ROB ROY MILLS LIMITED
DISMISSED THE CASE—Three young upper town lads, Moore Mountain, W. Clark and Innes were up before magistrate Laidlaw on Saturday on the charge of riding bicycles on sidewalks. Constable Falconer laid the information on advice from Colin Kennedy, but as the latter had not sufficient evidence to prove his charge, the Magistrate let the boys off free.
LIGHTNING DAMAGE—The lightning storm last week gave Mr Thos. Turn bull's barn a close call. The electric fluid struck the roof and down one end, silvered the roof and went down to the basement took a chip out of a window, but fire did not follow. Luckily the barn was not rodded. It must have run along the hay-tracks and this perhaps saved fire. Horses were stunned and trembling.
PROMPT GOOD STUFF—While riding in a little express wagon Wednesday, George Lavelle, the ten year old son of Mrs Jas. Lavelle, got his hand caught when the wagon jolted. The jar severed his third finger on the right hand at the upper joint, whereupon he picked up the severed finger, wrapped it in some paper, and carried it to Dr D. B. Jamieson to be replanted. This being impossible, and the bone projecting, Dr had to chloroform the lad and re- move end of the bone, to allow the stub remaining to heal over.
FOUND HIS ROSE—While John McGowan, Jr. of town was at work as telephone lineman east of Holstein last Thursday a roll of bills amounting to $18 somehow slipped from his trousers pocket. In Holstein he discovered his loss but it was getting too dark to make a thorough search, so he posted up a couple notices and next morning set out early and covered the road he had traversed but could find no trace of it. Next day (Saturday) Wm Keith in coming to Holstein spied the roll and having heard of the owner, he honorably phoned McGowan, who was delighted to recover it.
ARTISTS IN BUTTER—At least a couple of citizens in town have bought "venerated" lb butter prints. "Venerated," asks the home farmer, "what do you mean?" Just this, inside the mould on four sides and bottom is placed a nice layer of tempting yellow butter. In the centre cavity is placed some white substance, of butter consistency, and this in turn is capped with the good butter, and there you are! The six sides of the cube a golden yellow inside a fraud. The package we saw had "Choice Dairy Butter" printed on the wrapper but no name or other clue. Merchants would be well advised to perforate doubtful prints and exposure should follow if the fraud is discovered.
KILLED BY TRAIN—Sad was the news that came to friends here Tuesday that Wm Wright of Hanover had been killed by the train. We are not in possession of the particulars, but as he was very hard of hearing, his infirmity may have been the cause. He resided for a number of years in Durham, his wife is a sister of Mrs And. Ritchie, Durham and Mrs. Wm Vessie, north of town, all daughters of the late Nathan Dunsmore. Their three children survive, Mary, Mrs Robt Ewen; Pearl, a stenographer in Owen Sound and Thos at home. His funeral takes place Friday to Hanover cemetery. Much sympathy is felt for the family so suddenly bereaved.

Proof of the pudding is in the eating thereof. Thousands praise Tanlac. So will you. Sold at MacFarlane's Drug Store.
Three cars of American corn just arrived at Rob Roy Mills. Get your supply now.

Rob Roy Mills, Durham

NOTICE—Owing to some necessary repairs to be made on the local Hydro line, there will be no power or light on Sunday afternoon next from 1 to 6.30 p. m.
WINTER RETURNS—Wednesday morning was bright and balmy, towards evening from a gloomy sky snow began to fall, and Thursday morning saw three or four inches of "the beautiful" and still coming. Now in a day or two for mud again.
Principal Graham and his assistants at the Public School, are very anxious to have all beginners come out the first day of school after Easter vacation. Parents and guardians should gratify this wish, as the work is greatly retarded when pupils come dropping in two or three weeks after opening day.
HONOR TO FALLEN SOLDIERS—The Memorial Committee in charge of the Soldiers' monument have let the contract to Corbet & Son, Mt. Forest, who will soon begin operations here. By waiting a year a splendid design has been secured for $3600, which last year would have cost about $1000 more. The statue is of bronze, and plinth, die and base of beautiful granite. The work will be done in time to have a suitable Dedication Day in summer.
Presbyterian Choir Cantata
The Presbyterian Choir, under the leadership of their conductor, presented their Easter cantata, "Redemption's Song" on Tuesday night last, and we have yet to hear a dissenting voice to the manner in which it was prepared and rendered. Any criticism that has been given was such as to make this organization feel rewarded for their work of the past few weeks and feel no time lost when encoiuments were showered upon them as they were that evening and since.
The Cantata was composed of choruses, duets and solo work and the framework of it all was based on the crucifixion, death and ascension of Christ and the composers idea was well carried out and suggestive of the accompanying words of the Cantata.
Midway in the program Rev. W. H. Smith gave an address in keeping with the evening's topic being "The Ordination of a Minister." The Ordination of a minister is a sacred and important service of the church and the church provision was made to minister to the elder, to manager, and to the pastor, yet the position was one of great importance, instrumental music being referred to Old Testament instances of power and Elisha's request at a grave crisis "Bring me a minstrel." (2 Kings 3: 15) and when the minstrel played the hand of the Lord was upon him.
It was a delightful little sketch.
The choir were almost full strength, with an augmented choir of young children who sang sweetly behind the scenes in the first number. The solo and duet parts were taken by Mrs W. Luder, Misses W. Blyth, Jessie Bell, Vaddie Caldwell, Messrs Thos. Bell, P. Ramage and G. Huzib. Mrs T. M. McFadden and Miss Alice Ramage contributed a duet in the Cantata.
Miss Margaret Hunter, organist, had a busy evening and to her painstaking care and efficiency, is due the many kind words bestowed upon the choir.
The assisting artist of the evening was Miss Maud Buschlen, Canada's Premier Violinist. Her selections, classical and modern, were such as to draw forth unreserved applause and appreciation. Her bowing is remarkable and the feat of two string playing is as rare as it is beautiful.
Her rendition of Scotch melodies "Echoes from Argyleshire" pleased the Scotch in the audience and her return number was "Shearn Trubhan," an imitation of the bagpipes and was most realistic. She had a piano the able assistance of Miss Rita Irwin who was a sympathetic accompanist to each number.
The receipts amounted to something over $75.00.

