention in Toronto, and a committee was named to endeavor to place a couple good men in town at once. It is planned that the Markdale boys who played such a valuable part in last year's team, will again participate. The organization meeting will be held Thursday night of next week. Nothing doing as yet toward entering a Junior or Juvenile team.

Tuxis Boys Organized

Owing to illness Rev. R. B. Ferris Toronto could not attend the Boys meeting arranged in the Baptist Church last Friday and Mr McDonald, an able young enthusiast, came in his place, giving a fine address to the boys and local workers on the objects and work of Tuxis squares. A committee was then appointed comprising two men from each church with Principal Danard as chairman to arrange for the organization of the boys. It is planned to have the boys from all churches meet together for their week night meeting, and each denomination will attend Sunday classes in their own church. Each square selects their own officers and one or more mentors or leaders will supervise each square. The Presbyterian square officers are: Praetor—Willet Snell, deputy praetor—Will Vollett, scription—Bryson Morlock, comptor—Jack Turnbull. The committee meets Thursday night to effect further plans.
