DUPLICATE GIFTS AT ROYAL WEDDING

PRINCESS CUT HUGE CAKE WITH LASCELLES' SWORD.

Bride Received 17 Umbrellas, 47 Breakfast Sets and 893 Articles Made from Precious Metals.

Every bride no doubt has confronted the problem of what to do with duplicate wedding presents. When all the aunts and uncles suddenly decide that salt cellars or vases would be just the thing to give to Susie the new home takes on quite a lopsided air. But imagine the difficulties of Princess Mary, whose duplicates in many cases run as high as sixty.

An interesting classification of the wedding gifts shows that in the jewel section there was the following evidences of "great minds running in the same channel."

Bracelets, nine; necklaces, five; pendants, six; tiaras, two; brooches, twenty-two; rings, seven; chains, eight; caskets, ten; boxes, thirty-nine; pins, ten; dress crnaments, twentyone; fans, twelve; miniatures, six; and watches, two.

Among the 893 gifts made from precious metals there were:

Jugs and bowls, 66; dishes, 28; trays, 29; vases, 24; cups, 31; goblets, 12; inkstands, 18; ornaments, 86; statuettes, 25; cardcases, 14; ash trays, 53; traveling cases, 8; cigarette cases, 9; workboxes, 7.

The largest individual number of gifts of any particular type was books, which total 197. Next in numerical order was pictures, totaling 87. There were 71 articles of furniture, and the list of household gifts included:

Ornaments, 62; apparel, 51; glass bowls, 40; candelabra, 22; clocks, 22; mirrors, 10; cabinets, 14; umbrellas, 17; lamps and shades, 14; rugs, 17; cutlery, 22; wall brackets, 8.

For the various table services there were the following items: Dining table, 36, tea table, 28; breakfast table, 47; writing table, 58; complete services, 14; toast racks, 16; drinking cups, 18; silver dishes, 30; gold dishes,

11; silver salvers, 18. The items for the writing table in cluded 17 paper knives, 14 blotters and 12 writing sets. A few miscellaneous items were: Baskets, 16; old linen and lace, 24; boudoir articles, 28; pairs of gloves, 70; table linen, 28; wedding cakes, 10; dress lengths, 13, and hunt-