Intermediates Organized

At an enthusiastic gathering of lacrosse supporters, Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected for Durham's intermediate O. A. L. A. team for 1922.
President—Harvey Wilson
Vice President—Dr. D. Jamieson
Secretary—Dr. D. B. Jamieson
Treasurer—J. A. Rowland
Manager—Goy Kearney
Playing Men—J. S. McLachlan, Managing Com. W. A. McGowan, P. Gagnon, F. Irwin.
A vote of thanks was tendered J. H. Harding for his untiring services as manager last year, coupled with regret that he could not resume the post this season.
Prospects are good for as strong or an even stronger line up than last year's provincial champions, St. Mary's. A Graham and Christie McDonald, last year with Oshawa and Sarnia are back to town. Jack Hills who plays with Brantford this season is the only absentee, as again on duty, we possibly a couple more from other towns. A compact grouping is not yet in sight as O. E. Sound and Hanover, two of last year's opponents, are out of intermediate lacrosse this summer.

Good-bye to the McEwens

Tuesday morning Rev. Mr McEwen and family left for their new home in Dresden, carrying with them the best wishes of his old flock and citizens of all denominations. Their stay in town and the community in no light degree and they will long occupy a kindly niche in the memory of their many friends.
On Sunday evening a large congregation assembled to hear his last discourse. Quite a number from other churches worshipped with them and listened to some earnest words from 2 Cor. 5: 10. "For we must all appear before the Judgment seat of Christ, &c."
He pointed out the connection between the "things done in the body" and made an affectionate appeal to all to be found on the right side of the Judgment seat.
Apart from his sermon he thanked the congregation, the officials of the church and the choir for the effective backing they had given him. He made special mention of the services of Mr and Mrs Giles in the service of praise, and closed with deep feeling by commending all to the throne of the heavenly grace.
The choir and Mr and Mrs Giles had some fine Easter music for the occasion. Cordial last handshakes with good wishes were extended to the pastor as the congregation filed out.

BORN

McGOWAN—In Durham on Tuesday, 18th April to Mr and Mrs W. A. McGowan, a daughter—(Mary Gwyneth Stewart).
ATKINSON—In Durham on Wednesday, April 12th to Mr and Mrs Wm. Atkinson, a daughter.
The Late Mrs Jas. Hobkirk
At the ripe age of 88 years Mrs. Hobkirk, a pioneer of Bentinck, passed away on Saturday last at her home on the 9th con, where she has resided for the long period of 64 years and retained all her faculties to the last.
Deceased was Miss Christine Brown, sister of the late Alex. Brown, well known in Priceville, and other brothers and sisters who have all predeceased her. She was born at Ross Mull, Argyleshire, and came to Canada in 1850, with her parents, settling first in Vaughan township. Later, moving to "the bush" in Bentinck, she married Mr. Jas. Hobkirk in 1858 and was left a widow in 1864. Their family consisted of two sons and two daughters: one son Alex. died a year ago, James and Annie are at the home and Mrs Hugh McDonald, Durham, is the other daughter. She had a long healthy life and an attack of pneumonia proved fatal.
Deceased was a woman of character, Presbyterian in faith, genial and kindly as a neighbor, and ever a bright force in the home. She clung to her native Gaelic to the last, though had English to accommodate when necessary. She was rarely if ever away from home, never were she told, rode on a train, and the telephone "speaking to a hole in the wall" as she termed it, was to her always a wonder.
Her funeral on Monday to Rocky cemetery was attended by many old friends. Her pastor, Rev. Mr. Steele, assisted by Rev. Mr. Aird, conducted appropriate services. The pall bearers were Donald McDonald, A. C. McDonald, Donald McKechnie, Alex. Brown, Duncan Livingstone, Arch McDougall, all neighbors of deceased. Her grandsons, John McDonald, Hamilton and Dan McDonald with wife and family, Toronto, came up for the funeral. Other relatives present were nieces Mrs Walker, Mrs N. McKinnon, Mrs. McCabe and Mrs Muir, all of Toronto; Mr. A. S. Muir, Ceylon; Mrs Angus Brown, Chesley and Mrs Alex Walker, Toronto, were also among the mourners. Besides six grandchildren, she has seven great grandchildren.

Such a paper is The Farmer Sun, Toronto, owned and published three times a week by the farmers in the interest of the farmers, 15¢ issues for only $2.00. ## Labor Troubles on Tea Plantations

The high wages paid to workers on the tea plantations in India and Ceylon during the war, and the present scarcity of the leaf, have led to a constantly increasing price for good tea. It is rumored that the cost of producing tea which has advanced between 12 and 16¢ a pound during the last 18 mos., will soon make necessary a general increase in retail prices.
