HOLSTEIN-MILDMAY
 First W. F. A. Game a 1-1 Tie.
 Holstein made a very creditable showing at Midway on Monday, May 15th, 1922 when they held the Mildmay eleven to an even score Holstein drew first blood in 15 minutes when Roy Dickson took a pass from right wing and scored. Five minutes later Mildmay evened it up when they used their weight and crowded a ball lighting in front of the goal, through between the bars. The first half showed the best football as both teams fell down in the last half, due to lack of condition. Mildmay plays here June 16. Don't miss this game as Mildmay eleven have weight speed and science. Keep this date open. Line up:
HOLSTEIN

North Egremont
 The Ebenezer Dramatic Club composed of that Biblical Number "7", young ladies all from the locality, journeyed to the sister congregation of Salem in Proton on Friday evening last and again gave their play of "A Southern Cinderella" it was, as on a former occasion at home, well rendered, though lacking a certain amount of inspiration, through the rather small audience, due to faulty advertising, we are told. The audience was appreciative and responded to the tune of $28. A sumptuous lunch was served at the close by the good people of Salem, at the hospitable home of Mr and Mrs Herd, to the performers. They give it again this Tuesday night in Priceville.

The ladies of Amos Church choir purpose holding a old time concert in the church on June 2nd, when singers, reciters, speakers and instrumental musicians of those early days will take part in old favorites. A sort of old boys and (girls) reunion so to speak.
 Toronto friends of Mr and Mrs A. Hann visited them over the week end motoring up.

Mr Reggie Ramage, after four days stay in Fergus hospital returned home. Fortunately the accident was less serious than anticipated but it's better to be sure than sorry.

Mr Eddie Sills has an attack of the flu and under the Dr's care.

Mother's Day was feelingly observed at Amos Church on Sunday last with flowers, special music, the finest of the some hundred fine sermons we have heard during the last two years. It certainly was a delight and inspiration. Say when does father's day, not to say grandfather's come in?
