A Sermon to Oddfellows

Nearly 40 of the Independent Order of Oddfellows worshipped in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening last. Rev. Mr. Smith, who has recently joined the Order, based his remarks on the beautiful story of the love and brotherhood of David and Jonathan. True brotherly love must be spontaneous, unselfish and loyal and around these three qualities he wove a mass of instructive discourse. Jesus Christ was the ideal brother, true in all the qualities mentioned and we should all seek to know the grip of his hand, the one Friend who will make us do the best we can.

On returning to their lodge room a hearty vote of thanks was passed Rev. Mr. Smith for his inspiring discourse, and also to the choir for the fine music provided. Brethren from Mt. Forest and Hanover lodges had also been expected but special I. O. O. F. church services were being held elsewhere on Sunday. As it was the 103rd anniversary of the Order, this prevented outside brethren from attending.

DORNOCH

We are pleased to see our pastor, Rev. Mr. Sillars able to resume his duties after an illness of three weeks. Miss Mayme Sullivan of Owen Sound was home over the week end. Mr and Mrs Harvey Givens of Holland Centre visited the latter's parents Sunday. Mr and Mrs McArthur of Lion's Head, spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs J. Crutchley.

Mrs R. Dargavell returned home Saturday after a three month's visit with relatives in Toronto and Detroit. Mrs J. H. Parke and daughter, Miriam of Toronto have been here for the past week packing up. Mr Parke has started a grocery store in Toronto.

The Dornoch Branch of the Women's Institute will hold their annual meeting May 10 at the home of Mrs J. Koepf, all members are requested to be present. Mrs R. Dargavell will have a paper on Mother's Day. Roll call, a funny story.

Mr John McDonald, Sr., is quite ill at present with stomach trouble and son John has been bedfast all last week with grippe and bronchitis. Mr Jack Smith of Durham spent Sunday at his home here.

DORNOCH

(From another correspondent)

At the Rectory, Paisley, April 19, Mr Dan Rae, son of Mr and Mrs Jno. Rae of Glenelg, was married to Miss Anita, daughter of Mrs E. Luttrell of Elderslie. Rev. Thos Hicks performed the ceremony. After their honeymoon, the young couple will take up residence with the bride's mother on her farm on the 4th con. of Elderslie, where the groom has been employed since his return from overseas. Dan Rae is one of the boys who saved us from a close, personal acquaintance with the Hun and deserves much more than conventional congratulations from his Dornoch friends. Miss Jennie Luttrell, the popular teacher at Orchard, is a sister of the bride.

Mr and Mrs Jno Jones and Mrs. T. Heathers of Owen Sound, visited Mr and Mrs Geo Jones over the week end. Mr and Mrs. Hugh McArthur and Miss Cook of Eborale, visited Mr. and Mrs Jas. Crutchley on Sunday.

Mrs Colin McIntyre and A. D. visited her sister, Mrs Greenwood in Glenelg on Sunday.

Born, in Elderslie, on April 14th, to Mr and Mrs Jas. Buchanan a daughter.

Mr Robt Corlett Jr. sold two cattle recently for $225.00. Mr Corlett sells his beef as well finished product and we do not grade him his reward but imagine any one man having all that money to spend on himself without paying out one cent for circus, pink powder or castoria or even gasoline.

Our pessimist predicts a failure of the fruit crop, but several bunches of the loveliest grapes have already ripened in Dornoch, not to speak of cherries and plums and flowers.

"Like to a moving vintage down they came, Crowned with green leaves and faces all alike."

Whence came ye merry damsels, whence came ye, So many and so many and such glad? Why have ye left your bowers desolate, your lutes add gentler late? We follow Bacchus! Bacchus on the wing, a conquering!

We beg your pardon Mr Beckett, but the poet we quote never heard of the O. T. A. and though our ladies wear the sign of Bacchus, they are much too lively to have a "still" any where about them.

O magic sleep! O comfortable bird, That broodest o'er the troubled sea of the mind Till it is hush'd and smooth!" So thought several worshippers, weary from the week's work, as they sat back in the pews prepared for a nap, when-what-what that the preacher said? "The last Sunday I preached here I counted six members of this congregation fast asleep!" Mr Sillars who is taking up his work pluckily, after a severe illness, was willing to go fifty-fifty on the blame for the somnolence, but announced that in future a hymn would be struck up to waken, if possible, the heavy eyed, -a less drastic method surely than that of the auld kirk pastor who shield his Bible at the slumberer, crying, "It ye will nae hear the Word, ye shall feel it!"

Mr Sillars has no reason to shoulder the blame. If he only knew how much sleep half of his congregation lose, worrying about their money and the other half about the want of it, he would realize their need of a well-earned rest.

HAMPDEN

Seeding is in full swing in this locality and if we don't have to contend with any more young winters, we won't be too late in getting the crops in. The fall wheat is not looking too bad after the recent sleet storms we have had.

Mrs H. Byers who has spent the winter months visiting her daughter in Toronto and Dundas returned to the home of her son Michael last week.

Mrs Anderson is we are sorry to say under the Dr's care at present. The Misses Derby of Niagara and Detroit were spending a few days at the old home farm last week.

Mr and Mrs Mark Mervyn and daughters of Humber attended church here last Sunday.

Mr Albert Kraft disposed of a valuable horse the other day and realized a handsome figure. The buyers came from Neustadt.

Mr Inspector Wright of Hanover is busy these days looking after the interests of the various schools. No. 8 was attended to on Monday.

The Sunday School will be started next Sunday. Now the roads are dry there should be a good attendance.

ROCKY SAUGEEN

We are having fine weather at present and seeding is general this week.

Mrs Robt. Webber spent the week end with her daughter, Mrs J. Caswell.

Mr Albert Middleton of Durham is assisting Mr Thos. Turnbull with the spring work.

Mrs Bert Taylor of Toronto, is spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr and Mrs Arch. Thompson and assisting to nurse her brother, Clarence, who, we are pleased to report is improving.

Mr and Mrs Walter Clark and family visited the first of the week with Mrs J. D. Clark of Aberdeen.

Sunday School re-opens next Sunday. Let the parents see that all the children are present on the opening day. Rev. Mr Sillars called on some of these people this week. Mrs Earl Vessie and children and the Misses Picken were guests of Mrs Jack Caswell on Monday. Messrs Alex and Jack Lawson spent Sunday with L. A. and Campbell McLean. Mr Roy Thompson arrived home from Toronto on Monday. The Rev Duncan Sillars hopes to resume his ministry at Rocky Saugeen Church on the first Sabbath of May. Mr and Mrs Wil Collinson of Durham visited Mrs Arch McKechnie on Sunday. Mrs McKechnie has been sick for the past few weeks but is feeling a little better at present.
