The "Farm for Sale or Rent" advt. in the Review last week for Miss Jean Gray's 50 acre farm south of town, brought a number of enquiries and it has been leased for three years to Mr Ezra Schenk, butcher.

MOVED BACK TO FARM.—Mr and Mrs Peter Reid Jr., last Friday removed back to their former farm in Egremont, which they purchased from her father Mr D. Eccles. They have lived in town seven or eight years, but his health not being good at inside work at the furniture factory, they sold their home near the station and went back to the land.

Readers of the "Globe" were interested last week in noticing the name of R. A. Farquharson appearing over an article on Crop Conditions in Western Canada. "R. A." is covering the west at all points as far as the coast to get first hand impressions of the crop outlook.

Monday evening in the Presbyterian Church, a large number were present to listen to Miss Warren of Walkerton, returned missionary from Wei Whei, North Honan, China and at present home on furlough. She is a pleasing and fluent speaker, and in an attractive way presented the great need for workers in that over populated country. North Honan, while in area is no larger than Western Ontario, has 8,000,000 of people. China itself has 400,000,000 souls, or one quarter of the world's inhabitants.

At the close of her address words of appreciation were extended to Miss Warren by Rev. W. H. Smith and these were endorsed by the audience. Misses V. Caldwell and Jessie Bell contributed a duet during the evening.

LEAVING FOR THE WEST.—After being residents of Durham for over thirty years, Mr and Mrs James Lloyd and daughter Norma intend leaving on Friday to make their home in Fork River, Man. with their son George. The latter conducts a successful billiard parlor and grocery store in that village, and requiring more help has invited his parents to make their home with him and go into business. Mr Lloyd has for many years been a member of the Town Council and has ever been a champion of temperance and all moral reform. His removal will leave a vacancy in the Council to be filled. Mr and Mrs Lloyd and daughter have been valued citizens and good neighbors, and their departure will be regretted though the town will wish their prosperity and comfort in their new home. They have sold their home on Lambton St to Mr and Mrs P. Reid Sr., and daughter Miss Jessie, who take possession this week end. The two Lloyd boys at home James and Anson, will both remain in town.

An automobile factory will be located in Collingwood if the town will guarantee bonds to the extent of $120,000. Some guarantee!

"It is one medicine that does all that is claimed for it." Thousands have said it about tanlac and so will you if you try it. Sold at Macfarlane's Drug Store.

EARLIER AFTERNOON TRAIN.—Commencing next Monday, May 1st, the Grand Trunk will put on a faster afternoon train service to Toronto and points south. The afternoon train will leave Durham at 3.15 p. m. instead of 4.25, over an hour earlier and arrive in Toronto at 7.40 p. m., about two hours earlier. No change in morning train. The earlier afternoon service will be appreciated by the travelling public.

ARRIVED IN AFRICA.—Mrs Thos Banks has received a letter from Mrs E. F. Rice who arrived at her destination in Nigeria, Africa, safely. Since arriving she has been very busy attending to patients who have come to their compound with badly diseased feet and limbs. She says "a poor woman while out cutting wood had a branch fall on her foot, breaking it at the ankle. They sent for Ed. to come out to the place where she had dragged her self. Poor thing, you would have felt sorry for her with her foot dangling half off. We did our best to cleanse it and get the bone inside the flesh, then we got boards and made splints and bandaged it firmly." Mrs. Rice is also teaching five to ten scholars daily. Her sewing machine and gramophone and records have also come through safely, and the latter instrument provides much amusement to the natives.

Will meet in Durham to Discuss Hydro Matters

Municipalities on Eugenia system will be represented on May 15th

As a result of a call sent out by Owen Sound Utilities Commission, representatives of the various municipalities served by the Eugenia Hydro system will likely meet in Durham on Monday, May 15th. Several places have now accepted the invitation and suggestions are being received as to the character that the meeting should take. It is expected a program will be drafted this week.

A deficit of $16,210.38 for 1921, charged to Owen Sound Utilities Commission by the Hydro-Electric Commission of Ont., bestirred them to action. The Owen Sound Commission decided to ask the Provincial body for a detailed statement before any move is made to settle the bills and sent out invitations to call this meeting to fully discuss the Eugenia system, and enquire into the manner it is being managed and conducted.

Lacrosse Groupings Drafted

In the preliminary draft of O. A. L. A. groupings, Durham is placed in Intermediate District No. 5, along with Wingham, Paisley, Tara and Southampton. With Hanover and Owen Sound both dropping out of Intermediate ranks this season it necessitated Durham being grouped much farther afield. Wingham one of last year's opponents is 42 miles distant, Tara about 34, Paisley 32 and Southampton 30, or there are no short runs.

Arthur, Mt. Forest, Harriston and Listowel comprise Group 6, all practically new teams in Intermediate ranks.

Hanover Juniors are grouped with Dundalk and Shelburne, and Hanover Juveniles and Hanover midgets each get a bye.

The Durham Orchestra will hold a dance in the Town Hall on Friday evening of this week, April 28th. Admission 50c, or per couple $1.50. All are welcome.

Mr Arthur Innes has severed partnership with his brother Hugh in the foundry business, here and has opened up a new foundry in the old McFarlane shop at top of Durham hill.

Re-forestation

Dr. Jamieson Makes a Practical move

We are delighted to learn that Dr. Jamieson has purchased about 250 acres in North Egremont and near where the McLean saw mill used to operate. He intends to have it fenced to allow nature to have her way with the growth at present existing, but proposes to plant out under expert advice some thousands of butternut and other trees of commercial value. There are streams running through it, and while the Dr. has no hope of equalling Jack Miner, he believes a kind of sanctuary of wild life will result from the experiment. He intends also to deposit trout spawn in the streams.

We shall watch with keenest interest this development. It has not only aesthetic interest but will have a commercial value by-and-by, even though the promoter may not live to see it. It will however, we are sure be one of the pleasures of his later years to watch its development.

Reforestation is one of the great needs of Ontario at this day. Not only for the conservation of moisture in the soil but actually for the annual market value of the timber that will be produced. Sweden and other European countries are financially realizing already from reforested areas. Too many Canadians of the last generation looked on a tree as an enemy to be got rid of. That day is past and one may hope that for two or three weeks now wherever there is a chance to "stick in a tree" it will be done.

There was wisdom in the advice of the Laird of Dumbiedykes, one of Sir Walter Scott's characters to his son on his deathbed "Aye be stickin in a tree, Jock, it will be growing when ye're deid."
